SPECIAL AND IMPORTANT NOTICE
TO CASH CUSTOMERS.
JAMES HOPE,
Dealer in Boots and Shoes, No. 36
Princess Street, Kingston.
DESIRES most respectfully to thank his numerous Customers for a liberal patronage extending over FIFTEEN YEARS.
In closing his accounts for the past year the advertiser has determined to abandon the Credit system altogether, and he wishes his Customers to understand this announcement in the most positive sense. Determined not to be outdone in the price or quality of his Stock, he is prepared to sell BOOTS and SHOES of unrivalled manufacture at the lowest remunerative prices on strictly cash terms.
Unpaid accounts must be settled immediately, otherwise they will be put in suit.
The patronage of Cash Customers solicited.

RAPPE, WEBER, & CO.,
Large Manufacturers of
GRAND OVERSTRUNG SQUARE
PIANOS,
Corner of King & Princess Streets
KINGSTON, ONTARIO.
RAPPE, WEBER, & Co. announce to the Public that they are now in possession of facilities for manufacturing Pianos unsurpassed, if equalled, by any in the Dominion.
The members of the Firm are Practical Piano Makers, and are anxious to establish their success in manufacturing enterprise by careful workmanship rather than by mere speculation. They are able skilfully to superintend every department, and are prepared to guarantee every instrument they sell.
For strength of manufacture and materials, beauty of finish, and durability and excellence of tone, they challenge the Dominion to produce superior instruments; and while they claim for their work evesy excellence that can be expected from skillful and enterprising workmen, they beg to announce that their resources are sufficiently ample to enable them to compete in prices with any speculator in Pianos.
The Subscribers keep no Travelling Agent. All orders addressed to the Subscribers, or sent through any respectable Music Dealer, will receive attention. Orders through mail will be attended to as if selected in person.
RAPPE, WEBER, & CO.
May 20.

A CARD.
RAPPE, WEBER, & Co. deem it unnecessary in their announcement above to notice the advertisement of their competitor, Mr F. C. Cline. They beg to inform the public that it was not the privilege of Mr Cline to retain all of the late J. O. Fox's workmen.
The Advertisers were selected by the late Mr Fox from the best establishments in New York, (Steinway's, Stoddard's, Weber, Gabler, etc.)
After Mr Fox's death, and before Mr Cline's purchase of a part of Mr Fox's stock, Rappe, Weber & Co. had determined to go into business on their own account. As at present constituted, their establishment consists of four Proprietors, every one of whom have been foremen, and their workmen who have been foremen; so that so far as the "culling of workmen" (a novelty in language) is concerned, Rappe, Weber & Co. have the honour to announce that they made their selection before it was permitted to Mr Cline to make his. If Mr Cline was a practical Piano maker, it might be competent to him to remark upon the skill of other workmen; but as he is not, it may be well to remind him that the shoemaker should stick to his last.
The Advertisers do not press upon the public the merits of any Travelling Agent, and any person holding himself out as such may be treated as utterly unauthorized. Our Pianos are candidates for popular favour, and we have no doubt they will win it.

Special Notices.
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.
For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are its cures, that in almost every section of country are persons publicly known, who have been restored by it from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs incident to our climate.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere.
NORTHROP & LYMAN, Newcastle,
Wholesale Agents for Canada West.

Bronchitis, Coughs, Asthma, and all disorders of the Throat and Lungs, are relived by using "Brown's Bronchial Troches."
"I have been afflicted with Bronchitis during the past Winter, and found no relief until I found your 'BRONCHIAL TROCHES.'
C. H. GARDNER,
Principal of Rutger's Female Institute, New York."
"Almost instant relief in the distressing labour of breathing peculiar to Asthma."
Rev. A. C. EGGLESTON, New York.
"It gives me great pleasure to certify to the efficacy of your Bronchial Troches, in an affection of the throat and voice, induced by public singing. They have suited my case exactly, relieving my Throat and clearing the voice so that I could sing with ease.
T. DUCHARME,
Chorister French Parish Church, Montreal."
"When somewhat hoarse from cold or over-exertion in public speaking, I have uniformly found Brown's Troches afford relief.
HENRY WILKES D. D.,
Pastor of Zion Church, Montreal."
Sold by all Dealers in Medicines at 25 cents a box.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?
As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who, for upwards of thirty years, has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulat the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do RISE UP and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No MOTHER has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City.
Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
Be sure and call for

SATURDAY—MORNING SEDERUNT.

The Synod met and was constituted. Devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. D. J. Macdonnell B.D. (Peterboro.)

The Synod immediately adjourned in order to give an opportunity for the members to be present at the reception of the deputation by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, now met in the Sydenham street church.

Dr. Taylor in introducing Dr. Cook said:—It is seldom Mr President, that I have so great a privilege and so great an honour as that of introducing to you the Rev. Dr. Cook the Convener of the deputation of the Church of Scotland, which has come on a visit of Christian courtesy and regard to this Conference. Dr. Cook then introduced the other members of the deputation.

Dr. Cook spoke as follows: Mr President, we have been deputed by the Synod of the body which represents the Church of Scotland in this Province, and which is now assembled in this city for similar purposes with the Conference, to express their fraternal regard for the body over which you preside, and their high appreciation of the zealous and self-denying labours of your ministers in the cause of Christ. We have an organization in some respects different from yours. On some high matters of controversy, about which reason, with all the aid which Revelation gives, finds it difficult to come to a decision and in regard of which it would probably be wiser that it should not attempt to decide at all, we had come to somewhat different conclusions from you. But we are far from limiting our Christian regard and sympathy to those who think exactly as we do. Perfect unanimity of sentiment cannot reasonably be expected on a subject like religion, which touches on all sides on mysteries beyond the power of the human understanding to solve or to explain the infinite variety which obtains in the constitution of men's minds, and in the training to which they are subjected, combine with the peculiar form in which Divine Revelation has been given to us to render such uniformity unattainable. Perhaps it is not even desirable, at all events it is not essential; and when men and churches are agreed on great points recognizing one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, there is no reasonable difference of opinion on minor matters should stay either the feeling or the expression of Christian esteem and love. We regard the founder of your body as a great instrument in God's hands for the revival of true religion, and its extension over the world. We reverence with you his personal devotedness. We admire the practical wisdom with which he was so largely gifted, and gladly acknowledge the services to Christianity and to mankind of the magnificent organization to which he gave rise. We cannot but acknowledge that your missionaries were the first to carry the gospel over the scattered settlements of this new great Province, and we have pleasure in testifying to the disposition to live in peace and harmony with other Christians, which has always been a characteristic of your body. With these feelings, it is, I trust in the spirit which our common Lord and Master enjoins that we now bid you God Speed, that in all your present deliberations you may be influenced by the wisdom which cometh down from above, and guided to such measures as shall best promote the great cause in which we are fellow labourers. I shall only add that it gives us peculiar pleasure to express these sentiments to so distinguished a person as yourself, and we trust and pray that you may long be spared to exercise the eminent gifts with which you are endowed, not only for the good of your own body but of the church in general. (Loud and long continued applause.)

Dr. Urquhart (Cornwall): Mr President and Christian Brethren, I need not say that we have not come here to enter into doubtful disputations; we come under the influence of a feeling of Christian sympathy with the whole church of Christ, especially with that part of it which is now before us, we are the offspring of an aged mother, but though [illegible] the offspring of a younger generation, yet you have grown until you have reached the stature of giants you are doing a great work not only in this land but throughout the whole Christian world. I rejoice exceedingly at the successes which you have achieved and the prosperity you manifest; and I pray that the same spirit of unanimity and Christian friendliness which we feel to-day may continue to exist. We are the soldiers of one King, the servants of one Master, and we go forth to do His work under the protection of the shield of faith, bearing the sword of the spirit, and having our feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. We come to you now in the name of him who hath said, Believe in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and love one another as He gave you commandment. It is only by cherishing this spirit that we can expect to prosper and enjoy the blessing of God. We are the depositors of the truth of God, and it is by going forth with that truth alone that we can expect to do His work effectually. (Applause.)

Mr Morris, M.P.: Mr President, In coming before the Conference as a representative of the Laity of the Church of Scotland in Canada, I feel the responsibility and the embarrassment of the position in thus addressing so numerous and influential an assemblage of Christian Ministers. I need not go beyond that Conference to find evidence if I needed it, which, I do not of the work which, as Christian Pioneers and Christian Ministers, the church of John Wesley (whose name and character and influence are living now in this Dominion) has done and is now doing in British North America from farthest west to the distant east. But while Mr President, recognizing this work, I think it right to say that there need be, nay that there is, not any rivalry between the Church of Scotland in Canada and the Church of John Wesley, except the noble emulation of each doing the most good in the work of spreading religion throughout the land. And being a layman, I would venture to say in the presence of the venerable Ministers who accompany me, that they preach, and glory in the same Gospel as the Wesleyan Church glory in and preach. The land is wide enough for all, and the deputation rejoice to-day to extend the right hand of fellowship.
