PRICEVILLE

The induction of Rev. Mr. MacIvor to the Priceville and Swinton Park congregations took place in the Presbyterian church at Swinton Park last week, when a very large crowd was present from both congregations. The Moderator T. O. Miller of Markdale, conducted the opening exercises and cited the steps taken in calling a minister. Rev. Mr. Grant of Erin presented the usual questions as to belief, doctrines and loyalty, which were freely answered. The address to the congregation was given by Rev. Mr. Goodwill. He assured the congregation that the new incumbent was a good leader and a good shepherd. God expects the same attitude to his minister as to himself, as a king does his good general. He said that since more good is obtained by prayer the bearers should make four requests to bless by prayer his sermon, his ministry, his prayer and presence Rev. Mr. Goodwill of Hillsburg addressed the minister and he congratulated him on his call and hoped that he would be blessed in his new work. The call is to preach the Gospel earnestly. God's word that has stood the test for ages, is to carry the Gospel to the young people, the coming leaders of the church. Do to the best of your ability and with co-operation of the people you will be given the verdict and he stressed church attendance, coming to church is ones duty and privilege. Rev. Mr. Honeyman of Dromore was also present and led in Prayer. The large choir along with the congregation sang a number of suitable hymns and the service closed with Prayer, after which a bountiful lunch was served by the Swinton Park ladies.

TIMES ARE HARD AND MONEY IS SCARCE

The farmers are talking hard times and scarcity of cash and they are getting little for their produce, but here is another side to the story. Ralph Pallant put on a sale last week. He reports that it was a success and he tells us of a bill of goods he sold to one customer for $14.81. This is what the customer took home with him:

1 suit of men's clothes
2 work shirts
2 wool undershirts
2 pair men's braces
1 pair boy's braces
1 boy's cap
1 pair boy's shoes

All of which goes to show that the little old dollar goes a lot further now than it did a year ago.—Wiarton Echo.
