A Welcome Visitor

Mr. J. Weston Carr, C.N.R. agent at Cedoux, Sask., on Friday last. Mr. Carr is a member of an old Eugenia pioneer family, that of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carr, who left Eugenia for the Western promised land over thirty years ago, settling at Stoughton, Sask. The visitor was the youngest son of a pioneer family, and has been connected with the C.N.R. since 1908. Mr. Carr motored down, while his family came by train, but all are now on their way home by motor. It will be of interest to many of our readers to learn the disposition of this family, most of whom are now living in Satskatchewan and Alberta. Edward Carr is farming at Stoughton, Sask.; Florence (Mrs. Leman) lives at Regina; Edith (Mrs. Sturgeon) and Will are living at Calgary; Minnie (Mrs. Russell) lives at Lucky Lake, Sask.; Artina (Mrs. Bailey,) lives at Vancouver; Mabel at Campbellford and Maud (Mrs. G. Lawlor) in Artemesia.

We were very pleased to greet Mr. Carr, whose father was a good friend of The Advance in past years and whose pen frequently tendered matter which found a place in these colmuns.

Mr. F. H. W. Hickling is celebrating the 21st anniversary of his business in Flesherton and is holding a special 14 day sale to commemorate the event. His large advertisement in this issue, gives an idea of many of the bargains one can find in his store.

Despite the difficulty of many workers in Toronto to secure work the attendance at Toronto exhibition is holding its own very well. While, there has been a reduction in attendance each day from last year totals it has not oeen as large as one would expect. It is a great show and worthy of patronage, nut if individuals are without ready cash for such use, one should not expect them to attend.

Many here were privileged to view the eclipse of the sun on Wednesday afternoon of last week, the sun being about 92 per cent hidden by the moon for a few seconds. A peculiar yellow haze engulfed the atmosphere at this point and most of the birds mistook the dimness for coming night and went to roost. When the sun came out again the birds set up a sing song that reminded one of the early morning.

Secretary McCauley has had a number of requests for prize lists from exhibitors outside of Grey county, but their entries have been refused for the East Grey fair being held in Flesherton on September 22 and 23. This is your chance to enter the various competitions at the fair and secure your share of the prize money offered on strictly local competition. The fair is yours and its success lies mainly in your hands. Write to the Secretary at once for a prize list.

The following teachers have left for their schools: Laura Boyd, Kate McMillan and D. Thurston to Toronto and Florence McFadden to Oxdrift, Ont.

The rot on potatoes is becoming more general and the loss from the blight will be heavy. It might have a tendency, however, to raise the price of the "murphies."

The jewellery stock of the estate of the late W. A. Armstrong is being disposed of at the present time at big reductions. It will pay you to visit the store and secure some of the bargains offered.

In our report last week on fishing in the valley we made a slight error in stating that it was Ed. Hillock of Maxwell, who owned the car, the license of which was taken by Mr. Kaitting. The owner of the car was Paul Hillock of Toronto.

Mr. Frank Duncan finished moving last week to the apartment over his new store and Mr. C. Chapple, the new public school principal, and family moved into the house Mr. Duncan vacated and Mr. Alex. McEachnie moved to the apartment above the Co-operative store.

Quite a number of duck hunters have been noticed hunting these wild fowl at the Eugenia lake and other places with the thought that the season opened on September 1st. The season for ducks in this section opens on September 15th, with the closing of trout fishing and continues until December 15th. All duck hunters are hereby warned or it will be just too bad if the game warden finds them.

From the Calgary Herald of August 27th we learn that little Ruth MacKenzie, who is only five years of age passed the introductory examination of the Toronto Conservatory of music with honors. Ruth is the elder daughter of Mrs. G. L. MacKenzie (nee Odessa Walter,) who resided in Flesherton and attended the high school here some years ago.

Remember the 70th Anniversary of Burns Presbyterian church, Feversham, on Sunday next, September 11th at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The services of worship will be conducted by Rev. Ross K. Cameron, M. A., of Streetsville, who was a few years ago the Student Missionary at Feversham for a summer. It is expected that a goodly number of former members of the church will return and enjoy the fellowship of the occasion. Keep in mind also the supper and concert on Tuesday evening, the 13th, when the Boys' Band of Thornbury will provide an enjoyable musical programme.

"Hello, Gran'ma!— I'm a good boy!"

When Amy married Bill Temple, her people made her promise to visit them often. But after young Bill came, the visits were less and less frequent, although the old folks were only 40 miles or so away.

Then one night Amy's mother telephoned and they found how pleasant and inexpensive a visit by Long Distance can be.

So every Sunday night now Grandma calls them. The weekly chats make them all happier — and the cost is only a few cents.
