the detention, and if no such case shall appear in the course of the proceedings, the court shall have power to decree that the owner ought to be indemnified by the payment of costs and damages, which in that case shall be paid out of the moneys legally applicable by the Commissioners of the Treasury for that purpose. That any warrant of the Secretary of State shall be laid before Parliament. That the proceedings herein provided shall not affect the power of the Crown to proceed if he thinks fit, to condemn the ship. That the following exceptions be made from the prohibition: A foreign commissioned ship dispatched from this country after hostilities shall within under stress of weather or in the course of a peaceful voyage, and equipped with fitting out or equipment of a warlike character shall have taken place in this country.

Fourth—That it is expedient to make the act of hiring, engaging, or procuring any person within Her Majesty's dominions to go on board any ship to be taken from any part of Her Majesty's dominions by means of those proceedings as to the service in which such persons are intended to be employed, whether the person so hiring, engaging, or procuring as aforesaid, that the persons so hired, engaged or procured as aforesaid should be employed in any land or sea service prohibited by section 2 of the Foreign Enlistment act, a misdemeanor, punishable under other misdemeanors under the same section.

Fifth—That the terms of proclamations or informations under the Foreign Enlistment act should be simplified.

Sixth—That during the continuance of any war in which Her Majesty shall be neutral, any ship not built, equipped for recognition as a commissioned ship of war shall be brought within the jurisdiction of the Crown by any person acting on behalf of or under the authority of any foreign government, which ship shall have been captured by any vessel belonging to the same war for the service of such government, whether as a public or a private vessel of war in violation of the law of the protection of the territory and the realm, or if any such prize shall be found within the jurisdiction as aforesaid, by any subject of the Crown or of such a foreign government, having come into possession of such prize with notice of the unlawful fitting out of the capturing vessel, such prize should, upon due proof in the Admiralty courts at the suit of the original owner of such prize or his agent, or of any person authorized in that behalf by the government of the State to which such owner belongs, be restored.

Seventh—That in time of war no vessel employed in the military or naval service of any belligerent which shall have been built, equipped, fitted out, armed or dispatched contrary to the enactment, should be admitted into any port of Her Majesty's dominions.

In making the foregoing recommendations we have not felt ourselves bound to consider whether we were expressing what could actually be required by international law, but we are of opinion that if those recommendations should be adopted, the municipal law of this realm available for the enforcement of neutrality will derive increased efficiency, and will, so far as we can see, have been brought into full conformity with your Majesty's international obligations. We have thought it better to present our recommendations in the form of general resolutions laying down the principles on which legislation should be framed, rather than to attempt to draw up in detail the precise form of the statute. We have subjoined, in an appendix to this report, certain papers relating to the views of foreign countries on this subject, which have been communicated to us by your Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, together with a short historical memorandum, prepared by Mr Abbott for our information, and some other documents illustrative of the subjective. All of which we submit to your Majesty's gracious consideration.

Signed, Cranworth, Houghton, Cairns, W. Earl, G. W. W. Bramwell, R. J. Phillimore, Roundell Palmer, T. Twiss, W. Vernon Harcourt, E. Barnes, W. H. Gregory, W. E. Forster.

Dr Lushington did not sign the report, having, from indisposition, been unable to attend the meetings after June.

Mr Vernon Harcourt signed the document, but gives reasons for dissenting from certain portions of it. In the main part of the committee's recommendations he entirely concurs, especially that which proposes to increase the efficiency of the power exercised by the executive government in restraining attempted violations of neutrality. Those portions of the report with respect to the policy, of which he entertains considerable doubt, are contained in resolutions two and three, which extend the punitive power of the law and the preventive authority of the executive to the building of ships, apart from the question of their arming or despatch from the realm. His apprehension is lest such an extension of the law should unnecessarily, and therefore unwisely, interfere with the ship building trade of the country, and injuriously affect a great question of national resource and public economy. If all building with a certain intent is constituted a crime which it is part of the duty of the government to repress, then there is not a keel laid, a bolt driven or plank sawn in any yard in the country which may not at every instant be exposing the nation to a responsibility hitherto unknown.

Since the earthquakes occurred at St. Thomas, it has been observed that the courses of the various currents in the neighbourhood of the island are all changed, and do not at all correspond with the admiralty charts, and a good many wrecks have been occasioned in consequence.

A pamphlet has appeared in Paris, called "Peace through War," which has excited some attention, and it is supposed by many to be a "feeler." Its author believes that France must summon Prussia to disarm, as a guarantee for peace; that Prussia will refuse, and then France must declare war. The result of the war is uncertain, but France will be supported by Austria, Holland, Denmark, and Italy, and aided by the discontent in North Germany itself. Prussia will be supported only by Russia, who is not ready for war. If France wins she will not claim nothing in Germany; but Wurtemburg will have all Suabia; Saxony the Saxon Duchies; and Hanover all Westphalia and Brunswick, a population of eight millions. Prussia would absorb the Mecklenburg Duchies, France would be surrounded by a ring of petty States, a very fine prospect for her if she wins. The author only forgets to state what would happen if France were defeated and all Germany rushed together with a clang.

Holloway's Worm Lozenges.

Are certain and safe remedy for worms in children and adults. As it is a well known and melancholy fact that one great cause of death among children is from Worms of parents the necessity of closely watching their children. By so doing, and understanding the symptoms and true cause of the disease, thousands of children might be saved from early graves. The following are a few of the very numerous symptoms and diseases which are caused by Worms:—Deranged appetite emaciated extremities, offensive breath, frequent picking at the nose, grinding of the teeth during sleep, hardness of the belly, with frequent slimy stools, and sometimes convulsive fits, pain in the head and stomach, unquiet sleep, faintings, tremblings, coughs, indigestion, low spirits, frightful dreams, and a gradual wasting away of flesh. Holloway's Worm Lozenges are palatable and self-administered to the child—drive out the worms thoroughly without pain and completely cleanse the stomach—thereby doing away with the necessity of administering Castor Oil or other unpleasant cathartic. Each box contains the fac-simile signature of Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, C. W., who are the sole proprietors. N.B.—Ask for Holloway's worm Lozenges, and take no other. Price twenty-five cents a box. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.

DR. DE JONGH'S Oil is convincingly proved by an overwhelming weight of medical testimony, and by the practical test of successful experience for twenty years in all parts of the world, to be, beyond all question, the purest, the most efficacious, the most palatable, and, from its rapid curative effects, the most economical of all kinds.

Hence the universal celebrity of Dr. de Jongh's Oil, and the unparalleled demand for this unrivalled preparation.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR HENRY MARSH, BART., M.D.,
Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil. I consider it to be a very pure oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

DR. EDWARD SMITH, F.R.S.,
Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light-Brown Oil supplied by Dr. de Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst a much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness."—(Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

DR. LANKESTER, F.R.S.,
Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this oil is secured in its preparation, by the personal attention of so good a chemist and intelligent a physician as Dr. de Jongh, who has also written the best medical treatise on the oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

DR. LETHEBY,
Medical Officer of Health, and Chief Analyst to the City of London.

"In all cases I have found Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil possessing the same set of properties, among which the presence of cholaic compounds, and of iodine in a state of organic combination, are the most remarkable. It is, I believe, universally acknowledged that this oil has great therapeutic power; and from my investigations, I have no doubt of its being a pure and unadulterated article."

DR. BARLOW, F.R.S.,
Senior Physician to Guy's Hospital.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. de Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use of that substance is indicated."

DR. GRANVILLE, F.R.S.,
Author of the "Spas of Germany."

"Dr. Granville has found that Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil produces the desired effect in a shorter time than other kinds, and that it does not cause the nausea and indigestion too often consequent on the administration of the pale oil."

EDWIN CANTON, ESQ., F.R.C.S.,
Surgeon to Charing-cross Hospital.

"For several years past I have been in the habit of prescribing Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil, and find it to be much more efficacious than other varieties of the same medicine which I have also employed with a view to test their relative superiority."
