VANDELEUR

The Vandeleur Ladies' Aid held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Lundy Johnston on Wednesday afternoon of this week. A good program was provided and officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Miss E. Hawken, a returned Missionary, from Northern Alberta gave a lantern lecture in the church here on Friday evening of last week, which was quite interesting to the large crowd in attendance.

Mr. H. I. Graham attended Rallies in the Young Peoples Union at Owen Sound and Wiarton last week.

The mild weather is remarkable for this time of the year. Dandelions and garden flowers have been blooming in abundance during the past few weeks. Mrs. G. I. Graham had lettuce pulled from her garden on Dec. 1st.

The Vandeleur Womens' Institute held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Morrison on Thursday evening, Dec. 19th. The meeting was in the form of a fowl supper for the members and their families. One hundred and fifteen people partook of a sumptuous repast. The supper was followed by an excellent program, the principal item of which was a debate on the subject "Resolved that men take more pleasure out of life than women. Mrs. Swanton, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Ratcliffe upheld the affirmative and Messrs. Frank Davis, Howard Graham and Howard McGee supported the negative. The judges gave their decision in favor of the affirmative. A good time was enjoyed by all.

The many friends of Mrs. Pritchard are very sorry to hear of her serious illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Richardson, also Mr. John Warling another old resident of this place who is critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. Timmins.

Miss Minnie Graham and Miss Lee of Listowel were recent visitors in this community.

Rev. Annis of Thornbury occupied the pupit in the church here on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 22nd.

IN MEMORIAM

GIBSON — In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Ella Gibson, who passed away on November the 29th, 1928.

Forget you? No, we never will Although you have gone
we love you still.
Hard was the blow, the shock severe,
To part with the one we loved so dear.
—Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, sister and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM

BEST — In loving but sad remembrance of our dear son and brother, Alex. Best, who died Dec. 3rd, 1926.

He has gone across the river,
To the shores of evergreen,
How we long to see his dear face,
But the river flows between.
And our aching heart is calling
To the shadows dark and grey,
For the loved one who has left us
Just five years ago to day.
—Sadly missed by Father and Mother, Sisters and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM

GIBSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, Ella Gibson, who passed away November 29th, 1928.

Sweetest memories are all that are left,
Of a dear, loving mother, one of the best.
A mother whose heart was as pure
as gold,
Our dear mother's worth can never be told.
She oft-times said we'd miss her,
The words have proved too true;
We lost the best and dearest friend;
Dear Mother, when we lost you.
—Ever remembered by your children

FRED BELLAMY IS NEW COLLINGWOOD POSTMASTER

Officially, by letter on Tuesday, Mr. Fred H. Bellamy received notice that he had been appointed to the vacant postmastership at Collingwood. He succeeds the late Dougald L. Darroch. The appointment is received by the townspeople with general satisfaction.

Mr. Bellamy is a native of Flesherton and is a son of Mr. John Bellamy of that village. He was raised in Flesherton and attended the home schools. In 1915 he enlisted with the 147th Greys and served three years overseas in the Great War. At Vimy he was wounded.

Upon returning to Canada in 1919 he was aopointed to the staff of the Collingwood post office where he has since remained. In 1923 he was appointed assistant postmaster. His wife was formerly Miss Glory Smith, daughter of the late Andrew and Mrs. Smith. He is a Presbyterian.

Obliging, efficient and faithful in his work, he has earned the good-will of the people of Collingwood, many of whom joined in recommending him for appointment and now unite in extending congratulatons. — The Collingwood Bulletin.

[The Advance along with a host of friends in his home town are also very pleased to hear of Fred's appointment as postmaster and also extend their hearty congratulations on his appointment.—Editor Advance.]

FUNERAL DIRECTORS MET AT HARRISTON

The funeral directors met in convention at Harriston with the districts of Grey, Huron, Bruce and Wellington represented. The president, Mr. R. H. Richardson of Hanover, was in charge, and the session took place in the Royal Inn. A very fine demonstration on plastic surgery was given by Mr. E. D. Cross of Hamilton. The gathering repaired to the dining hall, where a banquet was held. Father McCreamon of Drayton offered grace, and His Worship Mayor Fawcett extended words of welcome. Following the dinner hour addresses were given by the retiring president, R. H. Richardson of Hanover; Preston Thompson of Aurora, president of the Ontario Funeral Directors; Mr. C. N. Greenwood of Stratford, chairman of the Ontario Embalmers Board; Mr. James O'Hagan secretary-treasurer of the Ontario Directors; Mr. N. J. Boyd of Mitchell, and Wm. Britton, Listowel. Delightful vocal solos were contributed by Mr. M. Penenaugh and Mr. Arthur Raymond of Owen Sound.

The following officers were elected: past president, R. H. Richardson of Hanover; president, A. J. Walker of Wingham; vice-president, Joseph Scarrow of Tara; secretary-treasurer M. Hulburt, Chatsworth; committee, Robert Wilson of Tiverton, George Watson of Priceville. The retiring president was accorded words of gratitude for his work during his two years' term.

GUELPH WINTER FAIR

On December 7 to 10 the 48th annual Ontario Provincial Winter Fair will be held in the city of Guelph. Prospects are that entries will exceed previous years. There has always been a particularly strong showing of horses, beef cattle, sheep, swine and poultry at the Guelph Winter Fair, and this year will be no exception. At few fairs is there as keen competition in classes for market animals. The light horse show each evening will draw a capacity house. Coming at a time of year when the fallwork is completed, a record attendance should see the many entries and follow the judging this year.

REEVE OF BENTINCK PROMINENT ASPIRANT FOR GREY WARDENSHIP

Mr. D. J. McDonald, reeve of the township of Bentinck, will be a prominent aspirant for the wardenship of Grey county—that is, if he is returned to office during the next week or two, either by acclamation or as the result of a possible election.

Bentinck township has not been honored with the wardenship for 49 years—the last incumbent being the late David McNichol.

We are informed that Mr. Louis Himmler, the genial reeve of Neustadt, is also a possible contestant for the wardenship.—Hanover Post.

While attending school in Collingwood, Miss Frances Eagles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eagles, was seized with a fainting spell, and it was later discovered that she had completely lost the sight of both eyes.
