No Trace Of Thieves

Constable Cook of Meaford was in town last Wednesday morning investigating the theft of $10 from McTavish's garage the night before and up to the present time has not been able to find the guilty party. Entrance to the building was made through a window on the west side. Nothing else was taken except the money from the cash register, which was damaged when forced open. The same night entrance was made to Mr. Mark Wilson's butcher shop through the rear door, but as there was no money in the till, a loss was not suffered.

Special Proton Service

On Sunday, November 13th, a Memorial service, suitable for Armistice Day was held in Trinity church, Proton Station at 3 p.m. The L.O.L. No. 244 members were present and occupied the front seats of the church. The Rector, Rev. M. F. Oldham preached an appropriate sermon on Psalm 68:30 stressing the putting down of war and the upholding of peace. During the taking of the offering Mrs. M. F. Oldham, Mrs. E. Ross and Mr. L. C. Mims sang. The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. E. Stinson lead in the singing of the National Hymns. Visitors were present from other places.

Does Not Persecute

In last week's issue a report appeared copied from the Dundalk Herald, that stated Traffic Officer Bosworth had brought action against a Dundalk man on four charges of infraction of the Motor Vehicles Act and fined $30. This is an error as Mr. Bosworth states that only one charge was laid and the fine was $14.50, including costs. He also stated that he did not desire the public to imagine that he persecutes the motorist by bringing four charges against a man, as he always takes the greatest infraction of the rules when several are broken.

MAKES CORRECTION

The following paragraph appeared in Miss A. C. Macpaihl's weekly letter from Ottawa, which arrived too late for last week's issue:

"I wish to acknowledge with thanks a correction of my definition of the dumping duty submitted by Burton E. Field in the Flesherton Advance of Nov. 2nd. I have said the dumping duty is the difference between $4.40 and $4.86 2-3, when the dumping duty is the difference between $4.40 and the prevailing rate of exchange over the two weeks previous, which would be, at the moment around $3.65. I appreciate the kindliness of Mr. Field's correction."

Armistice Day Service Held At Maxwell

A beautiful and impressive Armistice Day Memorial service was held in St. Mary's Anglican church, Maxwell, when a large congregation was present. The school children of Maxwell public school, led by the Returned Soldiers of the district, led by Mr. Winslow Kernahan, carrying the Memorial wreath, given by the government, marched to the church. The service in charge of the rector, Rev. Maurice F. Oldham started promptly at 10.45 a.m. The beautiful service of Morning Prayer in its entire form was used. Psalms 56, 57 and 58 were read responsively and two minutes of silent prayer observed. Rev. Peter Tiller of Singhampton United church read the first lesson 2nd Chron. 32: 1-23. The great song of thanksgiving, the Te Deum, was then sung heartily. Rev. A. M. Shannon of the Presbyterian church, Feversham, read the second lesson, Revelation 7. Mr. Winslow Kernahan representing the government and returned men then gave a fine address and presented the wreath, which was placed on the Communion Table. Rev. A. McNeil of the United church, Maxwell, gave an impressive and appropriate sermon on Exodus 17. The choir under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Seeley rendered a fine anthem. Dr. Carr-Harris of Maxwell, who served an the front in the medical corps then gave an appropriate message for the occasion. The service was concluded by singing Kipling's Recessional Hymn, "God of Our Fathers." The wreath was placed in the United church, Maxwell, for the Anniversary services on November 13. Next Sunday it will be placed in St. Mary's Anglican church for the 11 a.m. service. After the service the congregation will march to the Maxwell cemetery and deposit the wreath on the grave of the late Fred Long, a returned veteran of Maxwell.

Mrs. B. McKenzie Heads Holdfast Club

The Holdfast U.F.W.O. club met at the home of Mrs. Henry Tucker on November 9th, with 19 members and five visitors present. After singing the opening song and repeating the Creed, the roll call was answered by a favorite pie or cake recipe. After the routine business had been attended to the election of officers took place, resulting as follows:

Pres.—Mrs. B. McKenzie.
1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. John Nichol.
2nd Vice Pres—Miss L. Whittaker
Sec.-Treas.—Miss Lillie Campbell
Directors — Mrs. Peter Muir, Mrs Edgar Patterson, Mrs. Robt. Best, Mrs. Archie Stewart.

The officers, together with Mrs. Archie Stewart, Miss Agnes Macphail and Mrs. Henry Tucker, were chosen on the program committee, which will meet at the home of Mrs. Mc Kenzie at a later date.

The Club presented Mrs. Beaton the retiring President, with a rayon bedspread and cake plate. Mrs Beaton replied very appropriately and thanked the Club members for their gifts, which she greatly appreciated.

The National Anthem closed the meeting and lunch was then served. Mrs. Donald Stewart will have the December meeting, which will be held in the Park House, Flesherton, on December 14th.

DUNDALK LOSES BANK

The announcement was made last Thursday that the Royal Bank of Canada in Dundalk will be closed on Nov. 15th and its local business taken over by the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The latter bank will close its branch at Lakefield near Peterboro, where the Royal Bank will be the one to remain. Reduction in overhead expenses is the reason given for this action. Letters have been sent to the Royal Bank customers, notifying them of the change to be made, and stating that the balances will be transferred to the Bank of Commerce after Nov. 15th.

This news came as a bolt from the blue to members of the bank staff and to citizens of town and district, and general regret is expressed that the bank is pulling out. The local branch was opened about seventeen years ago by the Union Bank, and in 1926 was taken over in the amalgamation by the Royal Bank. The bank has had a good patronge, good enough to warrant continuance in operation, the general opinion is.—Dundalk Herald.

BABE DIES IN WEST

CONSULT THE ADVERTISER

The merchant who advertises is not afraid of competition. He has something worth selling, both as to quality and price, or he would not advertise the fact. He comes out openly and tells the public about the goods and prices, therefore his prices are the same to all, not like the one who hides his prices and has one price for certain customers and another price for some one else. Buy from merchants who advertise and you will know beforehand what you will have to pay.

Doubts Oratory Benefit

Like many others, the Farmer's Advocate doubts the value of public speaking contests held at school fairs. These speeches in most cases are obviously not the work of the child and are of little benefit in developing powers of expression. The Advocate protests against the practice "of labelling as a speech what is really a recitation of unchildlike ideas expressed in adult language." In the matter of impromptu speeches it believes a different choice of subjects should be given to each school in the district, so that no one could suspect that any speech, prepared and memorized beforehand, would be of any use.

"These subjects," it continues, "should be simple, well within the experience and understanding of a school child. Judging should be absolutely on the merits of the speech and its delivery. In this way the child would reap a definite value from his or her experience in the making of a genuine impromptu speech."

CANADIAN BACON HOG QUOTA

The quota of 2,500,000 cwt. of bacons and hams assigned to Canada by the United Kingdom is not, of itself, of any particular importance. At the present time and for all time past, Canada has had unrestricted entrance into the British market. She has now been set a definite quota that she may export, but that quantity is so large that it will be a matter of a number of years before the figures of 2,500,000 cwt. (or 280,000,000 lbs.) have any specific meaning.

The importance of Canada's bacon quota is that it is part of the plan, the main feature of which is the announced policy of the United Kingdom to restore a reasonable stability in the British market for meat products, by means of the limitation of the importations of all classes of meats of which bacon and hams is one.

The details of the working out of the plan limitation involves upon Great Britain; it has been adopted by her as the means of aiding, first: her home farmers, and second: the farmers of the Dominion. This is clearly stated in the Declaration of Policy made by the United Kingdom at the Imperial Economic Conference, as follows:

"The policy of His Majesty's Government, in relation to meat production, is first: to secure the development of home production and, second: to give the Dominions an expanding share of imports into the United Kingdom."

It is from this standpoint, and in view of the general policy laid down, that Canada's bacon quota is important to the farmers of Ontario.
