THE undersigned having entirely REBUILT and ENLARGED the above extensive establishment, containing in all about three hundred and fifty rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.

WILLINGS
PURE COD LIVER OIL.

To the Medical Profession, and the Public in general, who heretofore have been in many instances imposed upon, by a spurious imitation of a valuable MEDICINE.

IN consequence of the want of a really Genuine article, to constrain the PURITY OF COD LIVER OIL, much to an ADULTERATED article from Gaspe, has been introduced into the Market, and sold as Genuine. Under these circumstances, and as the results are altogether dependent upon the character of the MANUFACTURER for the

PURITY OF THE ARTICLE,

I respectfully announce that I have appointed Mr. CHARLES BRENT, Apothecary & Chemist, Kingston, C. W. Sole Agent for the sale of my

PURE COD LIVER OIL,

For which Premiums were awarded at the late Exhibitions in Quebec and Montreal, and concerning which the Committee worthy to be in the Great Provincial Exhibition of 1851.

I beg to refer to the subjoined Certificate, from one of the most respectable Medical Practitioners in Quebec, and the first, and the only Medical Man, after perusing which, any further remarks would be superfluous.

[COPY.]

I, the Undersigned, Proprietor of the Gaspe Gazette, and one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for said District, Do state, on oath, that the Cod Liver Oil, consigned by me to Mr. Charles Brent, Apothecary & Chemist, of Kingston, has been prepared or manufactured by me, according to the best approved system, from

PHYSICIANS' TESTIMONY
SHOULD BE REGARDED BEFORE ALL OTHERS.

While it is well known that Physicians invariably and properly reject the administration and approval of medicines compounded by others than themselves, it would seem, (to the more reader of the numerous certificates of the virtues of Dr. Corbett's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla,) an enigma, that the oldest professors of Colleges, and the most distinguished Physicians and Chemists of the country, lend gladly their names, emphatically of Dr. Corbett's invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla.

But the facts are simply these, viz; the Formula is freely placed with them! It is no secret, mysterious remedy. It is a combination of the most active remedial medicinal agents, as approved by the dispensatories of Wood and Bache, Dr. Pereira, and Gray's Supplement, of London.

That this chemical and learned man, Prof. Augustus A. Hayes, State Assayer of Mass., says the combination "exhibits the virtues of some of the best of our native medicinal plants and roots, including an iodine compound."

Let the commonplace, the sufferer by deranged blood, and those of deranged systems, but read what physicians say:

Meredith Bridge, N. H., 1847.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used in my practice, for a few years past, the Compound Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla, prepared by the United Society of Shakers, and I consider it of great value in the treatment of diseases of the sanguinous and glandular systems, and many of those depraved conditions of the general health, termed morbid functions. I can recommend it to be superior to any preparation of Sarsaparilla now before the public. I would also recommend it to the profession as a perfect article, and one that will fully answer their expectations.

GEORGE W. GARLAND, M. D.

It is now several years since we first used the Compound Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla, prepared in the United Society of Shakers. We have found it a valuable medicine. Those cases in which its good influence has been most apparent, were in depraved constitutional habits, and chronic diseases of the skin. We recommend it with confidence to the profession.

W. C. CHASE, M. D., Portland, Me.

Sold by the following agents, EDWARD BRINLEY & Co., Boston, and their appointed agents.
