GIVE RAILWAYS A CHANCE

The business men of Harriston, we are informed, circulated a petition in that town for all to eliminate shipments of goods coming in by motor and return to the railway the work of carrying their package by rail. This action ic commendable and no doubt if more towns along that line of the C.P.R. would do the same the train, which, was cut off a month ago, would be returned to run its usual schedule. Likewise, Flesherton merchants, at present, have most of their shipments coming in by truck to the detriment of railroad business. We have to depend on the railroads for winter transportation in this section and it would be only wisdom on the part of merchants if they would have all their orders billed for railroad cartage. Think this matter over seiously and give the railroads a chance.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Fashion circles inform us that ladies are this year to practice economy in their bathing suits.

If only our farmers could get really living prices for their products, the long-wished-for better times would really be right round the corner. When the staple industry of Canada is prosperous we all feel it. The farmers sell freely; buy freely; the merchant shares the prosperity; the manufacturer likewise; he runs his factory full time; pays his hands good wages; and they, in turn, spend their money in purchasing products of both farm and factory. Thus the world's wheels go round and everyone, but the loafer, is benefitted. Speed the happy day!

The usual summer demand for united effort to cut down road disasters are being made. Some of the suggestions are very foolish, chief of them is probably the demand that motorists should be permitted to speed up to 45 or 50 miles an hour—when no one is in sight! That is, of the motorist. But how is the Jehu to avoid disaster if, thus rushing through space, anything goes wrong with the machinery of his auto or he dashes into a flock of school children? By the way there does not appear to be any great effort to provide footpaths for pedestrians along the highways. Walking, we are told, has become a lost art, and no wonder when one considers how it is discouraged.

WODEHOUSE

June comes in gorgeous array; the fine rain of Saturday has made nature look her best. Blossoms and leaves galore, while the grass and grain crops have grown rapidly.

A feeling of sorrow was felt throughout the neighborhood when it became known that Mr. Jas. Kirkpatrick had passed to his reward in the hospital at Markdale on Sunday morning, May 24th. For the past eleven weeks he had been a patient there and up until a week before he died hope were held out for his recovery. He had been a sufferer for several months and after entering the hospital a serious operation was performed, which gave relief only for a time. It became apparent that the disease was gaining ground and must eventually prove fatal. He was a highly respected citizen, a good neighbor and beloved by the whole community, who feel the loss of a brother and friend. The funeral, which took place Tuesday afternoon, was largely attended, the church being filled to the doors with sympathizing friends and neighbors. Rev. Mr. McCauslard was assisted by Rev. Wilkinson of Temple Hill, a former pastor, both paying tribute to the departed, who in his quiet way, filled a place in the church left vacant. The pallbearers were: T. I. Fawcett, R. D. Carruthers, John Clarke, R. H. Wiley, Sam Wiley Jr. and Ed. Wilcox. He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind father, two sons, Roy and James, and one daughter, Orile, who cared for her father and is not in very robust health. The wife and mother passed away one year ago. The floral tributes were lovely and bore testimony of esteem: spray from the family, the New England church, Woods family, and Sewell family. The deep sympathy is extended the family and friends in their hour of sorrow, especially to his daughter, Orlie, who feels his loss keenly.

Mrs. Jos. Lanktree of Maxwell is visiting friends here.

The local branch of the W. I. met on Thursday afternoon last, May 28, in the church for the election of officers. Mrs. John Morrison, who was President the past year, resigned and Mrs. Ernie Boyle was elected in her place. Vice President, Mrs. Matt. Devitt and Mrs. R. H. Wiley was re-elected as Secretary-Treasurer.

Miss Verna Wiley enjoyed a delightful trip to Guelph, in company with three other girls of this district. Mr. T. S. Cooper of Markdale took them by motor to attend the girls' convention there.

Mrs. Clara Wiley and Miss Hazel holidayed with friends here the past week.

Mrs. Thomson Elliot and little daughter of Toronto is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. W. Breadner.

Mrs. Clifford Risk suffered a serious accident one evening last week while she was milking the cows. The cow she was milking kicked, throwing her under the one next and in the mix-up she was badly tramped. Three ribs were broken and she was bruised badly. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cherry and children attended a dance given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Symes, on Friday evening

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wiley and family visited one evening last week with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gilray at Rocklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clive Doland and little daughter of Detroit were callers in the neighborhood Thursday while fishing at the old pond.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. A. Bowen in the death of her mother, Mrs. Marshall, of Wingham.

High School Won

Fesherton high school are now the undisputed soccer champions of the Georgian Bay District of the C.O.S.S.A., as a result of their 1-0 victory last Saturday at Thornbury.

Only the most ardent of football fans witnessed the game as a drizzling rain fell throughout. However, this failed to dampen the spirits of either team, who struggled for sixty minutes in mud, water puddles and even hay to determine the champions of Georgian Bay district. The game was replete with pictures of determined youths struggling for a kick at the ball, missing it and collapsing in waiting puddles. The goalies, more fortunate in their choice of positions, stood clothed in slickness, watching the fray.

The game opened fast and with a beautiful combination effort the local students netted a counter, Ferris scoring on a pass from Akins. Haw dropped a corner kick in the same period, which however, was lost.

The next fifteen minutes saw much fierce body checking and even good-natured trips, but no goals. The third quarter opened after a ten minute rest, both teams considerably refreshed. Thornbury, with new short passing tactics, succeeded in having several shots, and eventually won a penalty kick, which missed the goal by yards, to the joy of the locals and the dismay of their adversaries. Flesherton then kept the ball at their rival's end for the rest of the period.

The fourth and last quarter opened with a rush, Thornbury endeavoring to knot the score, sending a volley of shots in upon Phillips, which the latter stopped with seeming ease. The locals, content with their one goal lead, made only occasional sallies. Thus the game ended, the Flesherton students returning home "soaked to the hide," but with a pleasant feeling inside them for they had the Georgian Bay Soccer Championship safely tucked under their belts.

The team was composed of: Goal, Bob Phillips; Full Backs, Bert Morton, Mervin Johnston; Half Backs, Jackson Stewart, Ed. Patton, Earl Johnston; Forwards, Herb Akins, Jim McFadden, Leslie Ferris, George McMaster, Jim Haw.

FEVERSHAM

A number of people from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Alex. McIntyre at McIntyre on Tuesday of last week, when a large gathering of people asesmbled to pay their last respects to one who was held in high esteem. Rev. Gogson, her pastor, officiated and preached a comforting sermon from the text "I am the resurrection and the life."

Besides the sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother two sons and one daughter, Mrs. J. W. Winters and Gordon of Toronto, and D. A. at home, and two brothers, Andrew of Toronto and Jas. of Kindersley, Sask. Three sisters Mrs. Graham and Mrs. McRae of Wellwood, Man., and Cora Dand of Toronto, also survive. The flowers were numerous and beautiful and were carried by six of her neighbor girls. The pallbearers were six of her cousins, William Thomson and Ern Davidson, Major McRae of Toronto and Chris and William Thomson. The remains were laid to rest in the family plot in McIntyre cemetery. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family and friends.

Mr. James Sayers, our villager, held the lucky number on Friday morning last when he caught a speckled trout in the mill pond here measuring 18½ inches long and weighing 3½ pounds. This is not a mere fish story, as the writer saw the fish measured and weighed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Eby of Collingwood and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Forsythe of Owen Sound were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. G. Eby last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Colquette and two children, Allan and Betty, of Owen Sound visited with friends last week end.

EUGENIA

In mentioning the members of the cast in the play "The Secret Society of Cabbageville" given in the church here on May 22nd, we omitted the name of Mrs. Thompson (the deaf old lady, with her trumpet, bag of peppermints and bottle of smelling salts), who was none other than Mrs. Lewis Genoe, who acted her part in a most capable manner.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Elwin Jamieson, formerly of Flesherton. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives and family in their sad bereavement.
