FEVERSHAM

Bishop Swalm of the Brethren in Christ Church preached another very interesting and instructive sermon in the tent here Sunday afternoon, from Job 28: 7, "There is a path which no fowl knoweth and which the vulture's eye hath not seen." The expressions heard from many were to the effect that we might have the privilege of hearing Bishop Swalm again. They have moved their tent to another locality, after two weeks of services here and they made a number of converts here in that time. Many people have been helped in their Christion pathway by their earnest Christian testimony and prayers.

Our schools have opened again after the holidays with Miss Dempsey as principal in the Continuation school, Miss Shouldice, assistant, and Miss Bradley in the public school.
