MRS. S. SHIER DIES; LIGHTNING HIT BARN

PORTLAW

Mrs. Francis Shier passed away on Monday morning, after a lengthy illness, which was patiently borne. Some months ago she was taken to Toronto for treatment, where she underwent an operation for internal cancer, but it was found impossible to stay the malady and she returned to her home in the spring, where she was tenderly cared for by members of her family. Deceased was a women of strong character and bore her suffering with great fortitude and resignation. Besides her aged husband who is now in a weak condition, she leaves a large grown-up family of sons and daughters, who will mourn an affectionate and devoted wife and mother. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan, pioneers of Artemesia. To her aged husband, her family and other relatives the sincere sympathy of the community is extended.

During the electric storm Friday evening last the barn of T. R. McKenzie was struck by lightning. The current struck the bale and passing down the stable killed one horse, almost another, rendered the other two deaf, while a fifth apparently escaped injury. Seven cows, in at the time, also escaped. The building was only slightly damaged. Alvin McKenzie and Robert Sheardown had just stabled their team and had them unharnessed and were standing close behind the horses that were struck down. They suffered a slight shock, but miraculously escaped serious injury.
