THIRD YEAR
OF THE
Cosmopolitan Art Association.

PROSPECTUS.

THE management of this new and popular Institution announce, with pleasure, that arrangements for the third year have been completed on the most extensive scale. Works of AMERICAN ART and the encouragement of American genius, have not been overlooked. Commissions have been issued to many distinguished American Artists, and a special agent has visited the great Art Repositories of Europe and made careful selections of choice Paintings, Bronze and Marble Statuary, &c., &c. Among which are the following exquisite pieces of Sculpture, executed from the finest Carrara marble.

The new and beautiful Statue of the "Wood Nymph."

The Busts of the three Great American Statesmen, Clay, Webster and Calhoun.

Palmer's Exquisite Ideal Bust, "Spring."

Together with the Busts and Statues in Marble of Apollo and Diana, the Struggle for the Heart, Psyche, Venus and Apple, Child of the Sea, Magdalen, Innocence, the Little Truant, and the Captive Bird.

Besides which are numerous Statuettes in Bronze, Medallions, and a large and choice collection of beautiful Oil Paintings, by leading Artists; the whole of which are to be distributed or allotted to subscribers of the Association gratuitously at the annual distribution on the 28th of January next.

See full description of above Works of Art in Art Journal for November, furnished gratis on application.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The payment of three dollars constitutes any person a member of the Association, and entitles him to

First—The large and costly steel engraving "Saturday Night," or any one of the monthly Magazines given below, one year.

Second—A copy of the Cosmopolitan Art Journal, one year—an illustrated Magazine of Art.

Third—A share in the Annual Distribution of Works of Art, comprising a large number of Paintings, Sculpture, &c., &c.

The following Magazines are furnished to those who prefer them to the engraving: Harper's Magazine, Godey's Lady's Book, Knickerbocker Magazine, Southern Literary Messenger, U. S. Magazine, Mrs Stephans' New Monthly; and the British Quarterly Reviews, Littell's Living Age, (Weekly,) and two memberships for $6

Thus it is seen, that for every $3 paid, the subscriber not only gets a three dollar Magazine or Engraving, but also the Art Journal one year, and a Ticket in the Distribution of Works of Art, making four dollars worth of reading matter, besides the Ticket, which may, in addition, draw a Beautiful Painting, Statue, or other Work of Art of great value.

No person is restricted to a single share. Those taking five memberships are entitled to six Engravings, or any five of the Magazines, one year, and to six tickets in the distribution.

The Offices and Galleries of the Institution are located at 348, Broadway, New York, and 166 Water-Street Sandusky, O., and are open free to all members.

Persons, in remitting funds for membership, will please give their Post Office address in full, stating the month they wish the Magazine to commence, and register the letter at the Post Office to prevent loss, on receipt of which, a certificate of Membership, together with the engravings or Magazine desired, will be forwarded to any part of the country.

For membership, address

TORONTO RESERVE.

A PORTION OF THE TORONTO ORDNANCE RESERVE will be offered to public competition on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of January next, at the hour of ONE o'clock, p.m., at the Auction Rooms of Messrs. WAKEFIELD, COATE & Co.

This portion of the Reserve is divided into BUILDING LOTS, varying from 50 to 60 feet in front, and from 104 to 120 in depth. These Lots are situate on the extension of King, Adelaide, and Duoro or Wellington Streets West, and on Strachan Avenue, a new thoroughfare, 80 feet wide, commencing at Queen Street, opposite to the front of Trinity College.

A large number of most desirable Building Lots will also be found on Stafford Street, a new Street, lying parallel to, but on the east of, Strachan Avenue.

The new Streets and the extension of those of older date, are in process of grading, and will be completed before the spring. An embankment and substantial stone Culvert maintain the communication on Duoro and Wellington Streets.

Lithographed Plans of the Property, Streets and Lots, showing the dimensions of each and all, are in progress and will be procurable at the Office of Messrs. Dennis, Boulton and Co., Civil Engineers and Land Surveyors, 167, King Street West, Toronto, on and after the 5th January, 1857.

TERMS—One-tenth of purchase money to be paid down at the time of sale; the balance in nine equal annual instalments, with interest semi-annually upon all monies remaining unpaid, on 24th July and 27th of January. Further conditions made known at the day of sale.

ENAMELLED COLLAR.

FOR Gentlemen who pride themselves on the Neatness and Perfection of their Collar, would recommend the above as admirably adapted to their wants, being perfectly formed of any desired Style, and Fit so neatly as to suit the taste of the most fastidious. In point of

ECONOMY

For persons who are obliged to patronize Laundries, it is a great saving to wear the

ENAMELLED COLLAR,

As they can be purchased new at less than the cost of washing the ordinary Linen Collar, and can be worn much longer without soiling.

This collar is made of Paper and Muslin, combined, lined with a coating of water-proof, which makes it retain its shape, and resist the effect of perspiration. It is agreed by all who have used their Collars, that for beauty, comfort and economy combined, these are the best and most desirable Collars now before the public.

Kingston, January 1st 1857. 2

TRIBUNE FOR 1857.

THE Election is past, and its result proves that the work devolved on the Republican party is not yet completed. In all the Eastern and Northern portions of the country—in New England, New York, Ohio and the North West—the Republican banner floats in triumph; while in Southern Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois—in short, where ever few newspapers are taken, and where common schools are too new and too feeble to have educated the present generation of voters—the black flag of Slavery obscures the sunshine. A stranger to America might distinguish those portions of our country most blessed with Education, Intelligence, Thrift and Virtue, by scanning the returns of the Presidential contest of 1856. We have failed of present success, not because the People are against us, but because that large portion who did not hear or read the argument and do not know what were the real questions at issue, went almost solid against us, reversing the verdict which the great majority of the educated and intelligent endeavored to pronounce.

These facts indicate the path of pressing duty. With no unmanly repinings over what is irreparable—with no abatement of heart or hope because the triumph of Liberty in her new ordeal is not won at the Long Island and White Plains of her struggle—with no shadow of regret that the responsibility of governing is not confined to her champions before the people were fully ready to sustain them—we begin afresh the work of diffusing that vital truth which, in regard to the concerns of this world, as well as of the next, makes Free indeed. Now in the sad Power's hey-day of victory, when its minions and serviles are gathering and plotting to make the most of their triumph and 'crush out' the spirit which they vainly believe to be crucified and entombed—now, when the faint-hearted we could hearted who lately hankered in the rear of our premature hopes are hauling off to repair damages and thinking of abandoning the rugged arena of Politics for more quiet and flowery fields—now, in this hour of weariness and shadow, THE TRIBUNE renews its vows of eternal hostility to every form of tyranny over the bodies or souls of men; to the shameful assumption that the benighted and feeble, whether in soul or body, are to be regarded and treated as the convenience or the pride of their wiser or stronger brethren—to the domination of despots and oligarchs, whether of empires or plantations—to the enslavers of souls and kingdoms in Europe or the breeders of children for the auction block and the cotton field in Virginia or Alabama.

The doctrine that no human being was ever created for the benefit or advantage of another—that all service between man and man should be free and reciprocal—that the labourer should not toil and sweat to pamper others' pride or minister to others' luxury, but for the sustenance and comfort of those near and dear to him—is destined to certain triumph. It must prevail, for God reigns, and Earth was not created to be a theatre of injustice, oppression and misery forever. It must triumph, for all true prophecy confirms and the vindication of the Divine benign purpose imperatively requires it. It must triumph; for Democratic America cannot always remain the scoff of aristocrats and the shame of reformers and liberals throughout the Old World. It must triumph; for Man's history is not a chaos or a riddle, but every where instinct with meaning; and no heroic effort ever failed of its effect—no drop of martyr blood was ever shed in vain.

But even if we Republicans were disposed to fold our arms in slumber, our adversaries would not permit it. They are busy to-day in lengthening their cords and strengthening their stakes with a vigilance and activity which reveals a consciousness on their part that their dominion must be made sure forthwith, or their career will have forever departed. To-day, myrmidons of the Slave Power threaten and harrass Northern Mexico, are encamped in the heart of Central America, and waging a war of extermination on the distracted inhabitants of its petty Republics, while it by turns leers and scowls at Cuba, while its most ruthless bands are precipitated on devoted Kansas, under the protection and smiles of the Federal Administration. Even as we write, the telegraph informs us that twenty Free-State men, guilty of attempting to defend their homes against the rapine and violence of Buford's and Titus' blood-thirsty bandits, have been convicted by Lecompton Court of manslaughter! and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at hard labor as felons. This is but a fair specimen of what has long passed for Justice in Kansas—a justice which takes the criminals into pay and aids them in hunting down, plundering and "wiping out" the innocent, whom it consigns to the State Prison if they are ever goaded into the madness of resisting their oppressors—Such crimes and wrongs as unhappy Kansas has for twelve months endured, even Hungary in Poland has never known; and the power at whose instigation these villainies were and are perpetrated sits enthroned at the White House, and has just achieved another four years' ascendancy in the Federal Government. Who, in view of those facts, can say that Republicans may now pile their arms, even for an hour?

THE TRIBUNE will be, as it has been, a Political journal—avowedly, though not exclusively so. It recognizes the truth that Freedom and Slavery are here grappled in deadly conflict, and that in the result one of them must lose all control over the Federal Government. But, while it gives prominence and emphasis to the discussion and elucidation of the great issue of the day, it sinks none of the characteristics of a business and Family Newspaper. The proceedings of Congress, like those in Kansas, will be watched and reported by an able and fearless corps of Correspondents, while from London, Paris, Constantinople, Havana, San Francisco, Albany and other centers of interest, our special services will be, as they have been, fresh and reliable. A member of our editorial corps—Bayard Taylor—is now in Northern Europe and will spend the Winter in Sweden, Lapland, Russia, thence making his way next season across Siberia and Tartary to the mouth of the Amour, and thence homeward by the Pacific and California, unless some change of route shall promise greater interest and profit to our readers, for whom alone he will write regularly throughout his adventurous journey, which is likely to require two years for its completion. Our reports of the most interesting Lectures, Public Meetings, &c., will be full and reliable, and our Foreign and Domestic News made up with a careful regard to the condensation into our ample columns of the greatest amount of intelligence that is consistent with the use of type of generous size. In short, if we fail to make THE TRIBUNE worth its cost, it shall not be for want of expenditure or effort.

If it be deemed desirable by Republicans that THE TRIBUNE should be circulated in their several localities, we urge them to see that Clubs be made up and forwarded in due season. The Postmasters are semi officially admonished not to aid our circulation, but to urge instead that of journals deemed "sound" and "National" by the compatriots of Atchison and Stringfellow. We ask live Republicans everywhere to take care that these efforts be not effectual to quench the light of Freedom in the murky mists of Slavery.

Coleridge's Ancient Mariner. Illustrated. The Rime of the Ancient Mariner. A Ballad Poem in Seven Parts. By S. T. Coleridge. Beautifully embellished after designs by Birket Foster, and other eminent artists. 1 neat vol. square 8vo, 2 fine extra cloth gilt, 1 50.

—— or, in morocco extra, 3 00.

The crowning flower of the genius of S. T. Coleridge, beyond a doubt, is his immortal poem of "The Ancient Mariner." Of this great work it may be truly said, that it is "of imagination all compact." Every line, almost every word, is suggestive of the grandest or most beautiful imagery. For this reason it has been called "the most wonderful of all examples of true, picture-writing." It is consequently one of the finest of all English poems, for illustration by the imaginative painter. In the present unapproachable edition, it will be seen that genius kindred to that of Coleridge himself has given form and reality to the poet's visions. The volume will be received as a priceless gem, by the lovers of the Phidian phile bard.

The Dairyman's Daughter. An Authentic Narrative. By the Rev. Legh Richmond. With numerous illustrations by Birket Foster and others. 1 neat vol. square 12mo in extra cloth, gilt, 1 50.
