EDITORIAL NOTES.

A slick Toronto stock saleman was in Flesherton, the other day, looking for a loan widow.

Five weeks from to-day Christmas bells will be ready to ring. Mean time the wise shopper in search of gifts will get busy. He can buy now in comparative comfort and have the best opportunity to choose.

A Paris correspondent reports that bustles are again fashionable, but that they are composed of bows and draperies, not bumps, as in the 70's and '80's of lasts century. They all look alike to us.

The toll of death among the returned soldiers has been very high in Canada since the war. Over 700 men have died in Christie street military hospital in the past twelve years. The boys are still paying for their defence of their homes.

Sixty years ago Canadians were just beginning to eat bananas. Now the "fruit" is one of our principal imports. France has also taken to eating the tasty food. She, too, has fellow citizens in tropical lands producing and marketing the product.

Communism in Canada received a hard jolt last week when seven members were sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary by Justice Wright and an eighth to a two-year term Police Chief Draper's drastic stand in connection with the Toronto Communists appears to have been justified.

It was hoped that the Grey County history would have been off the press in time for the Christmas trade, but this has been found to be impossible to accomplish. However, the book is expected to be available early in the New Year. The Advance has been privileged to see some specimen pages. The book will be printed in a large, clear type, by the presses of The Owen Sound Sun-Times job department.

Hon. R. B. Bennett is forced to take a holiday and is now in Europe on a well-earned rest. His arduous duties in the dual capacity of Premier and Minister of Finance would break down the sturdiest man known. There would seem to be something wrong when the Premier is not able to secure a capable man for the Finance portfolio. Is it that too many of them are linked up with high finance and find their positions too secure to enter the political field.

Wentworth County has had so many barn fires that it was thought that a "fire bug" was operating. Attorney-General Price, in a statement says that in his opinion the cause is attributable to the open fall, causing gasses to form in the hay and grain, causing spontaneous combustion. The insurance companies have been hard hit, no matter what the cause is and in the meantime the fires continue.

The liquor vendors of the Provincial Government intimate that it is a mistake to suppose that drinkers in local option districts are deprived of opportunity to get their favorite tipple. Headquarters, on application, sell permits with pleasure (and profit) to all such drouthy ones, and they can go to a liquor store anywhere and get their supplies, or have them sent by mail and express. This seems little like a contravention of the law that liquor shall not be advertised, but that enactment it seems, does not apply to the government vendors.

To President Hoover of the United States may well be applied the old time injunction, "The Democrat will get you if you don't watch out". In the recent elections to the House of Representatives, the Republicans lost a pivotal seat in Michigan and the Democrats received the majority that enables them to control the lower House of Congress and all that it means of patronage and legislative influence. The Presidential election is almost a year off, but many of our neighbors look upon this triumph for the party that is likely to have Governor Roosevelt of New York State as its nominee as an indication that the Democrat will triumph in the National contest next year. Much may happen, however, before the fight now begun ends a year from now and Hoover's manipulations may be expected to continue 'till voting day.

PORTEOUS — JOHNSTON

A very pretty autumn wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, November 4th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnston of Kemble, when their younger daughter, Mildred Euretta, was united in marriage to Mr. Joyce Porteous, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Porteous of Rock Mills. The ceremony was performed at high noon by Rev. R. J. McCarten, pastor of Kemble United Church.

The bridal procession entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, rendered by Mr. Clayton Johnston, brother of the bride, and stood under a pretty pink and white lattice arch, entwined with myrtle and banked with ferns and cosmos.

The bride looked lovely in a white georgette jacket dress with lace trimmings, fashioned on long lines wihte kid pumps and white hosiery completed her costume. Her bouquet was of pink sweetheart roses and liles-of-the-valley, arranged in a shower and tied with tulle. The only attendant was little Miss Doris Hurlburt of Bayview, niece of the bride, who was winsome in yellow silk crepe and carried a pretty basket of yellow roses and baby mums.

During the signing of the register Mr. Clayton Johnston rendered softly "Loves Golden Hours."

The groom's mother was becomingly attired in black georgette and was wearing a nosegay of red roses and maiden's hair fern. Mrs. Johnston was dressed in black silk crepe and also wore red roses and maiden's hair fern.

The groom's gift to the bride was a dainty white gold bar pin with brilliant and green gold setting, to the flower girl a gold signet ring and to the pianist a gold knife and chain.

In the dining room a pink and white color scheme was used in streamers flowers and candles. A sumptuous dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Lindle Hurlburt of Bayview and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Johnston of Jackson. Mrs. Hurlburt was wearing a becoming reseda-green dress with darker printed trimmings and Mrs. Johnston was also dressed in green crepe with touches of egg shell.

The happy couple left by motor amid showers of confetti and good wishes, for a short honeymoon to be spent in Stratford and other points. The bride's travelling costume consisted of a brown georgette dress with faggot trimming, brown kitten's-ear broadcloth coat with sable trimming and hat, purse, scarf, shoes and hose to match.

On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Rock Mills.

Other guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. John Porteous, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Monaghan and John and Ruby of Rock Mills and Miss Ruth Taylor of Hoath Head.

GRAHAM — HINDLE

On Remembrance Day, November 11th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. F N. Hindle was the scene of a quiet but pretty event when their eldest daughter, Mary Ina, was married to Robert Thomas, eldest son of Mrs. Graham and the late Mr. Thos. Graham of Banks. The home was very prettily decorated with evergreens and pink and white streamers with white wedding bells.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk flat crepe with rose-bud and pearl trimming and wore her mother's wedding wreath. She also wore the gift of the groom, a beautiful diamond-cut crystal necklace, and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and maiden-hair fern.

The marriage was solemnized at four o'clock in the afternoon, in the presence of immediate relatives, Rev. A. G. MacPherson of McIntyre, officiating. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march, played by her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Jamieson, and took her place under the beautiful arch of evergreens and streamers and a large white wedding bell.

Attending the young couple were the bride's sister, Miss Bessie M Hindle, as bridesmaid, wearing a deep cream silk crepe ensemble trimmed with white.

Mr. Wesley James of Ravenna was groomsman.

Following the ceremony a very dainty and delightful wedding dinner was served, Mrs. Jas. McKenzie and Mrs. J. J. Jamieson being the waitresses.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold bar pin, and the groomsman a military brush set.

Amid showers of confetti and good wishes Mr. and Mrs. Graham left for their home near Banks, where they will reside.

SURVEY OF DRINKING WATER

The Ontario Department of public men took a survey of the wells and water supply in town last week and their report will shortly be in the hands of the Local Board of Health There have been several items of sanitation come to the attention of the Board in the past few months and these will likely be dealt with in the report.

WANT TO COMBINE HOLIDAYS

Owen Sound merchants are dissatisfied with Thanksgiving Day so early in the season and will request that in future Thanksgiving and Armistice Day be observed the same day. Early October they claim, is no time to celebrate Thanksgiving. Farm produce was far from being ready for the market and the consumer had to content himself with substitutes.

Wm. Lake, of Meaford has a cucumber weighing 4 lbs. which he grew in his garden. It is over a foot long and is 14½ inches in circumference.

Bert's Desire

From a window in a little back street in an Ontario town, a small boy gazed longingly on the "ball players" in an adjoining lot. A strange weakness kept him resting on a chair or in his cot, unable to join in the fun.

When the doctor was called, a glance told him the story, and it was not long before little Bert was hurried off to the Queen Mary Hospital for Consumptive Children. Here the great desire of his life seems likely to be granted. Bert has made wonderful progress, and the nurse says hopefully that in a few months more he will be able to try his prowess in the baseball nine —and what greater happiness could befall a little bed-ridden lad than this?

To save many such as Bert from consumption, this great work must go on, helped by subscriptions upon which the hospital so largely depends. A gift from you will be gratefully appreciated. Please send it to Mr. A. E. Ames, 223 College St., Toronto.

Tell Us, Please, About Your Work

YOU provide employment for many. The money which you pay out as wages amounts in the year to a very large sum. You pay a good deal, in the form of taxes, to the cost of maintaining our town services. Your products, sold afar, advertise our town favorably. Yet we who live in this town really know very little about your activities and our ignorance is disadvantageous to you and to your town.

We suggest to you, in the name of citizens, that you should give us information periodically, about yourselves, your products, your markets in order that we may get a more acute sense of your importance to this community.

Tell us in this newspaper where your materials come from, about what you do to make your products widely known and consumed, about interesting manufacturing processes, and so on.

We'll read, avidly, all that you tell us in the form of signed advertisements in this paper.

Even though we of this community may not buy much of what you make, we're still deeply interested in all that you are doing, attempting and achieving.

Goodwill and understanding will be increased if we know more about your enterprise. As citizens, we like to tell others about our industries. So give us information about yourselves.

This invitation to you to make your individual businesses better known to us is one which we hope you'll accept.
