Large congregations were present, both morning and evening, at the Anniversary services of St. Columba United church, Sunday, when Rev. Mr. McCormack of Thornton, (former pastor here,) delivered two inspiring messages. Special music added greatly to the impressiveness of the services. Then on Monday evening a fowl supper was held in the basement of the church, when a very large crowd was present. The night was an ideal one and the table was laden with all good things to satisfy the inner man. After the bountiful supper was over, a varied program was enjoyed in the church, given by the Mount Forest choir. Rev. Mr. Bartlett acted as chairman. The first number on the program was an anthem by the choir, "Praise Ye the Lord", with 31 voices strong, was heartily enjoyed. Solos were sung by Mr. Tanner and Mr. Gilstoff, Mrs. Coutts, and Mrs. Gilstoff, which were much enjoyed and each one responded to an encore. Priceville orchestra furnished splendid music as did also, a male quartett. Humorous reading, by Miss Marjorie Trimble, sewing rag carpets, was a pleasing number. Rev. MacCormack, Rev. MacDonald of Mount Forest and Rev. Bartlett gave splendid addresses, and Mr. Gordon Griffin gave two violin solo's. A male chorus, "Carry me back to Old Virginny" was also enjoyed. The ladies quartette then favored the audience with a couple of numbers.

An anthem brought the program to a close, followed by the National Anthem. The Mount Forest choir is to be congratulated on having such a splendid choir and for giving such a fine program, which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

Miss Sellwood spent the week end at her home at Singhampton.

PROTON STATION

Not only the village but the general public for many miles around regret the removal of the C.P.R. agent, Mr. Peter Still, who has been in this station for thirteen years. Mr. Still could not be excelled as a station agent, which is saying a great deal. Mrs. Still and the family will be greatly missed in the social circles of the community and the church.

The W. M. S. Thankoffering meeting was not as well attended as the occasion and the program warranted, but those present enjoyed Mrs. Baker's talk exceedingly and the numbers given by the Mission Band. Mr. Leslie presided and gave an interesting talk on his experiences in the West, explaining the need of the stricken area. A generous offering was given.

A bale is being packed this week for the west and many are giving liberal donations. Dever Bros. have sent in a great many warm, new, articles and they did not forget a treat for the children.

IN MEMORIAM

McGIRR — In ever loving memory of our dear husband and father, Robert S. McGirr, who passed away Oct. 25th, 1928.

Fast as the rolling seasons bring
The hour of fate to those we love,
Each pearl that leaves the broken string
Is set in heaven's crown above.
As narrower grows the earthly chain,
The circle widens in the sky;
These are our treasures that remain,
But those the stars that beam on high.

—Ever remembered by wife and daughter.

Miss Macphail Away
