DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

LAMBTON HOUSE, PRINCESS ST.

DAGUERREOTYPE PICTURES Executed not run low sun or £0 6 3d. Pictures taken at this establishment are pronounced by the most competent judges to be far superior to any ever before executed in Kingston, while they stand unrivalled for depth of Tone and softness of Light and Shade.

All Miniatures taken at this establishment will be finished in the higher perfection of the Art; and no person will be required to take pictures without they are perfectly satisfactory to themselves and friends. As this Gallery will close in a few weeks, the Subscriber has reduced his Prices as low as to come within every person's reach.—Delay not then, to secure one of the faithful echoes, which, under the trying circumstances of a final separation from friends, no price can ever purchase.

LONDON ILLUSTRATED SCHOOL BOOKS.

JUST received and for sale at the City Book Store, Market Square, Kingston:—

THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON SPELLING BOOK:

This work is rendered particularly attractive by the easy arrangement of the spelling, which smoothes all difficulties experienced by beginners, and by the pleasing original reading lessons, which entice the learner to advance of his own accord; while the whole is illustrated by upwards of one hundred and seventy beautiful wood-cuts of objects and scenes described, forming by far the most alluring introduction to learning ever published.

THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON READING BOOK:

Companion to the London Spelling Book—containing a series of Lessons on the most amusing and instructive subjects, selected with great care from the best English Authors, in Prose and Verse. The whole beautifully illustrated with above two hundred and fifty engravings.

THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON INSTRUCTOR:

Being a companion to the Reading Book; designed for a more advanced class of students, and consisting of extracts from English classical authors, from the earliest periods of English literature to the present day, with a copious introductory Chapter on the Arts of Elocution and Composition. The latter includes examples of style chosen from the beauties of the best authors, and points out by similar examples the faults to be avoided by all who desire to become, not simply good readers and speakers, but elegant writers of their native language.

THE MANSION HOUSE PICTON.

BY R. LEACH,

(LATE S. R. SHAW.)

S. R. SHAW, in retiring from the "Mansion House," begs to tender his sincere thanks to the Public for their very liberal support during his connection with the House, and would cordially recommend a continuation of the patronage so liberally bestowed upon him to be extended to his successor.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the public that he has leased the Tavern Stand—known as the "Mansion House," and the extensive premises attached thereto, lately occupied by S. R. Shaw, where he will be glad to receive all old friends, and patrons of the House, under his predecessor, and the public generally. He trusts by close application to the wants of his guests—by using every exertion to contribute to their comfort, the Mansion House will deserve and continue to receive a large share of public patronage.

There is an extensive yard—and large and commodious sheds and stabling on the premises, where the farmer and traveller will at all times find ample accommodation for horses and carriages. Attentive ostlers always in attendance.

A Carriage will at all times, during the season of Navigation, be in waiting at the boats, to convey passengers from the boats, and also to convey them from the house to the boats.

AMERICAN HOUSE, HANOVER STREET, BOSTON.

THE undersigned having entirely REBUILT and ENLARGED the above extensive establishment, containing in all about three hundred and fifty rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.

An extended notice of the unsurpassed conveniences of this House is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be properly given in an advertisement. Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apartment perfect.

The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost, and certain portions of it, especially the Drawing-rooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The Dining-rooms are capacious, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the Proprietor pledges himself that the American House shall be truly the Traveller's Home.
