POOR PAYING BUSINESS

Judging from the size of the legal bill sent Durham council last week by a well-known law firm, it does not pay to arrest outsiders for intoxication. This happened in town recently and the town pays $12 for the privilege of sending Joe Fletcher to jail for 21 days. Next time a similar offender will be given so many seconds to make himself scarce.

Had Hand Mangled

Mr. Jos. Wright of Maxwell sustained a terribly cut hand by having it caught in the knives of the feeder of a threshing separator at the farm of Mr. Ed. Pedlar on Saturday morning last. Mr. Wright was in the act of taking some straw away from below the knives when, without warning, the machine was started, one of the knives gouging his hand through back and coming out on the palm of his hand. He quickly grabbed the belt with his right hand, stopping the machine, at the same time raising the alarm. With some difficulty he was released and taken to the office of Dr. Carr-Harris, who spent several hours dressing the injuries. The cord on his middle finger was severed, but it is not thought that his hand will be disabled in any way when completely healed. Mr. Wright had only recently purchased the threshing outfit from Mr. B. Sornberger, in partnership with Mr. H W. Kernahan, and was learning to operate the separator.

F. S. Long Passes

After being seriously ill for the past several months Mr. Fred. S. Long, son of Mrs. and the late Wesley Long of Maxwell, passed away early Sunday morning at Gravenhurst. For the past several years he has been residing at Niagara Falls, Ont., for a time employed on the Welland canal and up to the time of his illness was operating a fruit farm. He served overseas with the Canadian forces throughout the war and was gassed, this no doubt being a contributing factor as the cause of his death.

He is survived by five brothers and one sister, Chester and James of Feversham, George and Charles of Maxwell, Albert of Toronto and Mrs. Thos. Beatty (Lillian) of Feversham, also his aged mother at Maxwell. He was unmarried. The late Mr. Long was highly regarded by all, being of a strong, upright character, and his passing is mourned by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral took place from Maxwell on Tuesday afternoon, interment taking place in the Maxwell cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

ENGLISH — In loving memory of my dear twin brother, Harry English, who died two years ago, Aug. 28, 1930.

I have lost a dear companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.

In heaven, dear brother, I'll find you
When God's great will is done;
I will stand once more beside you
When he calls for me to come.

Sadly missed by twin brother, Frank

IN MEMORIAM

ENGLISH — In loving memory of our dear son, Harry English, who passed away August 28, 1930.

Oh, could we hear his voice once more
And see his loving smile,
The one that would our hearts still cheer
But we must wait awhile.

Sometime, someday, our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well,
Some day we'll clasp his loving hand
And never say farewell.

Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

Peg-top trousers are said to be on their way back.
