PRICEVILLE

On Wednesday night a presentation was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Aldcorn in honor of Mr. and Mrs. N. Vicq (nee Berta Aldcorn,) who were recently married. A large crowd was present and a most pleasant evening was spent in card playing and dancing. Excellent music was supplied by Messrs. Leonard McKeown, Earl Brown, Wm. McMillan and Bert Watson on violins and Misses Alice Reiley and Beatrice Watters, Mrs. Wm. McMillan and Neil McKinnon at the piano. At an appropriate hour Mr. Wm. McBride called the gathering to order and spoke a few words to all. Mr. and Mrs. Vicq were asked to come forward, when a complimentary address was read by Mrs. A. L. Hincks and a purse of money was presented by Miss Mary McKinnon. Mr. Vicq on behalf of himself and his wife made a suitable reply and kindly thanked all for their gift. Berta was a favorite with everyone here and her smiling face and winning ways made for her many friends. She has been Supt. in a hospital in Brampton for some time. Lunch was then served and all enjoyed themselves again in dancing until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Vicq left on Thursday for their home in Regina, Sask. Good wishes from their many friends here follow them for a long and happy life together.

Mrs. Albert Stewart has returned from visiting friends at Delhi.

Mr. Wilfred Teeter and family have moved from this line and are now living on the farm, near Maxwell, formerly owned by the late Mr. Stork.

PORTLAW

(Intended for Last Week)

The death of Mr. Alex. Brown, which occurred on Friday last, came as a shock to his friends. Although in failing health for about two years, he was about his work as usual up to the day of his passing, which came suddenly while sitting in his chair. Deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown, pioneers of the South line and was born on the adjoining farm. The funeral took place on Sunday to Mount Zion cemetery, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Pope, officiating, and preaching a sermon of solace to the bereaved widow and other relatives. Mrs. Brown has the sympathy of the community in her sore bereavement.

Miss Iva McNally has gone to Baysville to visit her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) R. Dingwall, who is ill.

Word was received by the family that Mrs. Francis Shires, who has been in Toronto for treatment had taken an unfavorable turn. Members of the family have gone down to see her.

Mrs. J. H. Watson received word by wire that her father, Mr. Edward Ross of near Sault Ste. Marie, was very ill. Mr. Ross left this part a number of years ago. He was a man of fine principle and was always active in church and Sunday school work for many years here.

Mr. Clarence Alexander of Flesherton was a caller on the Kaitting family on Sunday.

Mr. Fred Plantt and children, Bernice and Chester, of Wareham visited the former's father, Mr. Robt. Plantt, Sunday.

Mr. Thos. Fenwick spent the first of the week in Toronto.

Mr. H. Tudor has been visiting in Toronto the past week.

SCHOOL FAIRS

School Fairs are being continued throughout Ontario by the Ontario Department of Agriculture. This spring, however, the pupils of the rural schools will not receive seeds as they have formerly and special judges will not be provided, but the Department expects School Fairs to be carried on much the same as in the past. The agricultural Representatives, therefore will require the co-operation of various people to assist in planning any necessary changes and to assist with the judging at School Fairs.

FEVERSHAM

A pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wiley on Saturday evening last when a number of their friends and neighbors gathered to spend a social evening with them before they moved back to their old home at Nottawa village, and as a remembrance of their sojourn in Feversham for the last five or six years where Mr. Wiley has been Miller in the mill here, during the evening their friends of the Mill Company and the Agricultural society presented Mrs. Wiley with an electric clock and Mr. Wiley with a pair of woollen blankets, all wishing them health and happiness and all good wishes in their old home.

The Ladies Aid of the Pres. church here, met at the home of Mrs. G. Eby last week. They presented Mrs. Wiley with a china tea set and expressed all good wishes for her future health and happiness.
