Build Swings In Park

The Flesherton Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Wilcock on Wednesday afternoon of last week and twenty-two ladies answered to the roll call, giving the maiden name of their mother. The objective of the Institute was set to supply swings in the park next spring, as a playground for children.

Mrs. Wilcock read a fine paper on "Women and farm life today and advantages they would have a few years hence," prepared, as she said, so long ago that she had forgotten she had it. It was enjoyed by all and remarks were made by members that it did not seem to be out of date, by any means.

The Institute was pleased with a visit from the District President, Mrs. McGowan of Ravenna, who had her mother, Mrs. McGowan Sr., with her. Each gave a short address on Institute work. The District President favored meeting in homes in place of halls and was strong for lunch at each meeting. Mrs. McGowan Sr. stated that she was present at the first Institute meeting and the first District meeting held in Flesherton and the first annual convention.

It was decided to send a representative of the local Institute to the W. I. convention in Toronto this month.

Wild ducks are reported as unusually scarce throughout the various feeding spots at the east end of the Georgian Bay.

HIGHWAY TRAFFIC OFFICER CHECKING UP MOTORISTS

Highway Traffic Officer A. E. Bosworth, who patrols Highway No. 10 from Orangeville north, has been checking up motorists in this district. A local man was fined $30 on four infractions—no reflector on his truck, didnt carry his permit, brakes were defective and failure to stop at a stop sign on the highway.

In stopping Jack Ariss of Corbetton, who attends the local high school, the Traffic Officer undertook to test the brakes of the Ariss car himself and got into the driver's seat of the car, a Model T Ford. As he applied the brakes there was a sound as if something had broken in the back of the car. With difficulty the car was driven home, only to find that the housing had a hole broken in it from the broken mechanism in the deferential. We understand that no agreement has been reached as yet regarding responsibility for the damages.—Dundalk Herald.

C. W. Bellamy Died Suddenly Saturday

Last week we mentioned the happy event of the 82nd birthday of Mr. Chas. W. Bellamy of town, and this week we have to chronicle his sudden passing at his home Saturday evening. He appeared to be in excellent health and that day had accomplished a full day's work at his carpentry business, returning home about seven o'clock. He entered his home and in a few moments went to the barn. His lengthy absence caused his daughter, Miss Reta, to become alarmed and she commenced a search and found him in an outhouse. She secured help from her cousins, Messrs. A. E. Bellamy and Robt. Bellamy, who carried him into the house. A doctor was called immediately and death was found to have been instantaneous.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bellamy and was born at Cannington, Ont., on November 5th 1850, and when 17 years of age moved with his parents to this vicinity, where

When he came to this district he walked the entire distance from Collingwood to a farm taken up near Portlaw. Ae few years later he was ried to Miss Anna Jones, who predeceased him 12 years ago, and to them were born seven daughters and one son: Alberta (Mrs. Dinsmore) Stranraer, Sask., Lizzie (Mrs. Shaw, Markdale, Cora (Mrs. Geo. Best) Flesherton, Frances (Mrs. John Miller) of Toppen, B. C., Leone (Mrs. Roy Thistlethwaite of Toronto, Gertrude (Mrs. Mellafont) of Coutts, Alta., Reta at home and Edgar of Chicago He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Scott of Hanover and Miss Kate Bellamy of Flesherton and one brother, Mr. W. J. Bellamy, clerk of Artemesia township and Flesherton village. He also leaves 30 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

He was a member of St. John's United church, was a conservative in politics and was also a member of Prince Arthur Lodge No. 333, A.F. & A.M.

The late Mr. Bellamy for many years was assessor of Artemesia township and also served for several terms in the village council. Prior to moving to Flesherton 17 years ago he farmed a mile south of Flesherton, at the same time carrying on his trade as carpenter, which he worked at right up to the hour of his death. He was highly regarded as a man by all who came in contact with him and his sudden passing was a shock to his many friends throughout this district.

The funeral is to take place Thursday afternoon with service at his late residence at 2 p.m., interment to take place in Flesherton cemetery. The Masonic brethren will give their beautiful funeral service at the house and graveside.

Mrs. Miller is arriving by train to-day (Wednesday) and is the only one from the West who can come His son, Edgar, is ill at his home in Evanston, Ill., having spent the past month in a hospital and will not be able to attend.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the family in their hour of trouble.

CAR EXEMPT FROM SEIZURE

Necessary, as never before, is the automobile in the economic scheme of things. Might as well take away the taior's shears, the carpenter's hammer, or the farmer's plow, as take away the automobile of the business man or salesman. So, at least, decided Judge Costello of Huron County who declared the car of an implement agent exempt from seizure by the sheriff. The agent's territory, where he sells fertilizer, is thirty miles long and fifteen miles wide, and the judge decided it would be utterly impossible for hm to carry on his job without a car. "I cannot hold otherwise than that this man's car is a chattel necessary for his calling," said Judge Costello. The judgment is interesting in that it is believed to have set a precedent.

McRAE — SKIPPEN

On Saturday, October 29th, 1932, a pretty wedding was solemnized at the Heathcote parsonage by Rev. L. West when Alby Lavina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Skippen of Heathcote was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Alexander McRae, son of Mrs. McRae and the late Alexander McRae of Flesherton. The bride wore a becoming gown of brown crepe back satin, with cream satin trimmings and accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of autumn flowers. Miss Margaret Hindle, cousin of the bride was bridesmaid and Mr. Vance Jarrett of Clarksburg assisted the groom.
