PROSPECTUS
OF A
New Map of the whole Dominion of CANADA,
From Newfoundland to Vancouver Island, with the Northern and Western States,
BY
J. JOHNSTON, C. E. Montreal.
TO BE PUBLISHED IN THE FALL OF 1872.
SIZE OF MAP, about 7 feet. Extending from Newfoundland (east) to Manitoba (west) and from Lat. of New York (south) to Hudson's Bay (north) on a scale of 20 miles to the inch: from Manitoba to Vancouver Island—50 miles to the inch. This arrangement admits of the old Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia—which are to a great extent surveyed—being drawn on a scale large enough to shew all important details. The great "North West Territory" and British Columbia—where comparatively little has been done in the way of actual survey—a smaller scale answers every purpose; and the map is thus kept within the dimensions best adapted for general office use.
Mr. Johnston has been engaged on the Manuscript during the last Three Years; neither labor nor expense has been economized in the endeavour to make this Map in every respect thoroughly accurate reliable.
The following are some of the most important details, which have been collated great care, from late official Plans and Reports:—the recent Explorations and Surveys in the "North West Territory;" Boundary Lines; new Townships and Mining Locations; New Railways, Canals, Colonization Roads, Free Grant Lands, New Settlements; the Elevations of the Inland Waters and Mountainous regions (above the sea) marked in feet, where they have been correctly ascertained, and the delineation of all prominent Topographical features.
Additions and corrections will be made to date of publication.
Artistically Colored, Mounted on Cloth, with Rollers, &c., Price $10 per Copy to Subscriber. A liberal discount off this price will be allowed to the Trade.
The manuscript has been submitted to the following eminent Geographers and Engineers receiving their unqualified approval and recommendation:—ANDREW RUSSELL, Esq., Geographer to the Dominion Government; Lt.-Colonel DENNIS, Surveyor-General; THOS. DEVINE, Esq., P.R.G.S., Surveyor in Chief, Ontario; SANDFORD FLEMING, Esq., Government Engineer in Chief.
Address, J. JOHNSON, C. E., Notre Dame Street, or Box 400 P.O., MONTREAL.
Responsible Agents and Canvassers wanted throughout Ontario.

THURSDAY EVEN'G, MAY 23, 1872.

The Sympathizing Lovers.

A knight and a lady once met in a grove,
While each was in quest of a fugitive love
A river ran mournfully murmuring by,
And they wept by its waters for sympathy.
"Oh, never was knight such a sorrow that bore!"
"Oh, never was maid so deserted before!"
"From life and its woes let us instantly fly,
And go hand in hand together for company."

They searched for an eddy that suited the deed,
But here was a bramble, and there was a weed
"How provoking it is!" said the fair with a sigh;
So they sat down to rest them in company.
They gazed at each other, the maid and the knight—
How far was her form, and how goodly his height!
"One mournful embrace," sobbed the youth, "ere we die!"
So, kissing and crying, kept company.

"Oh, had I but wooed such an angel as you!"
"Oh, had but my swain been a quarter as true!"
"To miss such perfection how blinded was I!"
"Sure, now they were excellent company!"
At length spoke the maid, twist a smile and a tear
When summer returns we may easily die,
Till then, let us sorrow in company!"

MISCELLANEOUS.

Cincinnati is said to be the most densely populated city of the United States, having 36,008 people to the square mile, while New York has but 22,000.

The Dromedary, laden with Government stores, has run aground on the Isle of Wight. We wonder if this camel came to grief in trying to get through the Needles.

Mr. Stearns' invention for sending telegraphic messages in opposite directions through a single wire is to be adopted by the Western Union Company.

Several lads in Milwaukee have in operation a line of 4 miles of telegraph, the copper wire costing about $1.50 per mile. The apparatus of the company consists of 35 cups—16 for the main battery and 10 for local batteries—and 10 Morse instruments. The line was put up for practice and pleasure—and it proves very convenient in stormy nights, enabling the boys to converse with each other, or play checkers or chess without leaving their homes.

The Parisian detectives who discovered the Park Lane murderers Marguerite Dixblanc, positively refused to accept the £50 offered as a reward by the British authorities for her capture. The English police authorities have, therefore, forwarded to these high souled French officials gold watches by the first maker in London.

As Albani was performing the sleep-walking scene at the Mill, in "La Sonnambula," at an English opera house, recently, a shriek arose from one of the stalls where a gentleman was seen to be in convulsions. Every aid was given him, but the attack was fatal. He proved to be Christobal De La Quintana, of the great Spanish Bonden house of Christobal, Muriety & Co.

Mr. District Inspector Romain, seized the tobacco manufactory of Jacob Epting, at Berlin. A mill for grinding tobacco into snuff, and a tobacco cutter were found in the loft above the stable, on the premises of which no notice had been given.

The Ottawa Government has grossly insulted and defamed the people and Parliament of Canada. It said, in substance, in England "Though we, as a Government, may be loyal enough to accept the Treaty, yet we fear we cannot pass it through Parliament unless you enable us to present an imerial bribe at the same time." If the British people come to the conclusion that the Canadians are selfish, greedy and over-reaching, it is Sir John A. Macdonald we shall have to thank for having given us that character.

Sir Charles Dilke.

I ponder whether there is now in England a drier, heavier, drearier, more monotonous and prosaic speaker than Dilke. He is a very young man for English public life—only twenty eight years old; and it is a perfect mystery to me how at that time of life he has contrived to get rid of all the levity, all the brightness, all the fervor of youth, and to become methodical and dry enough to be an aged president of the Poor Law Board. He seems as if his infancy must have been cradled in blue books, ribed in red tape, and fed upon blotting-paper and drying-sand. I heard him make his speech in the house the other night. Poppies were nothing to it. Hardly was it possible to keep awake. The speech was well got up as to facts, well arranged, and evidently well committed to memory. But it was the dullest, most monotonous Parliamentary harangue I have heard for years. The House of Commons listened to it with unmoved and stoney patience. Factious hatred itself could not warm even to a momentary interruption. When Aldgate pump turns into a cataract like Niagara; when the sand in an hour-glass bursts its prison and becomes a bombshell; when a Parliamentary blue-book on parochial boundaries or the laws relative to salmon fisheries is sold in penny numbers and eagerly devoured by reading millions, then I shall be ready to believe in the possibility of Sir Charles Dilke becoming the tribune of a great popular movement in England. This is not because he is a bad speaker—indeed he could not properly be called a bad speaker—but because it does not seem to me that he could ever possibly animate by the power of eloquence any public assembly. Many orators began by being bad speakers. Sheridan began thus, and Curran; and so did Disraeli, and so did Bright. But in most cases the bad speaking of the embryo orator is extravagance, redundancy, egotism; want of mental harmony with his audience. Time chastens, refines, and makes strong in such cases as these. But I never heard of any instance in which a young man who started by being rigorously methodical, cold, dry, and dull, turned out afterward a great popular orator. The faults of luxuriance and excess are in the nature of untrained eloquence; the faults of deficiency, penury, and dryness are, I thing, quite antagonistic to it.

But Sir Charles Dilke, though not a speaker, is an able man, highly accomplished in literature and politics, a man who has seen as well as studied.—Justin McCarthy, in Galaxy.

Caution to purchasers of Peruvian Syrup (a protected solution of the protoxide of iron.) Beware of being deceived by any of the preparations of Peruvian Bark, or Bark and Iron, which may be offered to you. Every bottle of genuine has Peruvian Syrup (not Peruvian Bark) blown in the glass. Examine the bottle before purchasing.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age, Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the goodness of your antocoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

The all-gone feeling which people sometimes speak of, is caused by want of proper action of the liver and heart. These may be assisted, and the bowels regulated, by Parsons' Purgative Pills in small doses.

Corn and flour are staple articles; but no more so than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, where known. It is good for children or adults, for any internal soreness of the chest or bowels, and the best Pain Killer prepared, under whatever name.

Bad Wine. Too often a cold or slight cough is considered a very ordinary, trifling affair, just as well left to go as it came, and hence systematically neglected until a simple curable affection is converted into a serious pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware that a cough or cold should never be trifled with, promptly use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," which have sustained their reputation for over 30 years. They are always efficacious, and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all Druggists and country merchants. Price 25 cents per box.

Loss of Appetite in Horses.—Horses lose their appetite from various causes, but most frequently by the approach of some disease, this circumstance ought not to be overlooked by those who own horses, and should be immediately attended to, as by so doing the disease may be checked, and the life of the horse saved. To do which we are positive there is nothing to Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Horse Remedy; it purifies the blood, corrects all derangements of the digestive organs, and as a necessary consequence the appetite is restored, the skin becomes soft and shining in appearance. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hord & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

DR. WHEELER'S
Compound Elixir of Phosphates & Calisaya.
There is no diseased condition of the body in which Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya, may not be used with positive benefit. Being a Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic, it acts physiologically in the same manner as our diet. It perfects Digestion, Assimilation, and the formation of healthy blood. It sustains the vital force by supplying the waste constantly going on, of nerve and muscle, as the result of mental and physical exertion, enabling mind and body to undergo great labor without fatigue. Its action in building up constitutions broken down with Wasting Chronic Diseases, by fast living and bad habits is truly extraordinary, its effect being immediate in energizing all the organs of the body. Phosphates being absolutely essential to cell formation and the growth of tissues, must for all time be Nature's great restorative and vitalizer. Sold by all druggists at $1
