Monteith award

Brian Sells, maintenance carpenter [left], senior assistant superintendent Bill Hazelton and maintenance superintendent Lauri Koski proudly display the Ministry of Correctional Services' energy conservation award. The award for 1979-80 was won by the Monteith Correctional Centre, where the three men are employed.

MRS. ARTHUR BELHUMEUR looks on with pride as her husband receives the Ontario Provincial Police commissioner's citation from deputy commissioner

Ken Grice. Belhumeur was awarded the citation for his help in capturing an armed man wanted for a series of cottage break-ins in the Matheson area. He assisted Matheson OPP Const. R. V. Lamb tracking the suspect through bush and patrolled the area until the suspect was arrested. Two weeks after the incident, Belhumeur suffered a heart attack and is still recuperating. The award was presented Friday during a special ceremony at the Porcupine Inn.
