Miss Janet Martin Wed In Ansonville

Baskets of multi-colored flowers adorned Holy Canadian Martyr Church, Ansonville, for the marriage of Miss Janet Martin of Ansonville and Raymond Guinard of Monteith.

Officiating at the 4 p.m., service was Father Pare. Garry Guinard, brother of the bridegroom, acted as altar boy for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie. The gown was designed with long sleeves, straight floorlength bodice with a train effect from the back. The dress featured lace appliques on the scalloped neckline, she wore a short veil and carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Frances Clement of Sudbury. The bridesmaid was Miss Karen Ann Hill of Montrock. They wore pink floor length gowns of brocade designed on an A-line style.

The best man was Lowal Bouchard, of Sudbury. The ushers were Leo Arsenault of Val Gagne and Marcel Martin, Ansonville.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Moose Hall in Ansonville. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a pink boucle sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a grey shantung dress with a fur stole and black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Later, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and points south. The bride wore a kelly green wool bonded suit with black accessories.

On their return, the newlyweds will reside in Ansonville.
