MAGAZINES FOR MARCH!

JUST RECEIVED by Express, and for sale at the City Book Store:—

Harper's Magazine for March—a brilliant number, opening with Thompson's "Spring," with numerous and beautiful illustrations. The selections from European publications are made with the same good judgement as has distinguished former numbers, and extracts from works not yet published, arrange the interest and variety of the leading matter. "Punch" with illustrations, contributes characteristics to the present number, and fashions and fashionable gossip bring up the rear."

The International Magazine for March—this is an excellent number in every respect, and indicates unflagging energy on the part of the publishers. The articles are admirable, and the Editor's original articles eminently instructive. The present number, too, has a historical review of the events of the month, prepared with great tact and judgement. This new feature adds to the already great and substantial excellence of the "International."

AMERICAN HOUSE,
HANOVER STREET, BOSTON.

THE undersigned having entirely Renovated and Enlarged the above extensive establishment, containing in all about three hundred and fifty rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.

An extended notice of the unsurpassed convenience of this House is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be properly given in an advertisement. Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apartment perfect.

The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost, and certain portions of it, especially the Drawing-rooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The Dining-rooms are capacious, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the Proprietor pledges himself that the American House shall be truly the Traveller's Home.
