EDITORIAL NOTES.

There is nothing like soap, it has been well said. The estate of the late Lord Leverhulme, of "Sunlight" fame, has turned out so well that his trustees have been able to pay over a large sum as scholarships for the London school of Economics.

The advantages of Thursday as the weekly half-holiday is being recognized, Palmerston falling in line this year. Like Flesherton, they will keep open two nights a week—Wednesday and Saturday—to accommodate the public.

The Norwood Register, published by J. G. Keefer & Son for the past 39 years, has been sold to Mark W. Bailey of Jaspar, Ont. J. G. is an old Flesherton boy who made good in the newspaper game and we are sorry to see him retire, but the high standing of The Register will no doubt be kept up by the new editor.

John Masefield, the well-known author, commenting on the prevailing depression in business, asserts that people have been asking too much from life, demanding greater wealth than life, ought to offer. The author is probably right. There is the added trouble that many persons are not contented with demanding more wealth from their fellows but resort to all kinds of expedients—mainly crooked—to beat their fellows out of their hard won earnings. It is this lack of contentment with little that brings about the crashes in business and the downfall of the adventurous and unscrupulus manipulators. It is true that some of these gentry are punished by imprisonment, but far too many manage to escape while a crisis prevails, always ready to resume their nefarious trickery when good times come around the corner.

Sir Henry Drayton has given up the chairmanship of the Provincial Commission for the sale of liquor in the province of Ontario and Mr. McCleneghan, formerly of Ottawa, who has been an assistant, has been placed at the head of the organization. One of the last pronouncements of the retiring chairman was that there are a number of government depots for the sale and distribution of liquor in the province that are operated at a loss, though a large sum is obtained from sales in other places. If this is so why should the unprofitable depots be maintained? The ordinary business man would speedily close up the non-paying stores, but these government agents are not men of business principles, but to make it easy to sell and distribute intoxicating liquor to those, who in these hard times cannot afford to waste their money.

Old Osprey Resident Passes In The West

Mr. Wm. Duncan of Armstrong, B. C., a former resident of Osprey township, and a reader of The Advance for a great many years, passed away at his home in the West on April 17th. The late Mr. Duncan resided on lot 7, 10th Line, Osprey. for many years He served as President of the Osprey Agricultural Society and also as a director of the Osprey Milling Company and was a highly respected citizen. Mr. George Lawlor of Maxwell is a brother-in-law of the deceased. The following is the report as taken from the Armsrtong Advertiser:

At the ripe old age of almost four score years, the death occurred, at his farm home one mile north of Armstrong on Sunday, April 17th, of Mr. William Duncan. His death was the direct result of a stroke which he suffered ten days before when at his work as usual, and on that day he had partaken of his usual hearty noon-day meal. From this stroke he never fully regained consciousness, although at times he was able to recognize the family.

The late Mr. Duncan was born in Mulmur township, Dufferin County, on July 17th, 1854. When but a lad he moved with his parents to Osprey Township in Grey County, where he resided until coming West, and settled in Armstrong in 1911. He lived a quiet life and though keenly interested took no part in public affairs. A successful farmer, he was held in the highest esteem and respect by all who knew him. He was married twice, his first wife, Caroline Hanley, predeceasing him over forty years ago. Later he married Martha Lawlor, also of Grey County, who survives him.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. F. G. Bannister of Winnipeg, Man., and one son, Robt. J. Duncan, at home; also one brother living in Collingwood, Ont., one sister in Erie, Pennsylvania, and another sister in Seattle, Wash.

Mr. Duncan's death makes the first break in that family of two brothers and two sisters.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from Zion United Church, interment taking place in Armstrong Cemetery.—Armstrong Advertiser.

Two Midland young men were recently attacked by a muskrat near the high school, and one was bitten on the leg.

F. H. S. Oratory

The annual oratorical contest of the Flesherton high school was held on Thursday afternoon last at 4 p.m., when splendid addresses were given by the various pupils of the school. Mr. R. G. Holland officiated as judge and before giving his decision spoke on the advantages enjoyed under the present educational standards. He pointed out that learning to deliver a public address was an oustanding privilege, and that even the beginners had made a great step forward. Herb Aikens, who spoke on "Mahatma Ghandi" was awarded first place with Irene Martin a very close second, speaking on "Disarmament." The former was given the honor of speaking at Owen Sound the following evening, while the latter will represent the school in Miss Macphail's contest on Saturday next. A silver medal was awarded to Monica Lambert for her fine treatment of "Soviet Russia" and fourth and fifth place honors were won by Earl Johnston and Marion Shaw respectively.

County School Oratory

Jas. Hurley, an Owen Sound Collegiate Institute student, took first place in the oratorical contest in Owen Sound on Friday evening last to win the Daily Star trophy. Miss Margaret Donovan of Chatsworth took second prize, while James Palmer of Dundalk was third. Milton Hunt of Allenford and Herbert Akins of Flesherton were also in the contest Herb won the cup last year The judges were W. S. Middlebro, K.C., of Owen Sound, A. B. Gardiner of Meaford and Rev. J. V. Mills of Wiarton. Mr. S. Thibaudeau, principal of the Flesherton school, presented the cup to the winner.

While our own representative, Herb Akins failed to place in the competition this year he was far from disgraced, as his address was a real oratorical effort for the simple reason that he did not write his speech out and memorize it, but set down headings and spoke from them. A report appeared that Herb hesitated at several places in the speech, which counted against him, but this was altogether to his credit, considering the circumstances and he will gain more experience and sureness by his his attempts to speak without committing his speech to memory.

H. S. Public Speaking

The public speaking contest for High School students of Southeast Grey will be held in the auditorium of Flesherton High School on Saturday, May 7th, at 2.30 p.m. The subjects admitted are as follows:

1. Incidents from Pioneer days in Grey County.
2. The Desirability of a Sports meet for the High Schools in the County.
3. Free Speech as a National Bulwark.
4. The World's Disarmament Conference.

The speaking will be interspersed with musical numbers. Everybody welcome. A good audience will help the young orators greatly.

—A. C. MACPHAIL

Man in Philadelphia regained his memory after a lapse of 11 years, and the first thing he did was post the letters he had been carrying in his pocket.

Jas. Radley Passes

Just as we go to press this Wednesday morning we learn of the death of Mr. Jas. Ernest Radley of Osprey township at his home on Tuesday night, at the age of 63 years. The funeral will take place on Friday, May 6th, with service in the Maxwell United Church at 2:30 p.m., with the interment to take place in the family plot in the Maxwell cemetery.

JOS. SUTTON, NATIVE OF SYDENHAM TWP. PASSES

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. S. Sutton of town in the loss of his father by death on Saturday in Owen Sound at the age of 75 years. His wife had predeceased him about 15 years ago. He leaves to mourn his passing three sons Arthur and Bert of the townline of St. Vincent and Sydenham, Stephen of Flesherton and one daughter, Mrs. Chas. Keeling of Bognor. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, a number from town attending.

Dundalk Won Debate

The final debate in Group No. 1 in the Young People's Series in Grey Presbytery of the United Church, was held in St. John's United Church on Friday evening last, between teams representing Dundalk and Kimberley Young People's Societies, and won by the former by a narrow margin.

The subject of the debate was resolved "that further steps toward disarmament should be taken immediately by the leading nations of the world." Miss Dinsmore and Miss Opal Weber of Kimberley upheld the affirmative and Misses Margaret Russell and Ruby Fell of Dundalk supported the negative.

The judges were Mrs. (Rev.) Scott and Miss Grey of Flesherton and Miss Armstrong of Meaford and their decision was two to one in favor of the negative. Both teams did exceptionally well and brought forward some strong arguments. Mr. Howard Graham, County convenor, presided.

BOBBIE WILEY, AGED 3, DIES FROM DIPHTHERIA

Little Bobbie Wiley, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wiley of Owen Sound, formerly of Flesherton, died at his home on Sunday afternoon last, suffering from diphtheria. Mrs. Wiley was formerly Miss Olive Mathewson, daughter of Mr. Fred Mathewson of town. The funeral took place on Monday morning, interment being made in Flesherton cemetery. Much sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Wiley in the grief that has come to their home.
