

Highlight of the Dufferin 4-H Clubs' 25th Anniversary

At the 25th anniversary celebration of 4-H Clubs in Dufferin County, held in Shelburne's Cedar Room, Miss Flora Durnin, county home economist (left) was presented with a beautiful gold wrist watch in recognition of her 25 years' service in homemaking work.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Alberta Burke (centre), of Waldemar, a 1935 club member. Third lady in the above group is Mrs. Bernice Madill, of Rosemont, an early club leader and member, who expressed the gathering's appreciation of Miss Durnin's service.

Would the Men Like the '35 Length ?

A chance to compare styles of 25 years ago with to-day was provided at the recent 4-H Club Anniversary in Shelburne when Mrs. Margaret Mills, of Mono Mills, exhibited the project dress she made in 1935. Modelling the dress is Willimene Black, of Waldemar 4-H Club, while Mrs. Mills arranges it. Made of sparva cloth, at 25 cents a yard, the dress cost of total of $2.23.
