INDIA

ANOTHER ASSASSINATION—KILLING A MAGISTRATE—GENERAL ASSAULT—SUICIDE.

Officials in India appear to carry their lives in their hands. Close upon the murders of Chief Justice Norman and of the Viceroy, Lord Mayo, comes the account of an attempt inspired by fanaticism to assassinate Captain Mayne, the Magistrate at Mhow. A police peon, a Mussulman, having been arraigned on some charge, was sentenced to be dismissed the force, and his belt taken from him. Infuriated at this, the peon waited until the Magistrate was leaving his office, when he snatched up a sword and aimed a blow at his head. This fortunately fell short, but in the struggle which ensued, several policemen, including the acting Inspector, were badly wounded, and one fatally. Inspired by success, the victorious peon then charged indiscriminately upon the bystanders, and having put them to inglorious flight, completed his triumph by cutting his own throat. His funeral, the same evening, was largely attended by persons of his own caste, and was celebrated with all religious ceremony and honor. The prevailing impression among his own people was that he had suffered martyrdom, and would be henceforth a saint in heaven.

Alsatian Feeling

An American exchange says a large number of French Alsatians, now resident in the United States, have taken a very strange step. To indicate their hatred of the Germans, unaltered by change of domicile, they formed in procession the other day in San Francisco, marched to the French Consulate and took an oath of fealty to France. Their example is to be followed in New York on the 13th of July, and the leaders of the movement are doing all in their power to make an imposing display. It is very easy to live and prosper in the United States and curse an enemy between two and three thousand miles away.

Mr. Justice Keogh

Mr. Justice Keogh has been obliged to leave Ireland in consequence of the ill-feeling and rancor excited by his remarks in delivering judgment on the Galway election petition. He was guarded on his way to the steamboat by detectives. It is said that he will retire from the bench on a full pension, and after a short seclusion from public life will be a candidate for Parliament before some English constituency. He has been burned in effigy many times of late in the principal Irish towns.

HALL'S

Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard, and to those who have never used it we can confidently say, that it is the only reliable and perfected preparation to restore GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken; the scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean; it removes all eruptions and dandruff, and by its tonic properties prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair that splendid glossy appearance so much admired by all. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Mass., says: "the constituents are pure and carefully selected for excellent quality, and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." We publish a treatise on the hair, which we send free by mail upon application, which contains commendatory notices from clergymen, physicians, the press, and others. We have made the study of the hair and its diseases a specialty for years, and know that we make the most effective preparation for the restoration and the preservation of the hair, extant, and so acknowledged by the best Medical and Chemical Authority.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.
