To the Electors of the Riding of Addington.
GENTLEMEN,—I beg leave to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election for the House of Commons. I, as you are well aware, have long taken a somewhat prominent part in the Municipal affairs of my native County, and if elected as your representative to the House of Commons of Canada, I shall endeavour to the utmost of my ability to aid in passing all measures that are for the benefit of our rising Dominion and oppose all that will be injurious to our interests.
If elected, I shall give the present Government a fair support, as I consider that their legislation on the whole has been advantagious to the country. It is my intention to see as many of you as possible before the Election, when I shall explain my views more fully to you on the great questions now before the country.
I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,

FAMILY HERALD.

FAMILY HERALD, WEEKLY 1d.

The Illustrated London News, in reference to pure literature, speaks of "THE FAMILY HERALD, that joy to tens of thousands of innocent English households."

FAMILY HERALD, MONTHLY 6d.

The Saturday Review says: "The FAMILY HERALD stands at the head, both in age and popularity, of all the penny serials . . . The editor is the confident and confessor in every station of life. The answers to correspondents cannot be fictitious, a romance and a life history being embodied in almost each of them. . . . Its novels and tales are quite as well written as the best circulating library stories."

FAMILY HERALD, ANNUALLY 7s 6d.

The Literary Gazette says: "It must be said of the FAMILY HERALD, that it is the purest reading of all purely amusing literature; it is indeed a family paper."

FAMILY HERALD, WEEKLY 1d.

The British Quarterly Review says: "Under the head of 'The Story Teller,' we have novels and tales simpler and purer in structure than in the pages of the other penny serials. . . . There are charming verses let into into its pages, like sunshine, to brighten them. . . . It is well considered with reference to its aims, and is various and amusing, with a fair amount of utility intermixed. Of all these publications we are inclined to consider the FAMILY HERALD is the best."

FAMILY HERALD, MONTHLY 6d.

Leigh Hunt, in his Autobiography, says:—"I call out ever week for my FAMILY HERALD, a penny publication qualified to inform the best of its contemporaries."

FAMILY HERALD, Annally 7s. 6d.

The Bookseller says: "For amusing reading, such as may be admitted to one's household without fear of consequences, we can recommend the FAMILY HERALD. You get portions of a well-written novel, novelettes, useful information, interspersed throughout, answers to correspondents, alone worth the money, and a variety of other matters, which will make readers either merrier or wiser, or perhaps both."

LOVERS.

Midnight and June
The yellow phantom of a moon
Far out at sea,
Dark branches arching overhead,
The river flowing in the gloom,
And heavy scents of leaf and bloom
Making it just a joy to be
And in the dew
Beneath the branches bending too,
Two faces bent—
Bent in a swift and daring dream,
And ecstasy of trembling bliss,
Ad sealed together in a kiss—
And the night waiting passion-spent.

For this the day
Swooned from its fiery skies away;
For this the night
Built up its stars and silences;
For this the royal summer came
Wrapped in her robes of fragrant flame—
This moment pausing on its flight!

Midnight and June
A dreaming bird repeats his tune;
The sea replies—
Perfume and hush and darkness still,
But nothing as it was before,
Subtly and sweetly all made o'er
With love's unsealing of the eyes!

WHIGGINGS.

Are auctioneers generally a forbidding class of men?

You can't make corned beef by giving cows whisky.

What is taken from you before you get it?—Your photograph.

Does a cow become landed property when she is turned into a field?

How to travel cheaply—get wrapped up in a novel, and go by book post.

Punch says he has observed that the unfortunate man's friends live a long way off.

Bad manuscript makes an editor think sometimes that he keeps a house of correction.

The price of milk in Albany, which had risen in account of the drought, has fallen with the recent rains.

A "sufferer" at one of the mountain houses says "the flies come to breakfast at the sound of the gong."

The Smiths had a dinner at Pittsburg on New Year's Day. The first toast was Pocahontas—Heaven bless her for saving the Smiths to this country.

An Ohio youth recently won a bet he had made that he could drink two quarts of Cincinnati whiskey, but unfortunately the amount of the wages wa'nt large enough to support his widow.

Tommy was cautioned against eating too much luncheon, because he would spoil his appetite for dinner. But Tommy said he would rather have a good luncheon than a good appetite any time.

A Solomonian parent in Michigan having rather spoiled a rod than spared his child, the dutiful little boy laid wait for him with a shot-gun, and gave him another sort of charge to keep, and of such is the kingdom of heaven.

"Ah, ladies," said an old bon vivant, as he opened a bottle of wine, "what is more delightful than the popping of a champagne cork?" "Popping of the question!" unceremoniously cried one of the ladies.

Alex. Dumas, pere, was asked one day to contribute ten francs to the funeral of a bailiff who had died in destitute circumstances. 'What!' exclaimed the great novelist, 'ten francs for burying a bailiff! Here are one hundred francs—bury ten bailiffs!'

The other day a little boy who had his fingers ran to his mother and cried 'Tie it up, ma; tie it up, quick, for the juice is all running out!' The same urchin, on one of the late hot days, appealed to mother for help, saying: 'Ma, do fix me, for I'm leaking all over.'

Two Irishmen on a sultry night took refuge under the bed-clothes from a party of mosquitoes. At last one of them, gasping from heat, ventured to peep beyond the bulwarks, and espied a firefly which had strayed into the room. Arousing his companions with a punch, he said, 'Fergus, Fergus, it's no use. Ye might as well come out. Here's one of the craythers searching for us wid a lantern.'

A learned clergyman was accosted in the following manner, by an illiterate preacher who despised education: 'Sir, you've been to college, I suppose?' 'Yes, Sir, was the reply. 'I am thankful,' rejoined the farmer, 'that the Lord opened my mouth without any learning.' 'A similar event,' retorted the clergyman, 'took place in Balaam's time, but such things are of rare occurrence at the present day.'

Who Wants a Fortune?

Niagara Falls is receiving the usual amount of annual criticism on the notoriously heavy charges demanded there, at every turn of visitors. It is surprising that some enterprising American does not engage in the hotel business there, and keep a first-class house in every respect, at moderate charges; and for the accommodation of guests, provide a first-class line of carriages in connection, at one half the present rate of charges. Such an undertaking would prove a richly paying investment.

M. THIERS ON THE SITUATION IN FRANCE.—Conversing with several Deputies before the National Assembly adjourned, M. Thiers said there were three dangers in the present political situation of France, "and three only—Radicalism, Bonapartism, and my death. The first I do not think very menacing; the second requires to be watched over carefully; and as for the third, there is no question of it." During a conference with the Commissioners of Prorogation, M. Thiers is said to have used the following words: I desired to introduce in France the English Constitution. This is no longer to be thought of. We have been forced to cross the Atlantic. We are now at the United States; and what we have best to do is to remain and arrange ourselves there."

THE MEDITERRANEAN RAILWAY.—The select committee on railway communication between the Mediterranean, the Black Sea and the Persian Gulf, have reported in very favourable terms as to the feasibility of constructing a line through Mesopotamia from sea to sea; and they find "reason to expect the sanction if not the active concurrence of the Turkish Government."

"Every pleasure has its necessary pain."—This maxim of the Greek philosopher is daily verified during the summer season, when our pleasure in eating delicious fruits is somewhat dulled by the doleful prospect of colics, cramps, diarrhœa, dysentery, cholera, and other disagreeable consequences of an over feed. But the pain of anticipation vanishes and the present pleasure alone remains, when we reflect that "every bane has its antidote" and that all diseases of the bowels are checked and cured by the timely use of ARNOTT'S ARNICA ANODYNE.

☞ The first approaches of consumption are so insidious that thousands remain unconscious of its presence until it has brought them to the verge of the grave. The immediate use of "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" upon the first appearance of the cough, pain or soreness of the throat or chest, would generally preclude a fatal result; therefore, when you take a cold use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," and thus prevent the necessity for taking them in more dangerous complaints. To be obtained of all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts per bx.

Somebody Says.—"There is something peculiarly attractive in a horse." His intelligent eye and ear, his lofty carriage, his free and graceful motion, his vast strength, his obedient temper, and his indispensible use, all endear him to us. We have to look at his fine proportions, and take in the inspiration of his energy and power," but it is only when the horse is properly cared for—when he is free from disease or unsoundness of any kind—that he will exhibit these points of attraction, and without which he is of but little value. A package of "Darley's Condition Powders and Heave Remedy," should be in possession of every man who owns a horse, to be used in case of emergency. Don't fail to get it. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all Medicine dealers.

Halifax, Feb. 10th, 1872.—Mr. Jas. I Fellow—Dear Sir: In order that some other sufferer may be benefitted, you are at liberty to give this letter publicity.

In the winter of 1869 I taken ill with Disease of the Heart, accompanied by violent palpitation, and from that time gradually became weaker, notwithstanding continued professional attendance, up to a few weeks ago, when your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites was recommended to me. The use of it during a very short time enabled me to resume my usual work, and now I am as well, fat and hearty as I could wish to be. Yours very truly, W. Frank Cochran.

The Heart being a great muscular organ, requires vigorous nervous force to sustain it. As Fellows' Hypophosphites restores the nervous element, it will always strengthen the Heart weakened through loss of this element. The Inventor.

A Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic,

Without Phosphorus no thought, say the Germans, and they might add, no action, since Phosphorous and its compounds are known to be the motive power of the nervous and muscular system. They constitute more than half the material of the human body, being found in every tissue, and their presence is absolutely essential to nutrition, as they promote the conversion of albumen in the food into fibrine, which is the vitalizing agent of pure, healthy blood. They are now coming into universal use in Europe, and America in the treatment of Scrofulous, Consumptive and Venereal diseases, which are caused by impoverished or poisoned blood; in pale, puny children, and that condition of nervous and physical prostration resulting from bad habits, excessive use of stimulants and tobacco, and all that train of evils known as fast life. The great reliability and promptness in its effects in immediately and permanently restoring the devitalized constitution has made DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALISAYA a great favourite with the Physicians and public. Sold at $1.00.
