TALENTS
in a napkin

The parable of the talents is familiar to everyone.

The napkin in Biblical times, the stocking of the last generation ... and to-day, too often, the worthless "security."

Extreme caution on the one hand, foolhardy trustfulness on the other . . . both are financially reprehensible.

To what is your hard-earned money entitled?

Absolute safety, the first essential; and the second, a reliable, steady accretion of interest.

Both essentials are inherent in a savings account at any branch of

Will Ask Ontario Govt. to Pave the Highway in Town

The village council met on Monday evening and transacted considerable business.

G. B. Welton was instructed to have the cook house removed to a point near the pavillion.

Considerable discussion took place on the problem of the paved streets and the Reeve was instructed to apply to the Department of Public Highways to have the Provincial Highway paved throughout the length of the town and recommended various widths for the pavement to be. It is likely that a deputation will go to Toronto to interview Premier Henry in an effort to have the street paved at the same time as the County Road, the cost of the project being lessened thereby for all parties.

Dr. J. E. Milne was appointed as Medical Officer of Health for the village, succeeding the late Dr. F. T. Bibby.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid: Advance Printing Co., $12.-79;J. Field, cutting grass $4; H. McCauley, hauling gravel $5; Mrs. Bibby, balance Dr. Bibby's salary $3.

At the Court of Revision $100 was taken form Levi Pallister's assessment and the roll was then confirmed.

Turned Back at Border

After motoring to Sault Ste. Marie on his way west Mr. Harold McKechnie with his family of four children, was refused admission to the American side and was forced to turn back home. He arrived here Wednesday night last, secured the neccessary papers for admission and left again on Sunday for the west. While on his way home he was unfortunate enough to have run into the ditch near Robinson's corner, this side of Maxwell, and have his car considerably damaged. The cause of this accident was attributed between blinding headlights of a car he was meeting and a flat tire.

Big Crowd Attended Kimberley's Celebration

Kimberley was blessed with good weather and a good crowd for the annual 3rd of June celebration. The main street was lined with cars and judging by the car markers it looked like an Old Boys Reunion as cars were there from surrounding country as far south as Toronto and as far north as Orillia. One was even seen from Detroit.

The sports commenced about 2.30. The softball game between Collingwood and Clarksburg was won by Colllingwood who then played the Heathcote Orioles but were defeated. The hardball game between the old rival teams of Kimberley and Dundalk was well contested, Dundalk coming out ahead. Horseshoe pitching was another sport which a number entered. The children spent most of their time around the refreshment booths.

Supper was served in the hall from 6 to 8 and as the Kimberley ladies are noted for their good meals everyone enjoyed that part of the day.

The concert commenced about 9 o' clock. It taking the form of a play "Backwoods Blossom". The local talent have a monoply of both play and its author. The play was built up around the pioneer days of this district and was composed by Miss Margaret McAuslan, who also played the part of the heroine.

The scenery was in the form of an actual log cabin built on the stage. The fittings in the interior were in harmony with the old pioneer days.

The players all were dressed in costume of that period. The Hall was filled to its capacity and all comments tend to show that all were highly pleased. Many old timers remarked that the cabin and costumes were so realistic that they were taken back to their childhood days.

Mr. Andy Andrews, in his capable manner, helpd train the players.

Flesherton Orchestra played between the acts and Miss Gladys Wickens favoured the audience with a recitation. The orchestra gave a dance at the close, which was largely attended Everything but the dance was under the auspices of the Women's Institute. The proceeds of the day, without the dance, amounted to a net profit of $114.00.

Russians are reported reprinting foreign books without permission. In their determination, perhaps, to become well Red people.

Inspector Anglin Makes Report

The following is an extract from the report of Inspector R. W. Anglin on his visit to the Flesherton High School on May 4 and 5 last.

The three lady assistants are each completing two years of high school teaching and are establishing themselves as successful teachers. The principal is maintaining his reputation as an effective teacher.

All teachers have heavy teaching programmes and have been devoting themselves unstintingly to the welfare of the pupils. The board and the community have good reason for feeling satisfied with the service rendered by this staff during the two years almost ended.

I am glad to know that the pupils of this school have been distinguishing themselves in public speaking, in dramatic work and in football; and that their Literary Society has provided them with considerable opportunity for self-development.

NOTICE

All persons indepted to the late Dr. F. T. Bibby are requested to call and settle at once, without further notice, and oblige. — MRS. F. T. BIBBY.

Trip to Niagara Falls

Fifteen lads of the senior room of the public school and Principal Ira Merriam, also Mr. Shackleton, teacher at Priceville, along with eight of his pupils, enjoyed a trip to Niagara Falls Friday and Saturday, that will be long remembered by the boys. The trip was made by truck with Mr. S. Sutton as driver, and a member of The Advance staff went along to chaperone the outfit and be a general nuisance.

A stop was made at the Welland Canal, a short distance east of St. Catharines and the boys were fortunate to see a couple of boats going up and coming down the twin flight of locks at Thorold, which is one of the greatest engineering feats in the world.

The night was spent in a tourist camp at the Falls and the illumination of the cataract was viewed with interest, but was no wonderful sight. As boys are bound to do on such occasions they were awake at daybreak and after breakfast, the sights of the whirlpool, hydro development and the tall shaft of Brock's monument were visited, the climb up the latter being one of the big events.

The lads had a wonderful time, and despite the rain which fell steadily from St. Catharines until home was reached, they returned in the best of spirits and in the greatest enthusiasm for what they had seen. They are already talking what route next year's trip will take.

Quite a large number of citizens attended the funeral of the late E. N. Jamieson, which took place at Owen Sound on Wednesday afternoon of last week. The funeral was under the charge of the Legion of Owen Sound and full military honors were given to the deceased.
