DOMESTIC.

Toronto, March 25th, 1858.

The removal of Mr. Meudell from the Collectorship of Toronto is announced this morning. It is well understood that Mr. Spencer, the late Postmaster General, will be his successor, and I presume that none will dispute the fitness of the appointment. As a business man, Mr. Spence has few superiors.

The Leader errs in stating that the Speaker has decided against the validity of the recognizances of parties petitioning against the election of Mr. Hogan. To this date, no decision has been given to the case. All the facts of the case point to the probability of there being a new election for the County of Grey. If there be, Mr. J. C. Morrison, the late Receiver General, will be a candidate, with all the chances in his favor.

The Speaker has decided against the recognizances of parties to two election cases—namely, Vercheres and Richelieu. In the case of Vercheres, the objection taken in behalf of the sitting member, pointed to a defect in the acknowledgment of the recognizances; and the objection being sustained by the Speaker, Mr. Attorney General Cartier will retain his seat. In the Richelieu case, the Speaker's decision proceeded upon two objections: first, that three of the parties named in the recognizances have neither signed it, nor made their marks to it, and the Justice, before whom it was taken, has not noticed such want of signature or mark over his signature at the foot of the recognizance, nor has he certified that the recognizance was read over and explained to the said parties, who did not sign or make their marks to the same; second, that the affidavit of justification is insufficient, because neither the signatures nor marks of three of the deponents are thereto—that their names are not separately mention in the jurat, nor is it certified that the affidavit was read over and explained by the Justice; that there should have been four separate affidavits, or, if the sureties were united in one affidavit, that each should have sworn that he possed property to double the amount of the sum in the recognizance, instead of the whole being included together as in the affidavit. In his decision on these points, the Speaker ruled that quoad these three recognizances there is no execution according to the requirements of the 18th Sec. of the Election Petitions Act of 1851. There being no signature, there is no execution. He added, that a recognizance to the Crown must be treated with as much solemnity as a deed, and if an issue were raised as to the execution of the instrument, it could not be asserted that these parties did in fact execute the same. On the other objection, the Speaker ruled that the want of signatures to the affidavit of sufficiency of three of the deponents, renders it bad in law; they have not conformed to the first essential of an affidavit, and without a signature it could not be read or received. Moreover, the want of the statement in the jurat that it was read over to the deponent, would be fatal if they had signed it with their several marks, and the omission of the names of the several deponents is equally bad.

Rumored Changes.—Rumors are rife of impending changes in the Cabinet. As specimens of what the quidnuncs say, we give the following from Ministerial journals:—

There is a report current through the city to-day, that the hon Mr Alleyn has resigned his seat in the Cabinet. Its foundation we have not been able to trace.—Quebec Mercury.

The talk about town is that Mr. Justice Aylwin is to retire from the Judiciary, and to be replaced in the Queen's Bench by Attorney General Cartier. The vacant fifth Judgeship in the same Court, it is said, is to be given to one of the Judges of the Superior Court, who is to make room for the Provincial Secretary, Mr. Loranger. The names of two prominent members of the Lower Canadian Opposition are mentioned in connection with the Ministerial changes consequent upon Messrs. Cartier and Loranger accepting Judgeships. We give the reports for what they are worth; but we do not consider them all wholly destitute of foundation.—Quebec Morning Chronicle of yesterday.

The Upper Canadian journals are silent as to meditated changes in that section, but we believe the opinion is pretty general that something in that way will be attempted during the recess.—Montreal Argus.

The Angus Murder.—An inquest on the remains of the unfortunate man, John Coots, has been held and a verdict of Wilful Murder against Robert Coulter returned. We regret to say that up to the time of going to press we had received no intimation of the apprehension of the criminal. An extra of the Official Gazette, issued yesterday, offers a reward of $400 to any person or persons, who will give such information as will lead to his discovery and apprehension. The following is a correct description of Coulter. He is about six feet high, about twenty-eight or thirty years of age, is stout built, his shoulders have a little stoop or round, face long, forehead high, with a ridge or prominence between eyebrows to hair of the head, color of eyes blue; lived about Barrie and Pine River for some years; was employed about the Railways until sent to the Penitentiary for attempting to take the life of a constable in Barrie; parents live in West Gwillimbury; one of the front upper teeth slightly lops over under jaw, has a small mark or cicatrice on left cheek, under the eye, easily discernible; sometimes wears false moustachios and whiskers.

Toronto, March 27th.

PROSECUTION UNDER THE GAME LAWS.

John Butler, a dealer in game and fruit, in the vegetable market, was summoned by Mr. John Brown, builder, for an infraction of the game laws.

Mr. Brown is a well known sportsman, and who was accompanied by that veteran lover of the chase, Hon. Col. Prince; deposed that yesterday he saw hanging in front of Butler's stall a brace of partridges. The Legislature [said Mr. Brown] in order to preserve game, and to prevent parties destroying them out of season, had passed an Act, 19, 20 Vict., cap. 91; the 2nd section of which recited "that no wild turkey, grouse, partridge, or pheasant shall be hunted, taken, or killed, between the 1st of March and 1st of September in any year." Other sections of the Act provide for the preservation during certain periods of the year of various kinds of game. The penalty for an infringement of the Act is by a fine not exceeding five pounds nor less than five shillings; in default of payment, imprisonment not exceeding one month.

Defendant admitted the fact of having the partridges in his possession, but alleged that he had had them for some time. On being asked if he obtained them before the 1st of March, he refused to say.

His Worship thought the charge clearly proved, and would fine the defendant two dollars, and one dollar and a half costs.

The Orange Bill.—It would seem that the senior member for Toronto has abandoned his intention of taking charge of the Bill for incorporating the Orange Society, as it is now intimated that the Bill will be brought in by Mr. Benjamin. We shall soon see how sincere the Grits were in their professions of friendship to the Orangemen. We hardly think the Orangemen have a right to expect aid from the Protestant electors whom they opposed at the late A. [illegible] were married [illegible] last week, under [illegible] Twin sisters married twin brothers, the parties being each 23 years of age, the wedding day of the brides was the anniversary of their birth.

Money Orders on Canada.—We observe from a statement in the London (England) Canadian News, that the Grand Trunk Railway Company have established a system of money orders on any of the company's stations in Canada. This will prove a great boon to the emigrants, who will thus be secured from the probability of losing their property at the port of landing.

Dispepsia and Fits.

DR. TRACY DELORME, the great curer of CONSUMPTION, was for several years so badly afflicted by Dispepsia that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given by a mere child while in a state of trance, has cured everybody who has taken it, never having failed once. It is equally as sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia. The ingredients may be found in any drug store. I will send this valuable prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. Address Dr. TRACY DELORME, Great Clairvoyant of Consumption, New York Post Office. 49-1 mo.

A good-looking friend of ours, who is on this side of forty, though somewhat hoary headed, while absent from the city a few days, used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and on his return called to see his lady-love, but was amused to find she did not recognize him; and immediately determined to pass for a cousin of himself, but was eventually chagrined to find he was supplanting his former self in the affections of the lady, which caused him to make himself known: but the lady still says that she likes the counterfeit better than the original, and insists that he continue (if necessary) to use the Hair Restorative. To be had at the druggists.—[St. Louis Morning Herald.

DR. SANFORD'S LIVER Invigorator. It has become an established fact that Dr. Sanford's Invigorator will cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice and general debility. Many people, personally known to us, whose word cannot be doubted, have given their certificates to prove this, and with such a mass of evidence who can doubt.

It is truly the invalid's friend, and will give relief when all other remedies fail, and in some instances that have come under our observation it seemed the means of snatching its victim from the grave. We wish all our readers who need medicine would try one bottle, for it will surely give relief.—True American. 252

INVIGORATE THE LIVER.

It is a most undoubted fact that Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years' practice to find what particular organ, when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is, that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease, while if kept free from disease is a preventive of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last but far from least we mention consumption; for our experience is that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver than from all other causes put together.

Taking this to be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventive. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements, it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all diseases of the stomach or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest and most efficacious remedy known.—Princeton Press.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Frangipanni.—Mr E. W. Palmer advertise the genuine Frangipanni—a most exquisite perfume. Its name has a history which we copy from Notes and Queries:—"There is in Rome a family bearing the patronymic of Frangipanni, as famous in Italy as the Plantagenets and the Tudors in England. The origin of the name of this family is traced to a certain place which an ancestor filled in the church—that of supplying the holy bread, the wafer in one of the ceremonials. Frangipanni literary means 'broken bread,' and is derived from Frangi to break, and Panus, bread. Hence we have the Frangipanni puddings, which good housewives know are made with broken bread. One Mercutio Frangipanni, who lived in 1492, was a famous botanist and traveller, famous as being one of the Columbus expedition when they visited the West India Islands. The sailors, as they approached Antigua, discovered a delicious fragrance in the air. This, Mercutio told them, must be derived from sweet smelling flowers. On landing they found vast quantities of the Plumeria Alba, in full bloom, rendering the air redolent with rich odor, and from this plant, which the present inhabitants of Antigua call Frangipanni flower is distilled that exquisite fragrance which is now so popular in fashionable circles."

Wood's Hair Restorative.—This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to its natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but wherever fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—Moline Workman. Sold by all respectable Druggists. 28

ALSO AT PRIVATE SALE.

The Farm belonging to the Estate, distant 3 miles from Kingston and containing 250 acres of Arable Land, in the highest state of cultivation, and capable of yielding the richest crops. It is abundantly watered, having a never-failing creek, pure and transparent, running in rear, and the great Cataraqui in front.

The Scenery of this river, on an elevated position of banks of which the farm is situated, is unsurpassed in point of variety, and picturesque beauty, by any in the Province, terminating northward in the romantic crags of Kingston Mills, and Southward in the City of Kingston and its magnificent Harbour, where the waters of Lake Ontario, the Bay of Quinte, and the rivers St. Lawrence and Cataraqui, unite, and the famed Thousand Islands begin.

A new Macadamized road leads to the City, on the one hand, and to the Kingston Mills Railway Station and Gananoque on the other.

The Buildings are faultless, and consist of a large and commodious stone Mansion, and an enclosed quadrangle of out-house comprises, barns, sheds and barn yard in the centre, together with wood shed, stable, byre, &c., besides a rough-cast dwelling and barn at some distance.

There are also on the farm two Orchards of upwards of 400 young and healthy trees, and an excellent well of pure water with a chain pump.

The fences are picket, and straight fences, 7 rails high, and they, as well as the gates, are nearly new, and were put up by the late proprietor, at great expense, and with much care.

To the Agriculturist, the Country Gentleman, or the Sportsman, the undersigned cannot recommend the property in more fitting terms than the declaration of the members of the Board of Agriculture, at the last Provincial Exhibition, "That they considered this, the very best Farm east of Toronto."
