What We Have To Offer.

NO ONE chartered Bank in Canada has anything greater to offer the business community than its contemporaries unless it be in the character of the service it renders. During its life the Canadian Bank of Commerce has developed a distinct individuality through the kind of service maintained in its daily transactions. The commercial aspect of this individuality is found in the many unique services for which the Canadian Bank of Commerce is peculiarly equipped.

Weather conditions have certainly been variable the past week. Wednesday night and Thursday morning the temperature dropped to 12 below zero, and on Sunday a regular thaw set in which lasted for one day. On account of such weather colds are prevalent.

Messrs. George Brackenbury asd E. A. Preston took two rinks of curlers to Markdale Monday night and enjoyed two interesting games there with rinks skipped by H. H. Lucas and C. King. They failed to win a game, athough the scores were within three and four points of the winners.

On Sunday evening Rev. W. J. Scott commenced a series of sermons to be delivered each Sunday in St. John's United Church on the subject "The Manhood of the Master." The third sermon will be illustrated by lantern lecture on the Eastern customs in the time of Christ.

Flesherton 1 Markdale 0

Again Flesherton showed their superiority over the Markdale seniors when they won a hard-fought game played in the local arena on Friday night last,, but only by a one goal margin, the score being1-0. This gives Flesherton a splendid chance to win group honors, as they have won two and lost one game to date.

The game was not a very speedy affair the first half, offsides and the kicking of the puck marring the playing.

There was no scoring the first two periods, but towards the last of the middle session play commenced to open up in the efforts to secure a score. Checking was close and heavy and quite a number of penalties were handed out during the game. There were twelve minutes of playing in the third period before any score was made, and Flesherton grabbed the first and only one. Gorrell grabbed the puck at centre ice, flew down right wing boards and drilled a sizzling shot at Wright which he had his eye on, but Bill Patton came in fast for the rebound and he made sure that Wright was wrong that time, but it was a beautiful counter, which pleased the local crowd which gave vent to its feelings in the proper manner. After this sally the Markdale squad had four men up on the forward line, but Snell in the local nets was impregnable, smothering many rushes that appeared to be sure counters. He played as though inspired and great credit is due to his magnificent net minding.

Flesherton — Goal, Snell; defence, Boyd and McTavish; centre, J. Nuhn; wings. H. McCutcheon and Gorrel; subs, Patton, Sled and Ferris.

Markdale — Goal, Wright; defence, Johnson and White; centre, M. McFarlane; wings, E. McFarlane and P. Wright; subs. Singleton, F. McCutcheon and Perkins.

1st Period: No scoring.

Penalties: Nuhn, Johnston, White, M. Perkins.

2nd Period: No scoring.

Penalties: Gorrell. Nuhn, F. McCutcheon, M. McFarlane.

3rd Period: Flesherton — Patton, assisted by Gorrell.

Penalties: Patton, McTavish, Johnson, E. McFarlane.

Referee: C. Murcur, Dundalk.

HOCKEY NOTES

Johnny Nuhn played a whale of a game at centre ice and was always a stumbling block for the Markdale forwards to surmount.

Reg Boyd and Cecil McTavish combined nicely on the defence and very seldom allowed Markdale to have a clear shot on goal. When that occurred Snell came to the rescue each time.

While the first period was slow there were many bright spots throughort that "brought the crowd to their feet."

Harold McCutcheon played a fine game at left wing, but he was handicapped by an injured shoulder received in Markdale the Monday before. In fact he should not have been playing. However his defensive work was effective.

Bill Patton and Fred Gorrell handled themselves like veterans, both of them receiving credit for the winning goal.

Cecil McTavish is the "bad man" of the team and has earned four trips to the cooler. Reg Boyd earned three in the first game, but has not been caught in any infractions of the rules in the last two games.

A tie game or a win will result in the Flesherton team becoming winners of this section and will play Durham for the group leadership. If the locals suffer a loss a third game will be necessary to decide a winner.

The Feldspar Glass Company of Oshawa resumed operations recently after being closed for several months. Forty-four employees are working in two shifts.

St. John's U. Church Held Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. John's United church was marked by a fine spirit of encouragement and cheer. The reports from the various organizations showed marked progress in every department. The local work showed a balance on the right side, while most encouraging has been the increased interest in the Missionary cause as indicated by an increase in Missionary givings.

In the report of the Session special mention was made of the fine work done in the Sunday School and Young People's Society, the W.M.S. is its Missionary educational work, the Ladies' Aid in its most active support of every good work and the choir and its leader, Mrs. Blackburn, in the service of Praise.

Among other meetings during the year the life of the congregation was greatly stimulated by the visit of Dr. Duncan McLeod from "far Formosa," and the Moderator of the General Council of the United Church, Dr. Edmund Oliver, Principal of St. Andrew's College, Saskatoon.

The Presbytery of Grey held its regular spring meeting in St. John's church and Mr. William Inkster, the representative Elder, was honored by the Presbytery in being elected as one of the two lay delegates to the General Council which met in London in September last. The pastor of the congregation has been elected as the Chairman of the Presbytery of Grey for the current year.

The retiring Stewards, Earl Best, W. A. Hawken and A. Down were re-elected and Mr. John McMillan was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Jos. McKee, Sunday School Supt. Dr. W. D. Bryce was appointed to fill the unexpired term of T. W. Findlay. F. J. Thurston and C. J. Bellamy were appointed auditors.

The following extract from the Session report presented by Mr. T. R. McKenzie reveals the spirit sought and the goal to be set before the congregation for the coming year:

The Session observes with great satisfaction the spirit of harmony existing among our people and evidenced in all the organizations of our church. It is proof of the deep seated indwelling of Christ's Spirit in human hearts, when that spirit is manifest in intercourse with our fellow creatures. In this connection much is due to the exemplary leadership of our esteemed minister, Rev. Mr. Scott who, by precept and example, has been to us a constant inspiration to lives of love and virtue.

Finally, it is the prayer and hope of the Session that throughout the year which lies before us, to all our people, may be opened up new avenues of usefulness, and that new joys and richer blessings will be experienced in a fuller consecration of our lives to the service of the Master.

"You may help a load to lighten, as you go;
Making lonely faces brighter, as you go;
You may cheer a heart that's broken:
By a kindly message spoken,
You may give a loving token, as you go."

A WHITE OWL

Seeing a arge bird swoop down in his yard and pick up one of his choice 15 pound turkeys, Henry Whitney of North Orillia got his gun and gave chase. After several hours, looking up a nearby tree, he spied the bird quietly feeding on the turvey. He fired, breaking its wing. As he rushed forward to make the capture, the bird's claws penetrated his clothes and pierced his side. It was a White Moutnain owl with a wing spread of over six feet—a type never before seen in this neighborhood.

Crowd Out to Hear The Play "Pollyanna

Who is there that has not heard of Eleanor Porter's Pollyanna, the Glad Girl, who was even glad that she had freckles, because they might have been boils? Well, Pollyanna came to Flesherton on Tuesday, and gave us one of the most delightful evenings we have had in Flesherton for many a year. The young people of St. John's United church were responsible for her appearance.

The town hall was filled almost to its capacity with an intensely interested audience who were swayed with tears and laughter by the pathos and joy of the drama unfolded to them, and nothing but highest praise was heard on every side for the excellence of the entertainment.

Mrs. W. D. Bryce as Pollyanna was simply perfect in her character and took the hearts of the audience by storm from the moment she appeared on the stage. We do not know whether Mrs. Bryce has ever taken lessons in expression, but we do know that such lessons would never improve her along that line as she displayed it on Tuesday evening. She stormed the mental citadel of a disgruntled aunt and everyone else with whom she came in contact, and brought tears to the eyes with the prayer to her dead mother to come to her. In child character pourtrayal Mrs. Bryce is superb. She was well supported by the other members and altogether the little drama was one of the very finest things we have enjoyed here in many a day.

Flesherton has some excellent histrionic talent and should the same artists ever decide to give us something else, or even a repetition, they will be assured of a warm welcome.

Three young ladies distributed homemade candy.

The proceeds amounted to about seventy dollars.

Holdfast Club Meeting

Eighteen members and four visitors enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Lottie Whittaker, when she entertained the Holdfast U.F.W.O. Club at their January meeting. After the opening exercises the roll call was answered by a simple supper dish. Mrs. Jas. Robertson gave a reading "Bairns Cuddle Doon" Miss Lottie Whittaker gave a splendid report of the U.F.O. convention in Toronto in December. Mrs. George Fisher gave a reading "Saving that ten minutes," and Mrs. Archie Stewart gave a paper on the "Ontario liquor bill is high." All the ladies present signed the Peace Pact petition. The next meeting is to be given by Mrs. Donald Stewart at the Park Hotel, Flesherton, on February 11th. Miss Agnes Macphail will give an address, and there will also be a debate resolved "that womes should work in business after marriage." After the meeting closed, lunch was served, also a treat of candy by the hostess. All ladies are invited to attend the U.F.W.O. meetings.

A GOOD BULL.

On Tuesday Mr. Roy Piper received a fine young bull, "Royal Favorite" 201313, recently purchased from the herd of Robert Miller of Stouffville. This is an exceptionally fine individual, being sired by Col. H. Deacon's great show bull Edellyn Favorite 187387, grand champion C.N.E and Winter Fair 1928-29; Senior and Reserve Grand Champion C.N.E. and Royal Winter Fair 1930. Grand Champion International 1929. The new owner is to be congratulated on his purchase, it being the intention to use this animal exclusively in his own herd.
