HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer
Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard, and to those who have never used it we can confidently say, that it is the only reliable and perfected preparation to restore GRAY OR PADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken; the scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean; it removes all eruptions and dandruff, and by its tonic properties prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair that splendid glossy appearance so much admired by all. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Mass., says, "the constituents are pure and carefully selected for excellent quality, and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." We publish a treatise on the hair, which we send free by mail upon application, which contains commendatory notices from clergymen, physicians, the press, and others. We have made the study of the hair and its diseases a specialty for years, and know that we make the most effective preparation for the restoration and the preservation of the hair, extant, and so acknowledged by the best Medical and Chemical Authority.

LINES BY A LUNATIC.

O boyhood's hours! ye bright and sunny
ones,
When love was stronger far—than on i-ones

The little birds, for nothing caring,
Were merry as an—apple-pairing.

Ah! well do I remember then,
The days were hotter than—cayenne.

And as our young affection grew,
Old Time just like a—chimney flue—

The Moon, when we walked out together,
Made all as light as—any feather.

I asked my Love to be my bride,
Whereon she like a—mountain side.

The Justice, said I, with a word,
Would bind us tight as—any lord.

I thought she'd answer 'yes,' of course,
But O, she 'nay'd' me like—a horse.

Her hand from mine she softly drew,
Her parting word fell like—a dew.

But soon I overcame the shock,
And then I went on, like—a clock.

For hearts will last, though maids displease,
And Love is mighty as—a cheese.

Prevention of Spring Diseases.

It is an indisputable physiological truth that if the instincts of nature were yielded to in the Spring, and were cherished in her desire to take less and less food as the weather grows warmer, as they are yielded to in Autumn in taking more, a very large amount of the diseases of Spring and Summer would be avoided. The great practical lesson to be learned in reference to the subject, a question of life and death, is simply this: as the Winter passes, and the balmy Springtime comes on, do nothing to increase the appetite; eat no more than is called for; do not be uneasy because you have little or no relish for your food; eat less and less every day. The very best way to increase your pleasure of eating is to change the quality of the food; use articles less carbonaceous, less warming; send from your table the pork and bacon, and fat meats and oils, and sugars and starches; and sago and the tapioca pudding, and the dumplings and the rich pastries; get hold of the early greens, the spinach, the salads, the turnip tops, the radish, the early berry and the early fruit, and lean meats; pay increasing attention to the skin; be more in the open air, sleep in better ventilated rooms, let your windows be raised higher at night, and your inner doors be left wide open.

BRITTANIA RULES THE WAVES.—When the Suez Canal was opened, many of our American contemporaries prophesied all kinds of terrible results from Great Britain. First she was to lose her commerce and her supremacy at sea, and finally her Indian possessions. So far there are no indications of such results being likely to take place. We find, from the latest returns, that Great Britain sends more than double the tonnage of the rest of the world put together through the canal. The following is the official return of the tonnage and nationality of the vessels which passed through the canal last year:—British, 546,621; French, 91,841; Austrian, 43,133; Italian, 29,409; Turkish, 16,959; Egyptian, 13,394; Dutch, 6,711; Russian, 3,820; Belgian, 4,400; American, 4,170; German, 3,520; Spanish, 3,157; Norwegian, 1,316; Portuguese, 919; Danish, 660; Burmanian, 408. Total, 771,409.

POETICAL AMBITION.—The Duke of Sake Coburg Gotha has got himself into trouble through his poetical genius. He is one of the kind of poets that occupy the poet's corner of country newspapers (at ten cents a line.) He figured around a good deal before he could get any one to publish it, but finally got the 'Dabein Magazine' to inflict it on its readers. Whereupon some envious rival of the Duke immediately accused him of bribing the publishers. This the Duke denies with becoming indignation, and explains that the way of it was that he only bought ten thousand copies of the magazine containing the poetry, for the purpose of disseminating useful knowledge among the youth of his Dukedom. The proposition is now to settle the controversy by shooting. If the duel will result in killing one or two rhyme slingers the world will have reason to rejoice, and newspaper editors will lift up their voices in thankfulness.

THE SPANISH MONARCHY.—The Gaulois, which professes to have special means of information on Spanish affairs, says that King Amadeus, convinced that the Spaniards are ungovernable, and that he will never succeed in consolidating his rule, has insisted that his father, the King of Italy, should sanction his abdication. Victor Emmanuel has prevailed upon him to wait the course of events, but, the Gaulois adds, King Amadeus has formally declared to his father that upon the first insurrection he will leave Spain rather than resort to force for the maintenance of his throne.

HOME INFLUENCE.—A neat, clean, fresh-aired, sweet, cheerful, well-arranged house exerts a moral influence over its inmates, and makes the members of a family peaceable, and considerate of each other's feelings and happiness. The connection is obvious between the state of mind thus produced and respect for others, and for those higher duties and obligations which no laws can enforce. On the contrary, a filthy, squalid, noxious dwelling, in which none of the decencies of life are observed, contributes to make its inhabitants selfish, sensual, and regardless of the feelings of others, and the constant indulgence of such passions renders them reckless and brutal.

NEW MILITARY UNIFORM.—The Standard is informed that in the Spring a new experiment is to be made in the matter of military clothing. Twenty thousand men are to be clothed in scarlet tunics and blue trousers instead of the brickdust tunics and Oxford grey trousers now in use, and the button is to be one of uniform pattern, bearing the Royal arms upon it in the place of a regimental device. If the experiment is found to answer, the whole army will be clothed in a similar manner.

HORSE DROWNED.—On Friday evening, March 8th, a valuable Horse was found in the Bay between Robin's Wharf and Cassy's Point. The person driving, and evidently driven the horse into a crack in the ice, and not being able to get it out, had unhitched him and shoved the cutter back from the hole, and then what was, or as some surmise, had slipped in himself and gone under thereto. The cutter was taken across to Adolphustown. Napanee Beaver.

REQUIRED ATTENTION TO POSTAL CARDS.—The British Post Office authorities have, it is said, decided upon increasing the present price of postal cards 1d. the dozen, and not to sell a smaller number than a dozen at a time. So that one dozen cards will, after a date to be fixed, be 6½d. instead of 6d.—Standard.

GERMAN BEER AT PARIS.—In spite of violent national antipathies, German beer is again in full possession of its former favor. 290,000 hectolitres of German beer are drunk yearly at Paris, and that beer comes for the greatest part from Germany.

A True Balsam.—Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is truly a balsam. It contains the balsamic principle of the Wild Cherry, the balsamic properties of tar and of pine. Its ingredients are all balsamic. Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, and Consumption speedily disappear under its balsamic influence.

From increased Physical and Mental strength of persons who use Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, their augmented faculty of endurance, the regular and healthy action of the Heart, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, and their improved appearance, demonstrated in thousands of cases within our knowledge its power of restoring the great sympathetic and muscular system on which full and healthy development depends, is certain.

☞ Did you ever think that what is termed a common cold, when systematically neglected, often leads to that most fatal and distressing disease—consumption—but when attended to at once is generally easy of cure. If you are troubled with a cold or cough, "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" will be found to be the most efficacious in removing it. They give immediate relief, and generally effect a cure when used in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

Persons requiring purgative pills should be careful what they buy. Some pills not only cause griping pains, but leave the bowels in a torpid, costive state. Parsons' Purgative Pills will relieve the bowels and cleanse the blood without injury to the system.

Great Condition Medicine.—As a condition medicine for Horses "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" has no equal, its effects in this respect are astonishing; many horses that were supposed to be broken down and almost worthless, have by the use of a few packages been restored to a healthy and sound condition, all the traces of the disease having been completely removed, and have been sold for from $50 to $75 more than than they would previously have brought; when you have a horse medicine get "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," we know you will be perfectly satisfied with the result. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

The great superiority of Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya over all other remedies consists in its being purely physiological in its action, being composed only of ingredients that enter into the formation of the system, and in such carefully adjusted proportions as are readily absorbed and assimilated. It supplies the waste constantly going on from the decomposition of tissues, as the result of mental and physical exertion, and prevents nervous prostration and general debility. For building up constitutions of low vitality, depending upon hereditary influences or irregular habits, is has no equal, as it immediately imparts energy to the organs of nutrition, and creates healthy blood. Its tonic, vitalizing power is felt at once, and it builds up diseased structures rapidly in the same manner as our daily food, with no liability of relapse. Sold by all druggists at $1.
