We were pleased to receive a letter from Mrs. Solomon Turner of Eugenia to the effect that they received the second copy of the first issue of The Advance and it has been a welcome visitor to the home ever since. To these old friends and subscribers we extend our appreciation of their continued interest and support in the publishing of this paper.

Helen Myrta Maud Richardson, youngest grandchild of the late M. K. Richardson has been making a name for herself in art circles. She has qualified herself for high school and collegiate institute with honors. Last fall she won a scholarship in art entitling her to a course of instruction at the Art Gallery, Grange Park, Toronto. She has also been selected to demonstrate art in the Women's Building at the C. N. E. this August.

With the view of having the Province take over the Durham to Flesherton road, the members of Flesherton village council, along with members of the Durham council, interviewed Premier Henry, Minister of Highways, at the Parliament buildings, Toronto, on Thursday afternoon last. Premier Henry stated that the estimates had already been struck for this year, but next year the proposition would have his serious consideration. This is an important link in connecting Bruce and Huron Counties with Simcoe and Northern Ontario.

Geo. Clarke Was Accidentally Shot

A telegram from Winnipeg, dated last Saturday, says:

George E. Clarke, manager of the Edmonton branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, formerly of Ottawa, suffered fatal wounds Friday afternoon when the teller's revolver he was examining, discharged. His death has come as a shock to a wide circle of friends.

Reports received by James Walker, manager of the main branch of the Bank of Commerce here show that about 3.15 p.m. Mr. Clarke walked into the teller's cage, where H. A. McDowell was in charge, and asked if the revolver, an automatic, was working O.K. It is pointed out that it is customary for a bank manager to examine the revolvers in the teller's cages from time to time, and as Mr. Clarke was on the eve of leaving for a vacation in Toronto, he desired to be assured that the bank equipment was in order before he handed over control to the officer sent to act in his absence.

McDowell, according to his own story, replied that the revolver was alright and handed it to Mr. Clarke for examination. To the teller's consternation, there was a shot and the bullet tore through the floor under the desk in the cage.

Mr. Clarke had a surprised look on his face and stepped back while his right arm, which was holding the gun, went upward. At the same time, the gun again exploded. The bullet went through the banker's head, and struck the chandelier in the manager's office. All the members of the staff were in the office at the time. Coroner Dr. E. A. Braithwaite announced no inquest will be held.

The late manager had just been granted three months' leave of absence and had told friends of his anticipated pleasure in making a motor trip to the east. He had planned to leave here on Monday with his two young sons, John and Paul, and was to be joined at Winnipeg by Mrs. Clarke and daughter, Barbara, who had left the city Thursday morning. All were going to visit relatives in Toronto and at other points in the east.

The late Mr. Clarke was a native of Hamilton, Ont., and came west as a pioneer manager after service in the bank in Ottawa, Lindsay and Peterboro, where very early in his career he was given posts of responsibility.

Very many friends of the family in Flesherton district will read with very much regret the above despatch. The late Mr. Clarke, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clarke, now living in Weston, was a grandson of the late J. W. Armstrong, J.P., Flesherton, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. W. Hickling, and a cousin of W. J. W. Armstrong, jeweller. In his earlier years he spent many happy days at the home of his grandparents, and wrote to friends here, only last week, that he had been living his boyhood life all over again with his two boys, and were hoping to spend some time with them looking up his early haunts by stream, waterfall and woods. But it was fated otherwise. There will be much sympathy with his widow and parents (who now live in Weston) with the two boys and the little daughter, Barbara, who, only aged three, is thus tragically deprived of her father.

The remains are being brought to Flesherton for burial and will leave Edmonton Wednesday morning, arriving in Flesherton on the Saturday noon train. The funeral will likely take place from the residence of Mr. F. H. W. Hickling. Full arrangements of the time, etc., will be announceed later this week.

Reeve H. A. McCauley was in Toronto on Tuesday interviewing the Department of Highway heads in regard to the paving of a mile of the King's highway through town, approximately half a mile on each side of the main corner. It is to be hoped that the Minister looks favorably on the transaction as the paving should come cheaper to them when the machinery is already on the ground.

Large Crowd At Picnic Saturday

Fully fifteen hundred people were in attendance at the second annual picnic held by the Old Boys' and Girls' Association at Memorial Park on Saturday. The day was ideal for a picnic and the large throng enjoyed themselves fully from the commencement until the last sound of the dance orchestra late Saturday night. It was a real meeting place where one renewed friendships made in other years, but nevertheless dear even after a lengthy parting. The time for each meeting was necessarily limited and if one was to greet all the visitors only short conversations could be entered into. It was a great event and full enjoyment was taken out of the afternoon and evening.

Races and contests were held for both old and young and excellent prizes were awarded to the three winers in each of the events. Flesherton won the softball game against the Toronto team 5 to 1, but Toronto had their revenge in the tug-of-war, when the committee from the Queen City won two out of the three pulls from the local committee.

Mr. F. Fry of Toronto, a friend of Mr. and Mrs. John Latimer, took moving pictures of the various events of the day and many of the village citizens and these will be shown at the "At Home", which will be held next winter in Toronto and will recall that glorious day of June 27th, when the thermometer stood at about 85 in the shade. Another pleasing event was the old time songs sung by the Kansas Farmer, accompanying with his violin.

In the evening many of those prominent in the various activities spoke briefly and voiced their pleasure at the success of the re-union. A letter was read by the chairman, Mr. Chas. McTavish, from the Dundalk Old Home Week Committee extending greetings to the gathering here. Mr. Fry gave over an hour's entertainment with moving pictures that were amusing to everybody.

Dances were given by the committee on Friday and Saturday evenings and on the last night the curling rink was crammed with humanity and the dance floor was practically filled for each dance.

President Chas. McTavish, Secretary Burton Field and the other officers of the Toronto committee are to be congratulated on the success of the day. Space this week will not allow us to give the names of all those who signed the register at the picnic grounds.

Mr. F. H. W. Hickling, President of the local committee, received a letter from Mr. Burton Field, tendering the sincere thanks of the Toronto committee to the local committee and the citizens of Flesherton in general for one of the most enjoyable afternoons they have ever been privileged to enjoy. Mr. Field stated that he could not let the opportunity pass without expressing his appreciation of the wonderful community spirit evinced by all of those who attended the picnic. The fostering of this spirit is the main object of this Association, and it is very encouraging, indeed, to find our united efforts crowned with success in that direction.

Free ice cream, balloons and balls were distributed to the children by the two committees.

Jos. Taylor Passes

Mr. Jos. Taylor, a highly respected resident of Singhampton and well known throughout Osprey township, died at his home in Singhampton early Wednesday morning. He has been ill for some time. It is likely that the funeral of the late Mr. Taylor will take place Friday afternoon.

Miss Helen Richardson of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Mitchell.

Mrs. L. W. Thom of Barrie spent a few days visiting friends in town.

Mrs. W. Wilcock is visiting with her daughter in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Toronto are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fisher.

The stores in Flesherton will be open this Thursday aftrnoon; no half holiday.

Mrs. L. Brown and two children of Toronto are spending a couple weeks with her mother, Mrs. M. Thistlethwaite.

Master Dan and Stewart and Miss Dorothy McTavish of Oshawa are visitin with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. McTavish.

Miss Hattie Wallace of Toronto spent several days the first of the week visiting old friends in this district.

It is reported that 2000 fish in a special pond at the Mulock estate, west of Markdale, were victims of the heat wave experienced the past two days.

A special meeting of L.O.L. 883, Ceylon, will be held on July 7th at 8 o'clock sharp. All brethren are urged to be present. The District and County Masters are expected to be present.

Preparatory service will be held in St. John's church on Thursday evening. Rev. Mr. Pope will preach the sermon and Holy Sacrement will be administered next Sabbath morning.

Anniversary services will be held in St. Johns United church next Sabbath when Rev. Mr. Ford of Goderich will preach in the morning and Rev. Mr. Cornett of Owen Sound in the evening. A generous offering is requested.

A heat wave struck this district the first of the week and on Tuesday the thermometer registered 95 in the shade and on Dominion Day hit the high point of 97. In order to escape the intense heat the old swimming hole was well filled with youngsters and older ones cooling off in its inviting depths. Incidentally many renewed sun burns that had been collected earlier.

Presentation To R. G. Holland by Old Pubils

An interesting event took place over the week end when a presentation of a purse of money was made to Mr. R. G. Holland by the members of his old entrance classes. Mr. Holland came to Flesherton on January 1st, 1910, and after 20 years and 6 months as principal of the public school retired last year after a very successful teaching experience. During his time as principal in Flesherton Mr. Holland had 190 pupils pass the examinations for entrance to high school, and most of them are now scattered throughout the province, the Dominion and other points. They all joined together in a slight recognition of appreciation of Mr. Holland's efforts on their behalf wishing him a return to his old health and many years of happiness amongst us. Mr. Holland was completely taken by surprise, but expressed his feelings very appropriately. The presentation was a quiet affair as the recipient's health has not been the best of late.

COULD NOT BE HERE

Melville, Sask., June 26.

Dear Mr. Thurston:—I see by The Advance that tomorrow, June 27th, the picnic of the Old Boys' and Girls' Association is being held and I wish it all success. I used to clerk for Mr. Robt. Trimble, also for Wm. Wright and afterwards tailored for Fred Baker. I will arrive at the age of 75 years on July 4th, the same day that the Yankees celebrate. Sorry I could not be in Flesherton for the picnic.

—A. B. CLARK.

WHITE — TEETER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Teeter, Markdale, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 24th, when their second daughter, Mary Viotta, became the bride of Mr. Allan Curry White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin White of Artemesia township. The bride, looking very beautiful in a gown of delicate pink chiffon and chantilly lace with coronet of pearls and orange blossoms, white gloves, white kid slippers and stockings, and carrying a large bouquet of ophelia roses, fern and baby's breath, entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. A. M. Brown. Miss Ruby Teeter, sister of the bride, wore a dainty and becoming dress of peach georgette and Swiss lace with beige shoes and other accessories to match and carrying swetheart roses, baby breath and fern, was bridesmaid, while Mr. Emerson Davis of Toronto supported the groom. The party took their place before a bank of ferns and cut flowers most tastefully arranged. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. O. Miller of the Presbyterian church, Markdale. During the signing of the register Miss Dorothy Stephen sang "When Song is Sweet."

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome cheque, to the bridesmaid a silver bud vase and to the groomsman a pair of gold cuff links. The bride was also the recipient of many beautiful gifts and a number of generous cheques.

During the evening the happy couple left by motor for a trip to Toronto, Hamilton and Niagara, the bride wearing a dress of flowered georgette, blond shoes, beige coat with leopard trimming and large picture hat and other accessories to harmonize.

Upon their return they will reside at the groom's home in Artemesia.

A Noted Family

Mr. Joseph Clark, editor of the Toronto Daily Star, drifted into our office on Saturday, accompanied by three fine looking young men, whom he introduced as his sons. These were Gregory, the Star specialty writer who handles big fish stories, and incidentally captures a few overgrown fish himself; Jos. Jr., who can look over his father's head and beyond at the background; then last and youngest, comes Arthur Hugh, who is the Vancouver Sun representative in Toronto. We were mightily pleased to shake their hands. Gregory Clark has made a real name for himself in Canada as a special writer on the Daily and Weekly Star, and as for fish stories, he is willing to take a half day off any old time to spin yarns of his exploits with the finny and scaly tribes.

Property Changes

Recently Mr. G. E. Henry disposed of his store business and post office in Berkeley to Mr. Ken Wright of Osprey Township. This week he has purchased the holdings in town of his father, Mr. W. I. Henry, and will move to town with his family as soon as the deal in Berkeley is closed. We understand that Mr. W. I. Henry will commence to build a residence near the position where the old Flesher home was situated for so many years.
