The Flesherton Advance.

Vol. 52, No. 2 | Flesherton, Ontario, June 8, 1932 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

CEYLON

Mr. Angus Whittaker, who spent the winter in Toronto, returned to Ceylon the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cairns, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns and Mr. Frank Cairns Sr. motored to Alliston the past week on a business trip

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith and Mr and Mrs. Winters and Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair and family, all of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldwyn McMullen and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Whalen of Toronto visited the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. McMullen and Mrs. Ellen McMullen.

Miss Mabel Moore, R.N., of Durham has been visiting Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., and Mrs. Sinclair for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Jackson of Dundas, Mr. F. Foster of Hamilton, Mrs. S. R. Beatty and daughter, Phylis of Madoc were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. D. McLeod. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. Buckley and Mr. and Mrs. A. McMullen of Toronto.

Visitors over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Arrowsmith were: Dr. Thos. McCrae and Miss Mildred Colehouse of Dundas, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ismond and son, Douglas, of Norval.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hill, Mrs. Jas Hill and granddaughter, Bella, of Osprey visited with Mrs. Bolton the first of the week.

Mrs. Thos. Genoe received a message on Monday morning that her sister-in-law, Mrs. Isaac H. Turner, of Winnipeg had passed away very suddenly at her home on Saturday. No other particulars have been received. She was formerly Margaret Rutledge of Flesherton, where she was widely known. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband and three daughters and one son, to whom deepest sympathy is extended in their hour of sudden bereavement.

A very pleasant event took place at the parsonage on June 1st at 2 p m., when Rev. W. J. Scott united in marriage Miss Emily Saunders of Toronto and Mr. Thos. Fletcher of this village, the only attendants being Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Beatty of Orange Valley, who took the happy couple for a motor trip and later served the wedding dinner at their home. Hearty congratulations are extended from this community and their friends.

The executors of the late Henry Stone Estate, Messrs. Jas. L. McMullen and S. Hemphill, held a very successful auction sale of house and lot and household effects on Saturday afternoon. Mr. W. Kaitting was the auctioneer. The property was purchased by Mr. Jas. Irving of the East Backline, Artemesia, for his daughter, lately from the West.

We understand that Mr. Earl McLeod paid a business trip to Hamilton the past week.

Miss Florence Fee, a returned missionary on furlough, will have charge of the services next Sabbath. Miss Fee is a very interesting speaker. We hope for a large congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin McMullen and Mr. and Mrs. W. Buckley of Toronto paid a short visit the first of the week with their father, Mr. Jas. L McMullen.

PROTON STATION

Visitors in and around Proton Station over the holiday and week end were: Mr. and Mrs. McGlashen of Toronto at Mr. Joseph Badgerow's; Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McNichol and daughter, Helen, of Toronto and Miss Gertrude Lyons at the home of Chas Lyons; Misses Marjorie and Roberta Acheson of Toronto at R. G. Acheson's Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lockhart with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rowden of Goderich with Mrs. Lockhart's mother, Mrs. Corbett; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton of Toronto at Dever's.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr Thos. Wauchope were Mr. and Mrs. Haroldl Thompson and baby, Kenneth of Dobbinton, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wauchope and baby daughter and Mrs Tremp and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Moore of Flesherton.

When Mrs. Ed. Stinson of Proton Station and her mother, Mrs. W. Ludlow, were driving on the highway their horse took fright at a truck and upset them into the ditch. Mrs Ludlow received some injuries, which necessitated calling a doctor. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Rev. Thos. Hicks, rector of Wiarton and a native of Hatherton, 3rd line, Osprey, will preach in Trinity Anglican church at 3 p.m., Sunday June 12th. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends of the church to attend.

SPECIAL — Hot Dogs 5c each this week at Oriole Service Station, formerly Brack's Service Station.

KIMBERLEY

Are you looking for a beauty spot? Come to the Beaver Valley. It is beautiful.

We are glad to report Mrs. W. T Ellis able to be home again from the Collingwood hospital and is feeling fine. Mr. Morley Abercrombie of Vancouver is still living and somewhat improved.

Mr. Charles Thompson of Orangeville is spending a few days in this village.

Mr. Stan Lawrence of the H.E.P.C. is home for a holiday.

The Third of June passed off in the usual way in Kimberley with a celebration by the W. I. The saftball game was won by the Clarksburg and Pimberley won from Dundalk in a baseball game. Football resulted in a win from Feversham by Kimberley, both games being especially good. A play was given by Riverview at the concert at night and was more than ordinarily good, all knowing and taking their parts well. About $150 was taken in and the day ended with a full-house dance.

Mrs. Thos. Abercrombie returned to her home in Kimberley, after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Ferrier, at Barrie.

Mrs. A. F. Hammond and Estelle returned home to Toronto Sunday

Miss Bessie Stafford spent the week end at her home here.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. John Walton is not very well. He is in the Markdale hospital. Mr. Wm. Stafford is also bedfast at present.

Mrs. McLaughlin and family of Hamilton and Mrs. Flavin and children of Toronto are occupying the parsonage.

Mr. W. Turner has purchased the farm of Mr. Ross Hutchinson and will move to it about the first of July. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Turner and family.

A number of men and trucks have been busy gravelling about four miles of the road from Mr. H. Walton's northward.

Mr. Kendrick, teacher in Toronto Normal School, accompanied Mr Harold Thompson on a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. Grieves.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rowden and Muriel of Clinton paid a flying visit in our vicinity over the week end.

Week end visitors at the Bannon homes were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clayton of Toronto, Delbert, Lorena and George Bannon of Dundalk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Stinson and children visited at Laurel.

Mr. Chas. Moore visited at Alliston

George Ludlow has had the flu and was under the doctor's care, but is well again.

The W.C.T.U. held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Acheson, Proton Station, on May 31st, when the officers of the past year were re-elected. The Sec.-Treas. gave a good report of the work accomplished in the past year. A donation of $1.00 by a friend a year ago, being invested in quilt patches, has made $3.48, with material enough on hand for another quilt. A few more friends like this would help the budget fund. Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher has established a record hard to beat, as she has never missed a meeting in the seven years of the Society's organization.

MAXWELL

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morrison and two daughters visited on Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. Angus Morrison and son, Andrew, motored to Toronto and are visiting relatives there.

Miss Ella Morrison visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Morrison, near Walkerton.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. E. Buckingham on June 2nd and it was decided to change the date of the garden party from June 24th to July 6th.

Our minister, Rev. A. M. Pope, exchanged services on Sunday with Rev. Bartlett of Priceville. We enjoyed having Mr. Bartlett with us very much.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMIESON— In fond remembrance of a loving husband and father Alvin N. Jamieson, who passed suddenly while visiting in Owen Sound, May 31st, 1931.

Sadly missed by wife and children, Marjorie, Billy, Jimmie and Charles.

Jack Gibbons of Meaford is the possessor of a $2 Bank of Brantford bill dated 1859. The bank has long been out of existence.

EUGENIA

There are many visitors to our little village these days.

Mrs. (Dr.) Little has returned to her home here after a visit with friends in Owen Sound.

Mrs. Oscar Erickson of New Jersey who attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Roy, visited old friends in Eugenia one day last week. She returned to her home in New Jersey a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Parker of Orangeville and the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. E. J. Ellis and Miss Bessie, visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pedlar and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McMullen of Meaford and niece, Miss Blanche Hammond of Kimberley, visited with Mrs. M. McMullen on Sunday.

Mrs. J. E. Williams and daughter, Mrs. Henry Tudor and family and Mr. Norman Williams visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Russell at Rock Mills.

Mr. Robt. Plantt visited the first of the week with his son, Fred, and family at Wareham.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Smith of Owen Sound visited the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Williams at "Fairview Villa."

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell and son, Billie, of Toronto visited with friends here for a few days recentlyl

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Quesnel and family of Owen Sound visited Sunday with Mr. Joseph Sherwood. Their new baby, Kenneth Sherwood Quesnel, is two months old and doing fine.

Some people like to hear the song, "Listen to the Mocking Bird," but we have two gentlemen in our village who like to listen to the "Nightingale."

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Purvis visited the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Linton, Wareham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shortt and family, accompanied by Mr. Shortt's sisters, the Misses Nellie and Lois, visited with the former's sister, Mrs. Earl Hewgill, and husband at Thornbury recently.

Mr. C. Neil, the energetic insurance agent from Heathcote, accompanied by Mr. Prentice, visited in Eugenia on Sunday. Cliff has a sort of hankering for the 8th line; there must be some attraction there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Clinton and the former's sisters, Misses Irene and Eugenia Clinton, of Toronto and Mr. Bretherton visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Magee and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hanley.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs Will Semple, 12th line, and Mr. Roy MacMillan of Markdale in the loss of their father, who died a few days ago.

Mrs. Thomas Fenwick and daughter, Elnora, are spending a week with friends in Paisley.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham of Walkerton visited with Mr. and Mrs Stanley Campbell and other relatives here.

Mr. Donald MacDonald attended the funeral of his uncle, Mr. D. MacDonald, in Dundalk on June 2nd. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

We are very sorry to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Isaac Turner of Winnipeg. She passed away on June 5th. The cause of death was due to a paralytic stroke. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives of the deceased.

Mr. Will Magee spent a few days at Hamilton recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Court Smith and family of Feversham spent Sunday at Mr. Will Magee's.

Mr. Bert Magee visited in Toronto for a few days. He accompanied Mr. Reasor to Toronto via Barrie, and had an anjoyable trip.

Mr. Blakey of Portlaw is assisting Mr. B. Magee in renovating the house which the latter purchased at the island.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor and family visited at Kimberley recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Magee and daughters, Christina and Lillian, visited with Mrs. Magee's aunt, Mrs. MacMillan at Priceville on Sunday.

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless His name."—Psalm 100:4.

PRICEVILLE

Friends in this village and surrounding district will learn with deep regret of the passing of Miss Katie Baxter, death coming very suddenly when she took a weak spell while on her way home and fell near her residence at 60 Sherbourne St., Toronto She was picked up and was able to give the number of her house, where she lived. It was thought that she had taken a stroke. Deceased was 60 years of age and was born two and a half miles north of Priceville, across the road from the farm of Mr. David Hinds, where she used to spend her holidays in the summer.

Surviving are her two sisters, Sarah (Mrs. Manson) of Toronto and Margaret (Mrs. Tetlow) of Hamilton. She was of a kind and genial disposition and was much liked by everyone.

The funeral was held in Priceville on Wednesday with service in the Presbyterian church. A short service had been held at the home of her sister in Toronto. The church was well filled with sympathetic friends who came to pay their last respects to one who held the high esteem of the entire community. Rev. T. O. Miller of Markdale preached a comforting sermon from Psalm 90:12, "So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." Hymns, "Lead Kindly Light," "The Sands of Time are Sinking" and "My Faith Looks up to Thee."

The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. Manson, John Manson, C. Wallace, D. Wallace, Peter Ferguson.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. Scobie, Mrs. Mervyn Baxter, Mrs. McColeman Mrs. Richard Baxter, all of Collingwood, Mrs. Peter Baxter and son John, Mrs. Annie McPherson, Mrs Sarah McPherson and Miss Falconer all of Caledon, Mrs. Tetlow of Hamilton, Miss Eva Tetlow, Mrs. Gordon McElhennie, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Manson, John Manson and Marjorie, P. A. Ferguson and Dan Baxter, all of Toronto, Messrs. C. Wallace and D Wallace and Mr. Rufus, al of Detroit Mrs. Betsy Osborne, Flesherton.

Sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing friends and relatives.

The Swinton dark people presented their play, "The Poor Married Man," in the Agricultural Hall on Friday night, which proved very entertaining The cast incuded, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McLeod, Mrs. Walter Knox, Mrs Jim Sturrock, Miss Isabel McMillan Messrs. Arthur Richardson, Fred Knox and George Haw. Messrs. Bob Black at the piano, George Haw with the violin and Delbert Haw with the guitar furnished excellent music between acts, after which a bountiful lunch was served and the young people spent a couple of hours dancing. The proceeds were $23.
