Cyr - Beaulne wedding

Miss T. L. Beaulne Has Two Attendants

A wedding of much local interest was solemnized at the Holy Canadian Martyrs Church, Ansonville, when Miss Marie Therese Lorraine Beaulne became the bride of Joseph Denis Andre Cyr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beaulne of Monteith. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cyr of Ansonville.

Baskets of summer flowers adorned the church. Rev. M. Pare officiated at the four o'clock ceremony. Miss Gisele Cyr sang "Sancta Marie," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. A. Proulx.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin moiree gown trimmed with white lace at the sleeves and bottom of the gown. The gown was Empire A - line. Her headdress, a white and silver satin pillbox adorned with pearls, held in place her shoulderlength veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The matron - of - honor was Mrs. Patricia Knowles of Ansonville. The bridesmaid was Miss Colette Beaulne of Monteith. The attendants wore pink floorlength A - line peau de charme gowns embroidered with white lace. They chose matching accessories and carried bouquets of red carnations and white rosebuds.

The best man was David Knowles of Ansonville. The ushers were Roger Chaisson of Timmins, Roger Beaulne of Monteith and Robert Beaulne of Monteith.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held at the Local 90 Union hall, Montrock. The bride's mother received the guests and chose a turquoise arnel dress with three-quarter length coat. She chose black accessories and a black and white hat. The bridegroom's mother wore an orange ensemble with matching accessories.

Later, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Montreal. For travelling, the bride changed to a navy blue wool crepe coat with orange crepe dress with maribou trim.

On their return, the couple will reside at 695 First St., Montrock.
