Summer wedding 1985

Mr. and Mrs. David Brown, both former residents of the Iroquois Falls area, were united in marriage this summer in Kirkland Lake.

Former area residents wed in Kirkland Lake

Susan Ann Plummer and David Brown were united in marriage this summer at St. Peter's on the Rock Anglican Church, Kirkland Lake. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Plummer, formerly of Monteith, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brown of Kirkland Lake.

The maid of honor was Carol Kilbreath of Kitchener while Dylite MacDougall of Englehart was the bridesmaid. The best man was Norman Brace while Louis Sandrin was an usher. Both are from Kirkland Lake.

The bride wore a long white gown with an empire waist and a sweetheart neckline. The peau de soie gown was fashioned with a lace bodice and long, lace sleeves.

The maid-of-honor and bridesmaid wore cocktail length dresses made of burgundy satin, fashioned with short sleeves and sweetheart necklines.

The groom wore a cocoa brown tuxedo while his attendants wore sandstone beige jackets and brown pants.

The mother of the bride wore a knee-length peacock blue dress while the groom's mother wore a a knee-length lilac dress.

The couple honeymooned in British Columbia.