Typographical errors are bound to occur in any newspaper, which is of necessity hurriedly assembled at the last moment, and no paper is free from them. Last week a very unfortunate one occurred in one of our exchanges,, which in writing of a local wedding said: "The following guests were present at the funeral."

Mr. Earl Alexander, employed at Down's garage, suffered a painful accident one day last week. While engaged pouring boiling oil into a battery he accidently poured some over his hand, burning it badly, and removing the skin. He has now joined the army of the unemployment for a few weeks.

Thirty-one ratepayers of the township of Artemesia petitioned the county council last week asking to have three responsible men, whom they named, put in charge of road work in this township, claiming that the present road foreman is not dividing the work up fairly, and that he gives it all to certain families.

A little 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woods of town got possession of a very poisonious pill on Friday last and swallowed it. Fortunately his mother noticed his discolored lips and sticking her finger in his mouth caused him to vomit. The doctor was soon on hand and administered the white of an egg, which brought the rest of the poison from the stomach, and the little lad is all right. But it was a close call.

Flesherton Paving Starts Next Week

When the question of road work in this county was before the county council last week, the report of the good roads' committee was under fire. The clause advising grading and graveling about eight miles of the road in Egremont was struct out. With regard to the clauses advising the issuing of debentures to pave the streets of Meaford, Markdale and Flesherton, the following discussion took place according to the Sun-Times:

The deputation from the southern part of the county, which asked that the council curtail all construction work on county roads this year, was introduced by Reeve T. J. Brodie of Glenelg.

Ex-reeve John McArthur of Egremont Township was the first speaker. He stated that the taxes are becoming almost unbearable, with farm products selling at the present low prices. Therefore, he maintained the council should cut down expenses and not issue debentures in order to build new roads.

Mr. N. McDougald was the next speaker, he also urged economy. The address of Mr. Robert Dodds, the third speaker, was the most concise. He dealt with the fall in the prices of farm products and claimed that it was impossible for farmers to pay high taxes. "All the reduction possible," was his request regarding cutting down expenses on county roads This request was made in the interests not only of the people of the southern part of the county, but of the whole county, he maintained.

Mr. Hugh McEachern, a member of Egremont Township Council, Mr. W. P. Rodgers and Mr. Chas. Drumb also spoke. Mr. Drumb forecast even harder times. He made reference to the newly designated Egremont county road, stating that it was not necessary, Messer. Alex Carruther, A. J. Pedlar, R. Purvis, W. Walker, J. Campbell and Chas. Turner also spoke briefly in support of economy regarding road expenditures.

The other clause which caused considerable discussion, read as follows: "Your committee also opened tenders for paving on connecting links in Flesherton, Markdale and Meaford, and would recommend that, when the type of pavement is decided upon, the committee have power to award contracts."

Reeve W. I. Field of Collingwood Township moved that this clause be struct out as it contained nothing definite regarding the cost of these pavements. Reeve J. L. Lembke of Sullivan maintained that the general feeling of the people of Grey county is against the undertaking of any construction work on the roads this year.

Reeve Noble Arthur of Meaford, and Reeve H. A. McCauley of Flesherton, both spoke against Reeve Field's motion. Reeve Arthur maintained that the municipalities will be practically forced to undertake this or similar work in order to meet the unemployment situation. Reeve McCauley pointed out that this work had been approved at the January session of the council.

Reeve G. Shortt of Osprey Township also spoke in favor of this construction work. He maintained that, even if no construction work is undertaken, a ten mill rate will have to be struck, and urged that debentures be issued.

County engineer R. C. McKnight informed the council that the share of the cost of these pavements which will have to be paid by the council, when the government grant is deducted will be about $15,000.

Reeve D. J. McDonald of Bentinck informed the council that, if any debentures are issued, the issue will have to be for about $200,000 to meet deficits of the past few years. He urged that a clause be inserted stating that this work will not be proceeded with unless the council sanctions the issue of debentures. This would act as a safe guard in case the council declined to issue debentures, he stated, pointing out that while the road construction work might be approved by a majority of the members, it will take a two-thirds vote of the council to issue debentures.

Reeve McCauley of Flesherton maintained that the issuing of debentures had nothing to do with the question of road construction, as the tion of road construction, as the amount of $15,000 could be saved by cutting down on part of the road maintenance work.

A vote was then taken, with the result that the disputed clause passed by a 20-11 vote. The other clauses of the vote were passed without discussion. The passing of the disputed clause practically decided any question regarding the remaining clauses, as they dealt with the proposed paving work.

Coming Home

The Flesherton Old Boys of Toronto are coming home in force on Saturday next, and the village will give them a brave reception. We are asking the surrounding country to come to town and help us entertain and join in the day's celebration. There will be something doing every minute. Bring along your cameras and get lasting mementos of the occasion. They will be something worth preserving. It will be a colorful day and worth while taking part in.

East On Furlough

Rev. S. D. Gaudin, missionary at Cross Lake, wife and youngest daughter, Miss Esther, are here on Furlough, the guests of Mr. Gaudin's sister, Mrs. W. H. Thurston. It is forty-one years since Mr. Gaudin went into the comparatively unknown far north of what was then called a territory, now Manitoba, to preach the gospel to the Cree Indians. He has seen great changes in that time, principal of which was the coming of the Hudson Bay railway. The line runs fifty miles north of Cross Lake.

Mrs. Robert Phillips of Toronto is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hoy, in town.

Mrs. G. A. Cairns and three little sons, of Wadena, Sask., are on an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Crossley.

There are bullfrogs and bullfrogs but the one caught by City Fireman Herb Zettel is probably the grandaddy of them all. Zettel "gaffed" a huge frog with a fish hook. It weighed exactly eight pounds and its shanks were almost as thick as a man's wrist. Zettel said he thought he had hooked a turtle. With the reserve of a trout fisherman, the fireman refrained from telling where he had hooked the frog.—Kitchener Record.
