FEVERSHAM

Visitors over the holiday with Mr and Mrs. Eby were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White of Hensal, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Eby of Collingwood and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Forsythe of Owen Sound.

Mr. Lawson of Owen Sound was a caller in this village on Monday.

Mr. Shannon, the Presbyterian minister here, stopped his car in front of Mr. Chris Thomson's residence on the slanting street, leaving the engine running. The vibration started the car down the grade when it came to a stop in the mud at the edge of the river on the south side of the bridge leading to the fair grounds. The car was pulled out with horses and all was well; no damage done. On its way down the hill it missed a large rock by inches.

Mr. Milton Nichol caught a trout on the 24th that measured 15½ inches in length and weighed 1½ pounds.

A work shop on the farm of Mr. James Long, here, nearly went up in smoke on Friday last. Mr. Long had been using the forge a short time previous before the fire was noticed. The fire was first noticed on the roof and help soon arrived and the fire was extinguished. The damage was small.

While speckled trout seem to be scarce in the river this spring, Master Billie Burk caught the largest one landed here that we have heard of. It measured 18 inches long and weighed two pounds nine ounces. Billie's line broke just as he landed the beauty and he ran and sat on him. A good way to hold him down, wasn't it Billie? Well, you got him, anyway.

Miss Dorothy Robinson, who is employed with the Underwood Typewriter Co. in Toronto, was home for the week end.

Mrs. Albert Hanley of Toronto, has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Thos. Cooper, who has been ill, and other friends here, returned to her home in Toronto on Sunday.

Our Continuation School boys journeyed to Singhampton to play ball with the school boys of that village and our lads were handed a bad beating. We understand the score was 35to 5 in favor of Singhampton. Get practising boys, and better luck next time.

Rev. Mr. Dean of the Gospel Workers' church preached a very interesting sermon on Sunday morning from the text: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." The Misses Betts of Rock Mills sang a duet very sweetly.

McFARQUHAR — CARSON

An interesting wedding was solemnized in the Danforth Ave. Baptist church last week, when Violet May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armour Carson, Linsmore Cresc., became the bride of Mr. Ernest Frank McFarquhar, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McFarquhar, the Rev. Daniel Young performing the ceremony, with Mr. Evans at the organ. Miss Hilda Duffy sang a wedding hymn. Palms, ferns and spring flowers decorated the church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedidng gown of angel-skin lace made princess style, with tulle bridal veil caught at the head with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried calla lillies.

The bride had two attendants, Miss Lillian Carson, her sister, in a becoming frock of yellow embroidered net, and Mrs. Cliff Oakley in pale green embroidered net. They wore lace hats to match their frocks, the former carrying yellow roses and the latter pink roses. Miss Shirley Oakley made a picturesque flower girl in her long period frock, a succession of quaint pink frills and carrying a nosegay of roses, lillies of the valley and sweet peas. Mr. Dalton Armstrong was best man.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Carson wearing a smart beige lace dress with matching velvet coat and lace hat in the same beige shade. Her flowers were roses. Mrs. McFarquhar was attired in beige lace and georgette with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and roses. The house was attractive with spring flowers.

Later the bride and groom left for Montreal and Quebec, the bride travelling in a lighter-than-navy coat, trimmed with silver fox, a dress of the same shade of blue and gray and matching blue and gray ribbon hat. On their return they will reside on Norwood Rd., Toronto.

Wants An Explanation

A LETTER TO THE ADVANCE

Mr. Editor:—Might I be allowed a little of your valuable space to write an open letter to the members of the High School Board regarding their recent drastic action, which, despite their apparent efforts at concealment has at last become known to the public.

On every hand throughout the village and township I have heard only severe and uncomplimentary criticism of the measures and methods employed by the Trustees and I feel, Sirs, that it is only fair to both Staff and Board that I make this rumble of public opinion articulate and that I ask you to call a public meeting at which teachers, trustees and ratepayers may meet and have the whole situation explained. Surely, no body of intelligent men would do what you have done without just and sufficient cause, therefore, it seems to me to be to your own best interests to call such a meeting where all sides of the question may be properly explained.

This is neither the first nor the second time that this Board has acted in such a high-handed and arbitrary manner and we, as ratepayers, seem to have absolutely no control of them, either by word or vote. I would, therefore, beg that when such a meeting is called every intelligent and interested citizen consider it his duty to attend and hear this whole matter aired.

I beg from the Board immediate response to this request and thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I remain,

—FAIR MINDED.

THE FARMER FIGURES

A Carrick farmer got off a good joke the other day, when he announced that he had made $40 that morning. That was a pretty good statement, in these hard times, and he was pressed to reveal the secret of his phenomenal success. "Well," said he, "my sow had ten pigs this morning and they all died." The inference was that if he had to finish them for market he would have lost that amount of money.—The Mildmay Gazette.
