TRIBUNE FOR 1857.

THE Election is past, and its result proves that the work devolved on the Republican party is not yet completed. In all the Eastern and Northern portions of the country—in New England, New York, Ohio and the North-West—the Republican banner floats in triumph; while in Southern Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois—in short, wherever few newspapers are taken, and where common schools are too new, and too feeble to have educated the present generation of voters—the black flag of Slavery obstructs the sunshine. A stranger to America might distinguish those portions of our country most blessed with Education, Intelligence, Thrift and Virtue, by scanning the returns of the Presidential contest of 1856. We have failed of present success, not because the People are against us, but because that large portions who did not hear or read the argument and do not know what were the real questions at issue, went almost solid against us, reversing the verdict which the great majority of the educated and intelligent endeavored to pronounce.

These facts indicate the path of pressing duty. With no unmanly repinings over what is irrevocable—with no abatement of heart or hope because the triumph of Liberty in her new ordeal is not won at the Long Island and White Plains of her struggle—with no shadow of regret that the responsibility of governing is not confided to her champions before the people were quite ready to sustain them—we begin afresh the work of diffusing that vital truth which, in regard to the success of this world, as well as of the next, makes Free indeed. Now in the Slave Power's hour of victory, when its ministers and slave boys are galoating and plotting to make the most of their triumph and seek out the means which they vainly believe to be crushed and entombed—now, when the faint-hearted or cold-hearted who lately basked in the sunshine of our premature hopes are holding off to repair damages and thinking of abandoning the ragged arms of Politics for more quiet and flowery fields—now, in this hour of weariness and shadow, THE TRIBUNE renews its vows of eternal hostility to every form of tyranny over the bodies or souls of men, to the shameful assumption that the benighted and feeble, whether in soul or body, are to be regarded and treated as the convenience or the prey of their wiser or stronger brethren—to the dominion of despots and oligarchs, whether of empires or plantations—to the enslavers of races and kingdoms in Europe or the breeders of children for the auction block and the cotton field in Virginia or Alabama.

The doctrine that no human being was ever created for the benefit or advantage of any her—that self service between man and man should be free and reciprocal—that the laborer should not toil and sweat to pamper others' pride or minister to others' luxury, but for the sustenance and comfort of those near and dear to him—is destined to certain triumph. It must prevail, for God reigns, and Earth was not created to be a theatre of injustice, oppression and misery forever. It must triumph, for all true prophecy affirms and the vind ication of the Divine benign purpose imperatively requires it. It must triumph, for Democratic America cannot always remain the scoff of aristocrats and the shame of reformers and liberals throughout the Old World. It must triumph; for Man's history is not a chaos or a riddle, but every where instilling the meaning, and so heroic, that ever failed of its effect—no drop of martyr blood was ever shed in vain.

But even if we Republicans were disposed to fold our arms in slumber, our adversaries would not permit it. They are busy to lengthening their cords and strengthening their stakes with a vigilance and activity which reveals a consciousness on their part that their dominion must be made sure forthwith, or their sway must have forever departed. Today, armies of the Slave Power threaten and harass Northern Mexico, are encamped in the heart of Central America and waging a war of extermination on the degraded inhabitants of its petty Republics, while it by turns leers and scowls at Cuba, while its merciless bands are precipitated on devoted Kansas, under the protection and smiles of the Federal Administration. Even as we write, the telegraph informs us that twenty Free-State men, guilty of attempting to defend their homes against the rapine and violence of Buford's and Titus's blood-thirsty bandits, have been convicted by Lecompte's Court of manslaughter! and sentenced to five years imprisonment at hard labor as felons. This is but a fair specimen of what has been passed for "justice" in Kansas—a justice which takes the criminals into pay and aids them in hunting down, plundering and "wiping out" the innocent, whom it consigns to the State Prison if they are even goaded into the madness of resisting their oppressors—Such crimes and wrongs as unhappy Kansas has for twelve months endured, even Hungary in Poland has never known; all the power at whose instigation these villainies were perpetrated site enthroned at the White House, and has just achieved another four years' ascendancy in the Federal Government. Who, in view of those facts, can say that Republicans may now pile their arms, even for an hour?

THE TRIBUNE will be, as it has been, a Political journal—avowedly, unapologetically, exclusively so. It recognizes the truth that Freedom and Slavery are here grappled in deadly conflict, and that in the result one of them must lose all control over the Federal Government. But while it gives prominence and emphasis to the discussion and elucidation of the great issue of the day, it shall ignore none of the characteristics of a Business and Family Newspaper. The proceedings of Congress, like those in Kansas, will be watched and reported by able and fearless corps of Correspondents, while from London, Paris Constantinople, Havana, San Francisco, Albany and other centers of interest, our special advices will be, as they have been, fresh and reliable. A member of our Editorial corps—Bayard Taylor, is now in Northern Europe, and will spend the Winter in Sweden, Lapland, Russia; thence making his way next season across Siberia and Tartary to the mouth of the Amour, and thence homeward by the Pacific and California, unless some change of route shall promise greater interest and profit to our readers for whom alone he will write regularly throughout his adventurous journey, which is likely to require two years for its completion. Our reports of the most interesting Lectures, Public Meetings, &c., will be full and reliable, and our Foreign and Domestic News made up with a careful regard to the condensation into our ample columns of the greatest amount of intelligence that is consistent with the use of type of generous size. In short, if we fail to make THE TRIBUNE worth its cost, it shall not be for want of expenditure or effort.

It is be deemed desirable by Republicans that THE TRIBUNE should be circulated in their several localities, we urge them to see that Clubs be made up and forwarded in due season. The Postmasters are semi officially admonished not to aid our circulation, but to urge instead that of journals deemed "sound" and "National" by the compatriots of Atchison and Stringfellow. We ask live Republicans everywhere to take care that these efforts be not effectual to quench the light of Freedom in the murky mists of Slavery.

The crowning flower of the genius of S. T. Coleridge, beyond a doubt, is his imperial poem of "The Ancient Mariner." Of this great work it may be truly said, that it is "of imagination all compact." Every line, almost every word, is suggestive of the grandest or most beautiful imagery. For this reason it has been called "the most wonderful of all examples of true poetic writing." It is consequently one of the finest of all English poems, for illustration by the imaginative painter. In the present unapproachable edition, it will be seen that a genius kindred to that of Coleridge himself has given form and reality to the poet's visions. The volume will be received as a priceless gem by the lovers of the Philosophic Muse.
