VANDELEUR

(Last Week's Items)

Anniversary services were held in Vandeleur church on Sunday afternoon and evening, October 9th. The weather was ideal and a good crowd turned out. Rev. S. McAuslan occupied the pulpit in the afternoon and Rev. Bennett of Flesherton in the evening. Both delivered excellent sermons which were appreciated by a very large congregation. The choir assisted by Ebenezer and Flesherton talent rendered excellent numbers at both services. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, autumn leaves and fruit for the occasion.

The midweek meetings which are being held in the church every Wednesday evening are proving very profitable and interesting and are exceptionally well attended. The meetings open with a song service, after which the pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren gives an address and this is followed by a period of games, contests and wholesome recreation in the basement of the church.

IN MEMORIAM

GILBERT — In loving memory of our dear sister, Etta Gilbert, who passed away October 16th, 1930.

Today recalls sad memories,
Of our dear sister gone to rest,
And the ones who think of her today
Are the ones who love her best.

—Sisters.

PRICEVILLE

The "Holdfast U.F.W.O. club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Carson on Wednesday, October 12th, and despite the rough and wet disagreeable day, 29 members and visitors were present. Mrs. Wm. Beaton, the President, presided and the singing of the club song opened the meeting. After the devotional exercises, the roll call was answered by "How each member makes their poultry dressing" and many different and useful ways were given. Splendid readings were given by Mrs. Edgar Patterson, "The Pot of Beans", also one by Mrs. Wm. Beaton, "The Empty Purse," and Miss Lily Campbell, "What would you like to be," and were much enjoyed. A very interesting debate then took place, resolved "that Pioneer Woman, contributed more to the welfare of home and community, than does the modern woman." Mrs. Dan Campbell and Mrs. J. J. Lyness upheld the affirmative side and Mrs. John Nichol and Miss Lottie Whittaker the negative. The debate was thoroughly enjoyed by all. After the judges had carefully considered the matter the decison was given in favor of the affirmative, by one point. Mrs. Edgar Patterson put on a "nut" contest and Mrs. Wm. Campbell was the winner of a pretty vase. Mrs. Wm. Beaton presided at the organ and the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem, after which a bountiful lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants.

The annual fowl supper and program of the Priceville Presbyterian church was held on Friday evening in the hall and was a decided success. The night was an ideal one and the place was packed full. The tables were laden with all good things that would satisfy the inner man, and an abundance of food was never touched. The tables were then removed and the following program was much enjoyed with Rev. Dr. MacIvor acting as chairman and presided very efficiently in his happy manner. Swinton Park Orchestra, composed of Messrs. George and Ed Haw with violins, Jack Haw with picolo and Delbert Haw with banjo, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Knox at the piano gave several selections and were heartily applauded each time. Mr. Archie Clark of Dromore gave three splendid recitations and the Flesherton quartette composed of Mrs. Alf. Down and Mrs. McCallum, Messrs. George Cairns and Frank Duncan and accompanied by Mrs. Blackburn on the piano gave numbers that were much appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns sang a well rendered duet and Mrs. Dan Campbell gave a splendid reading, "The Preacher's Vacation," after which the quartette from St. Andrew's church, Owen Sound, gave a number of selections. A solo was given by Mr. Dedrick of Owen Sound, "The Boy who Stuttered," and "The Girl who Lisped." Trios were given by Messrs. Booman, Kellough and Dedruk. Mr. F. R. Oliver then gave a splendid address, which was much enjoyed. The Willing Helpers, through their president, Mrs. Wilfred Watson, expressed their appreciation for the co-operation of the many friends and thanked all those who took part in the program. Dr. McIvor expressed appreciation for the fine support given the building of the new church. In part of three days, nearly 100 men gave voluntary help and Willling Helpers provided hot dinners three days in the hall for men Mr. T. Lever had his cement mixer and with the number of men the wall of the basement was completed in 2½ days, finishing Friday noon. Plans are in the making to proceed with the work on the church. The National Anthem brought a most enjoyable evening to a close. The proceeds were nearly $90.

Mrs. Allie McLean spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seigner of Walkerton visited Sunday at McCuaig's.

Miss Whatling, a returned Missionary from China, gave a splendid address Sunday morning in the hall and was listened to intently by a full church.
