Service was not held on Sunday, owing to the funeral of the late Mr. Geo. Proctor at Kimberley, the pastor Rev. McAusland, having charge of the service. We extend our sympathy to the widow and family in their hour of sorrow.

The Sunday School met at the usual hour of 1.30 p.m. There were 26 present in the Bible class and as it was review lesson five teachers each took a share of the 12 lessons. The service was greatly enjoyed by all and as there was no church service the lessons could be dealt with more fully.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carruthers of Markdale have moved to their farm.

The Sunday School picnic Tuesday afternoon was a success. There was a large crowd and all enjoyed the ball game between Cherry Grove and Rosedale, which resulted in a victory for Cherry Grove. Talent from Meaford supplied most of the program which included a male quartette a solo, two mandoli solos and two cornet solos, with recitations and diagues by the children, proved an interesting program. The children engaged in races and received prizes. The tent did a rushing business catering to the wants of the crowd. The proceeds amounted to $48.

Our local ball team journeyed to Cherry Grove Friday evening, playing a return game, but lost, score 20-12.

KIMBERLEY

Death caem very unexpectedly to one of our most respected citizens, Mr. George Proctor. On June 15th while working on a stone wall for Mr. Myers, Mr. Proctor fell on his neck and shoulders into a drain on some stones. At first it was not considered serious, but he gradually became worse and the following Sunday he was taken to Collingwood hosiptal, where an X-ray was taken, but did not reveal anything to hinder his recovery. Later he developed pneumonia and passed away early Friday morning, June 26th. Interment took place from his Kimberley home on Sunday afternoon. He was a faithful member of the United Church and will be greatly missed in the various activities of the village and among his freinds and neighbors. Mr. Proctor was married 46 years ago to Miss Mary Wickens, who survives him, with their two sons Ernest of Eugenia and Harold of Huntsville. Rev. McAuslan had charge of the service and Miss Watson and Miss Acheson sang a beautiful duet.

The funeral was one of the largest in years. There were a great number of flowers of which he had been a great lover.

We had the great pleasure of a call fromRev. S. D. Gaudin, missionary at Cross Lake, Man. Rev. Gaudin was a former resident of Kimberley and also taught school here about 47 years ago. He was accompanied by Mrs. Gaudin, their daughter, Esther, his sister, Mrs. W. H. Thurston and Mr. Thurston, editor of The Advance and Miss Rita Shaw.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Williams were; Mrs. Dan Mc Tavish and Mrs. Stewart McTavish of Flesherton, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce and brother, Mr. Day, also Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lehman and son, Hedley, of Toronto. Master Hedley remained to spend some holidays with grandparents.

Mrs. Harry Foester had the misfortune to run a needle into her right hand while washing on Monday. She was hurriedly rushed to the doctor, and the broken needle which had penetrated the bone was extracted. She is nursing a pretty sore hand but we hope it will soon be better.

We were very sorry to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. Geo. Proctor of Kimberley, father of Mr. Ernie Proctor of this place. Mr. Proctor had many friends around this community and we extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Dr. E. K. Richardson and wife and son, David, of Toronto visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Williams.

Mrs. Large and daughter, Beth, of Niagara called on her father, Mr. Peter Munshaw, and other friends.

On Friday afternoon Miss Sylvia Acheson was completely taken by surprise when a few of the ladies representing the school section entered the school and presented her with a pretty perfume atomizer. Mrs. C. Martin read an address while Miss Margie Park made the presentation. Miss Acheson replied in a few well chosen words, giving hearty thanks for the remembrance. A game of ball was enjoyed after which all went to the Hydro Lake and endulged in bathing. Yes!, and who was seen amongst those bathing beauties, but Mrs. Adam Smith in her bathing suit, just as jolly as any of the troupe. It was the intention to have a picnic in the park, but owing to the wet weather and the gloom of the neighbourhood of Mr. Proctor's death the occasion was a quiet one. Those in the section who were not asked to donate need not be offended because the affair was hurriedly gotten up. Owing to the storm the afternoon previously the collectors did not get out.

Just 15 years ago Fred Ward was a pupil in the Eugenia school. At that time the Ward family moved to Collingwood. Many changes have taken place during the lapse of time. On Sunday last, Fred and his lady friend, Miss Vickers, teacher, visited Eugenia, and his former teacher, now Mrs. Chas. Martin was delighted with a call from them. Fred is a fine looking young man and still wears that pleasant smile of his school boy days.
