Extracts from English Papers.

It is reported from Vienna that in a day or two it will be officially announced to the public that no more railroad shares will be brought into the market before 1859. The state of money affairs in that city is deplorable. A letter dated 13th Oct. says: Ten houses suspended payment in the course of yesterday. The chief of one of them, who, having gained last winter a lottery of 40,000 florins, had built a magnificent warehouse at Nuremburg, has committed suicide. It is said that the failure of Boscowitz had led to his embarrassment. This is the fifth suicide within a few days from a similar cause.

According to the Constantinople correspondent of the London Times, the finances of the Turkish Government are almost hopelessly embarrassed, arising almost entirely from the excessive civil list. The debts of the civil list and palace are represented as exceeding four millions of pounds sterling; of the War Department, eight millions; and of the Marine two hundred and fifty thousand pounds. Upon most of this indebtedness interest at the rate of from fifteen to twenty per cent. is paid.—To the annual return of this embarrassment, the correspondent in question attributes the almost yearly change of ministers. The revenue of the country is upon the increase, but there seems to be no disposition to economize.

The commercial news received by the steamers, had an unfavorable effect on the English Stock Exchange on the 19th ult. The Bank of England raised their rate of discount 7 per cent., which was adopted on the previous Monday, to 8 per cent. This step was taken solely in consequence of the American news.

The Bank of France had raised its rate of discount from 6½ to 7½ per cent.

The latest quotations of Consols on the 20th, in London, were 88 5-8ths, to 88 3-4ths; Bank stock, 212 to 214. Reduced 87 1-2 to 87 3-4ths.

An Incident of the Cawnpore Massacre. Many isolated incidents connected with this wholesale butchery of a very affecting description have come to light. Here is one:—After the British had been shut up in their entrenchment an English lady arrived with her children—fugitives from some neighboring station. Her husband had been murdered on the road. The poor helpless widow implored Nena Sahib for life; but he ordered them to be taken out on the plain and killed. On the way the children complained of the cold, and the mother requested that they might be taken under some trees. But even that request was denied her. Brought like so many felons to the open plain, the mother and children were tied together and deliberately shot, with the exception of the youngest one, who was seen crawling over the dead bodies, and feeling them, and asking them why they had fallen down and gone to sleep in the sun! At last a cruel trooper came and dashed out the brains of the little one! The very recital of such horrors makes one's blood curdle in the veins. What a picture a skilful artist might form out of this scene—a picture which might portray to man's senses the cruelties of heathenism, and proclaim aloud the necessity for the regenerating, humanising influences of the Gospel of grace and salvation.—[Letter from Dr. Duff, Calcutta.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

FRANGIPANNI.—Mr E. W. Palmer advertise the genuine Frangipanni—a most exquisite perfume. Its name has a history which we copy from Notes and Queries:—

"There is in Rome a family bearing the patronymic of Frangipanni, as famous in Italy as the Plantagenets, and the Tudors in England. The origin of the name of this family is traced to a certain office which an ancestor filled in the church—that of supplying the holy bread, the wafer in one of the ceremonials. Frangipanni literally means 'broken bread,' and is derived from Frangi, to break, and Panus, bread. Hence we have the Frangipanni puddings, which good housewives know are made with broken bread. One Mercutio Frangipanni, who lived in 1493, was a famous botanist and traveller, famous as being one of the Columbus expedition when they visited the West India Islands. The sailors, as they approached Antigua, discovered a delicious fragrance in the air. This, Mercutio told them, must be derived from sweet smelling flowers. On landing they found vast quantities of the Plumeria Alba, in full bloom, rendering the air redolent with rich odor, and from this plant, which the present inhabitants of Antigua call Frangipanni flower is distilled that exquisite fragrance which is now so popular in fashionable circles."

DR. SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR

is what we wish to recommend with confidence to our readers, our reasons for which will appear in the following:

Some time since, while troubled with Dyspepsia, Indigestion and a thousand other ills that none but the Dyspeptic suffer, our physician denied us the use of the favorite cup of coffee with our break fast. But this did not lessen the evil, so by the Dr's advice meat was discarded from our diet—yet Dyspepsia haunted us day and night, until finding no relief among physicians, we commenced the use of family medicines, with less faith than hope. Among other things we were recommended to try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator. We tried it, and since then we have recommended others to try it, while they in their turn have given their recommendation, and there are no cases that we know of who have tried it but have been benefited by its use. It is the most invigorating, life giving balsam we have ever known, and we are happy in telling all of its curative properties and in recommending them when troubled with any derangement of the Liver to try this unfailing remedy.—[Fredonia Democrat.

☞ Does any of our high livers ever eat too much dinner? If any have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners without a visit from that gouty old gentleman—Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if any thing ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure come and tell us for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.—Jersey Shore Republican. d215

TO THE AFFLICTED.

I deem it a duty I owe to society, especially to the afflicted, to offer this testimonial in favor of that estimable medicine—"Perry Davis' Pain Killer." When passing through Galena, some two weeks ago, I purchased at your agency a 25 cent bottle. I was then suffering from a severely bruised hand; I applied it in the store, and was astonished at the almost instantaneous relief. Before I left the store the inflamation was removed, and in less than an hour the pain ceased. In two days my hand was well as ever. Finding it to be really a remedy, I determined to try its effects as a curative for the Piles, to which I have been a martyr for years.—After five dressings, my piles were among the things that had been; I am now entirely free from them, and in as good health as ever I was in my life. I have recommended the Pain Killer to others, and always with good effect. Several of the captains of the upper river boats carry with them a constant supply, and consider it one of the most valuable medicines ever discovered.

I am dear sir, respectfully yours,
JOSEPH O. MARTIN.

THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.—It seldom occurs, that we notice, under any circumstance, patent medicines, restoratives, or anything of the kind, for we have a prejudice against most of them. But candor compels us to invite attention to the advertisement of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in the last column at the bottom of the third page of this paper. We are too juvenile to require anything of the kind, but some instances of its use have come to our knowledge which almost assures us that it is a sovereign remedy against the hair becoming premturely gray. It is not a "Hair Dye;" but upon its application as directed the effects is produced on skin, which brings out the original native colored hair, without stiffness, and gives it a glossy and natural appearance. We have seen persons who have used it, and they are much pleased with it. Examine the advertisement.—[Missouri Republican. Sold by all respectable Druggists. 186

☞ There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, and pronounced it the only invention which had come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a grey hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are beginning to assume a silvery hue, and who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—St. Louis Herald.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION.—This personal charm all may possess by using the Persian Balm as the toilette. Tan, pimples, freckles, sunburn, and all eruptions, vanish before its magic power. Try it.

Our native forests furnish us with Nature's own remedy for all lung complaints. Dr. Wistar's in his Balsam combines the essential qualities of the Cherry Bark with Tar Water. It has cured many cases of seated consumption. 229

I have used Davis Pain Killer in my family for several years, and take great pleasure in recommending it as a valuable medicine, that should be kept in every family.

WOOD'S RESTORATIVE.—Of all the restoratives for the hair that have been invented, Wood's pre-eminently claims the first place. It will certainly restore the natural color of the hair, if the directions are followed for a sufficient length of time. It also has produced astonishing effects in bringing out a growth of hair, where the head had been previously bald. Wood does not pretend that it will do this in all cases; and we think his candor is a good recommendation of the virtues which his restorative really possesses. If the roots of the hair are destroyed, no human power can make them grow again; but where there is any vitality left in the root, the restorative will soon renew the hair in all its pristine vigor. It has done this repeatedly when all other remedies had failed. It is therefore worth while in all cases to make the experiment. For clearing the head of dandruff, and thickening and strengthening the hair it has no rival.—[Western Patriot.

A PERFECT CURE, AND NO MISTAKE.

From the Editor of the New York Mirror, Aug. 9.

About four weeks since, one of the compositors of this office was suffering so badly from a cough that he was unable to sleep nights, and too weak to stand at his case. He became very pale and thin, and gave symptoms of falling a victim to quick consumption. We recommended to him various medicines, which had no effect. Finally, we gave him one bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. It afforded him immediate relief, and he is now a well man, and not the slightest symptom of a cough. These are facts, and further particulars may be learned at this office. We should add that the cough in the above case was accompanied by profuse spitting of blood.

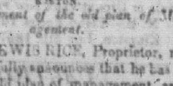
AMERICAN HOUSE,
BOSTON.

Re-establishment of the old plan of Management.



LEWIS RICE, Proprietor, respectfully announces that he has resumed the old plan of management, as it existed before the recent alteration. Trial of the European system in this Hotel, proves, that although the advantages are great, yet the plan is better adapted for the smaller class of Hotels.

The accommodations and convenience of the House are unsurpassed, and the recent improvements and alterations, for the comfort of guests, leave nothing to be desired.
