

Monteith-Shillington students get awards, tabs

The final school day at Monteith-Shillington public school was filled with games and awards and a lunch of hot dogs for the students.

The students were divided into teams and played games for the morning. In the afternoon, the closing day ceremonies began in the school's gymnasium. Countless crests, tabs, trophies and ribbons were given to students for their participation in clubs and teams.

Each class entered the gymnasium with their teachers, and the students were all wearing their school caps.

Teacher Rob Cawthorn was master of ceremonies with help from the other teachers.

Angela Garrison and Lori Walker were awarded for their public speaking.

Lisa Siltala, Jamie Jordan and Mike Mitchell were voted the most improved students in their home rooms.

On the honour roll were: Allison Walasek, Jody Richardson, Liisa Siltala, Jeremy Hetherington, Chris Bryant, Chris Garrison, Margaret Clarke, David Walker.

Jody Richardson, Lisa Vande Kraats, Alex Bridgeman, Wendy Cook, Jody Deforge, Thomas Bennett, Audrey Simon, Samantha Walasek and Lori Walker had perfect attendance for the year.

At the close of the student awards, Phillips presented a Very Important Person award to Nancy Pettefer for her help at the school. Kate Hoffman and Ann Krikken of the Monteith Women's Institute thanked Phillips for his help over the years and presented him with a pen set.
