

School reunion

This replica of the Monteith-Shillington Public School looked good enough to eat....and it was. The cake, being cut by principal Gord Phillips, was made by Heike Walker and her daughter Lori for the school reunion held Victoria Day Weekend. The Enterprise will carry a complete report of the reunion in next week's edition. photo by Marg McGee