BALANCING CHILD PRODUCTION

There is according to the Anglican Bishop of Algoma, danger of French Canadian domination, if the English-speaking people of Canada continue to have small families, while those of French antecedents continue to obey the injunction to be "fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth." We doubt if the fears of his reverence are well founded. Some years ago when the late Mr. Archibald Blue was census commissioner of Canada, he met similarly expressed alarm by a statistical inquiry into the growth of the respective peoples, which went to show that there was not much cause for alarm. It was demonstrated by the commissioner that the average French-speaking family of nine persons was no greater in number when the youngest had reached twenty than the average family of English-speakers, who numbered at the start of the count, four. The equality was brought about by greater infant mortality in the French-speaking families, and medical experts supplied the information that the lesser vitality of the more numerous infants was brought about, in large measure, by the burden imposed on the mothers, the weaker constitutions of the more numerous offsprings and in many cases by the inability of the parents in the larger families to provide all needed health-giving food and clothing during the tender years of their offspring.

There is, it would seem, a law of compensations operating in child-rearing as well as in other operations in the world's management and it may be that sometimes our clevical friends are needlessly alarmed.

A GEORGIAN BAY CHICAGO

We understand that Meaford has ambitions to become a second Chicago. Recently, when the Republican convention was welcomed to the Shindy City, Mayor Cermack was grieved to think that it was hinted there was liquor to be found in his burg. He assured the Republicans that the police would certainly not find any liquor in the city while they were there.

Last Saturday The Advance visited Meaford, and gathered the impression that Mayor Horsley seems to be aspiring to out-Cermack Cermack. Last week an orgy of drunkenness took place in Meaford, when a visiting party of some 100 men had a riotous day in that town. While it happened under the nose of the provincial constable located there, there were no arrests.

Not only this, but Mayor Horsley welcomed the visitors after they had been working their "bender" up to the proper pitch, and invited them back another year. The town band added to the "joy" of the occasion and at least one prominent temperance advocate also made an address of welcome to the visitors. The spree was continued on the bowling green until a late hour and Meaford beamed its welcome.

It is the winking at law and order which has given Chicago the name it has. And Meaford seems to feel that its Lake Michigan neighbor has the right idea. Perhaps it has, at that, if the authorities are determined that laws are made to be broken.

Ontario at last has a salt water port, but it isn't at Toronto. Moosonee on James Bay is the new port. It will however be a number of years yet before the port will be used by large boats.

Owing to the exceedingly dry weather the past few weeks many forest fires occurred in Northern Ontario that resulted in many square miles of forest being destroyed. The burning of brush in dry weather is exceedingly dangerous and extra precautions should be taken by the settlers. Camp fires not extinguished and carelessly thrown matches and cigars are also the cause of many forest fires.

The Collingwood shipyards were forced to close last week on account of the lack of orders and a petition has been sent to the Dominion Government for proper assistance or protection to this great Canadian industry. Other shipbuilding yards in Canada are in the same predicament owing to heavy competition from the British Isles. It appears as if aid will have to be given if this industry is to survive.

Many graduates of our universities will be unable to find employment in the particular lines of work which they have fitted themselves for and will be forced to find other channels of labor. It is regretable that their chosen fields will not absorb them, but they should be better fitted to take up work in any field they try and become a success in it. While a few years ago an Entrance certificate enabled a person to start life without a handicap; it is necessary now to have spent two or three years in high school in order to enjoy the same opportunities of successfully keeping pace with the advanced thought of the times.

FERGUSON — CAMPBELL

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Campbell of Maxwell, Ont., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, June the eighteenth, at three o'clock, when their daughter, Elsie Margaret, became the bride of Cecil Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs Samuel Ferguson, of Glen Huron, Ontario.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Shannon, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Feversham, under an arch decorated in pink and white with cut flowers. The wedding march was played by Professor Kyle.

The bride was prettily gowned in pink canton faille crepe and wore hat and shoes to match, carrying a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley and roses. Miss Myrtle Campbell, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of pale blue taffeta, under tulle lace with accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Archie Ferguson.

After the ceremony about thirty guests sat down to a very dainty wedding supper. Later in the afternoon the bridal couple left amid showers of confetti on a motor trip to Kincardine and other points, the bride's travelling costume being a green suit trimmed with leopard fur and hat to match, carrying the gift of the groom, a fancy beaded purse. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a very pretty necklace, and to the groomsman a set of gold cuff-lincks.

The good wishes of a host of friends were expressed by many beautiful gifts. Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Brethet of Bond Head, Mr. and Mrs. George Hannah of Holland Centre, Miss Elsie Ceaser of Chatsworth, also Miss Lavina Jones of London, Ont. On the return of the bride and groom they will reside on the groom's farm, near Dunedin.

W. M. S. Meeting

On Thursday last the W.M.S. met in St. John's church for the regular monthly meeting with Mrs. H. Down in the chair. "Take time to be holy" was sung, and Paul's Defence before king Agrippa was read and several led in prayer. "More love to thee Oh Christ," was sung and Mrs. T Bentham read the devotional leaflet "Paul the Man." Mrs. E. C. Murray gave a most excellent resume of "Korea the land of the Dawn." Discussion was held re raising money with a public meeting, which would be educative as well as missionary. Someone suggested that each member during July and August make a small thankoffering for pleasant times or for an agreeable holiday. Nineteen members and one visitor were present. Mrs. Scott closed the meeting with the benediction.

Maxwell Garden Party

The annual garden party of St. Mary's Anglican church, Maxwell, was held at the Orange Hall and grounds at Maxwell, on Thursday, June 16th, with a good attendance. The weather was ideal for the occasion. A sumptuous and bountiful supper was served by the ladies of the church on tables set outside on the grounds, and there were many good things to satisfy the appetites of hungry people. A baseball match was played between Maxwell and 8th line of Osprey in the field of Wm. Seeley, the Maxwell team coming out on top by a large score. The young people of Christ Anglican church, Markdale, rendered a humorous play entitled, "The Sky Riders." Rev. M. F. Oldham acted as chairman and rendered two piano instrumentals. Rev. Shannon, Presbyterian Minister, from Feversham and Rev. C. O. Pherril, Anglican Minister of Markdale, spoke briefly between acts. A fair amount of money was realized.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of Mrs. Henry Williams, who passed away June 21st, 1929.

Sweet memories dear mother of you.

Simcoe Reforesting

Those who have occasion to travel the Penetang Road between Hillsdale and Waverley cannot fail to be impressed by the big improvement made in the appearance of the country around Orr Lake as the result of the reforestation work carried on there under the auspices of the County of Simcoe. In this section over 1,000 acres have been purchased by the County and since 1928 about 75 men have been employed there at planting and have set out a total of one million, one hundred thousand trees. The annual plantings were as follows: 1928, 120,000; 1929, 350,000; 1930, 30,000; 1931, 300,000; 1932, 300,000. A plot of 16 acres has been planted with nine varieties of conifers to demonstrate to the public how the several kinds will thrive on light, sandy soil. Varieties in this plot are: Red pine, jack pine, Scotch pine, white pine, white spruce, Norway spruce, European larch, white cedar and red cedar.

This forest comes directly under the supervision of M. A. Adamson, superintendent of the Midhurst Forestry station. Trees at the Orr Lake station are almost wholly from Midhurst, which has the reputation of turning out nursery stock of excellent quality.

Simcoe county leads the province in reforestry work and the plantings between Hillsdale and Waverley have made a marked improvement already and will, in a few years, completely transform the appearance of that area.

Principal Not Leaving

A report from Thornbury in Tuesday's Sun-Times gives the statement that Mr. I. L. M. Merriam, principal of Flesherton Public School, had accepted a position on the staff of the Thornbury Continuation school. This report is not correct as Mr. Merriam is remaining in Flesherton for the next year. The Thornbury School Board advertised for a teacher, but without Mr. Merriam applying they communicated with him Saturday night for an interview and on Monday evening he visited the Board personally and declined the position owing to previous arrangements. We are very pleased that Mr. Merriam is remaining as he is very popular with the scholars and is also deriving satisfactory results from his pupils.

Decoration Day

About forty former members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force and 22 members of the local platoon of "D" Company, Grey Regiment, attended the Decoration Day services in Markdale on Sunday afternoon. They joined the I.O.F. and L.O.L. from that place in remembering those who died for liberty in foreign fields and the members of the various lodges in their last rest at home. The Owen Sound Legion Band rendered several sacred selections at the cemetery and also played for the marching. Sergt. Moon of Durham had charge of the local platoon.
