PRICEVILLE

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. Colin McLean, who passed away on April 23rd in the Western hospital, Toronto, where she had spent three weeks. Deceased was well known and highlyl respected throughout the community. She was of a kind and genial disposition and was 58 years of age.

The late Mrs. McLean was born on the 19th Con. of Proton, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ferguson. On June 26th, 1901, she was married to Mr. McLean, who survives, along with two daughters, Mrs. Neil Norman (Esther) of Dundalk, Nellie and one son, Alroy, both of Toronto. She also leaves to mourn her loss one brother and three sisters Sarah and John on the old homestead, Molly and Mrs. Fred Runciman (Katie) of Toronto.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at her late residence which was filled to overflowing with sympathetic friends, who came to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of one who held the high esteem and regard of the community. The pastor, Rev. Snider of Dundalk, preacheu an impressive sermon to the friends and three favorite hymns of the deceased were sung. Many beautiful floral tributes bore silent messages of love and were carried by a number of young ladies. Among them were wreaths and sprays from the Co-operative store, Dundalk, Y. W. A. of Chalmer's Church, Toronto, Teachers' Association of Chalmer's Church, Toronto.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Runciman, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. Ibbitson, Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. Salter, Chas. McLean and Gorire McTaggart, all of Toronto, Mr. John McGillivary and Wm. Peterman of Woodbridge Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ferguson and Miss McLellan of Harirston, Mr. and Mrs. Colin McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ferguson of Holstein, besides a number of the friends from Durham, Dundalk and Proton Station. Sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing friends.

It was with deep regret that we learned of the death of Mrs. Annie McEachern, who passed away at her home in Priceville on Tuesday morning. Deceased had not been well for some time, but was up and around the week previous to her death. She had been troubled with her heart and stomach and her death came as a great shock to her friends, as she had eaten a hearty breakfast, but passed away shortly afterwards. She was born on the South Line on the South Line on the farm owned by her farm owned by her son, Hector.

Deceased was in her 74th year and leaves to mourn four sons and two daughters: Angus in Cleveland, Alex. of Toronto, John of Durham, Hector on the South Line, Mrs. Norman McIntyre, South Line, and Mary at home.

Mrs. McEachern was of a kindly disposition and held in the highest regard by all who knew her. The funeral was held on Thursday in the Presbyterian church and was very largely attended. Rev. Armstrong of Durham conducted the service and preacheu a comforting message to the bereaved from Mark 8:14, "She has done what she could." The choir rendered an anthem "Heaven seems nearer." The pallbearers were Allan McLean, Colin H. McLean Colin A. McLean, Hermie McLean, Ray McLean Hector McLean. The casket was covered with floral tributes which were carried by four granddaughters, Misses Annie Mae McIntyre, Florence, Sadie and Mary McEachern. Those who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr and Mrs. Jim Whiteside, Mr. Rod Whiteside, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Prentice of Collingwood, Miss Sarah McDonald, Hugh and Archie of Bentinck and Mrs. McQuarrie of Bentinck Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McEachern, Mrs. Salter, Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. Kortz, Chas. McLean and Gorrie McTaggart of Toronto. Sincere sympathy is extended all the sorrowing ones.

On the sidewalks of Eugenia

You can view the horseshoe game,
Pitching horseshoes up so high,
Knocking glass from the window frame.

On the sidewalks of Eugenia,
They will guess who were these men,-
Was it Charlie, Joe or Ken?
Was it Ronald, Jack or Glen?
