FRIDAY EVEN'G, AUG. 8, 1873.

BY THE SHORE OF THE RIVER.

Through the gray willows the bleak winds are raving
Here on the shore, with its driftwood and sands;
Over the river the lillies are waving.
Bathed in the sunshine of Orient lands;
Over the river, the wide, dark river,
Spring time and summer are blooming forever.

Here, all alone on the rocks, I am sitting,
Sitting and waiting, my comrades all gone,
Shadows of mystery drearily flitting
Over the surf with its sorrowful moan,
Over the river, the cold, strange river,
Ah! must I wait for the boatman forever.

Wife and children and friends were around me,
Labor and rest were as wings to my soul;
Honor and love were the laurels that crowned me;
Little I recked how the dark waters roll,
But the deep river, the gray, misty river,
All that I lived for has taken forever!

Silently came a black boat o'er the billows
Stealthily grating the keel on the sand:
Rustling footsteps were heard thro' the willows
There the dark Boatman stood waving his hand,
Whispering, "I come, o'er the shadowy river
She who is dearest must leave thee forever."

Suns that were brightest and skies that were bluest
Darkened and paled in the message he bore.
Year after year went the fondest, the truest,
Following that beckoning hand to the shore,
Down the river, the cold, grim river,
Over whose waters they vanished for ever.

Yet not in vision of grief have I wandered:
Still I have toiled though my ardors have flown,
Labor is manhood; and life is but squandered
Dreaming vague dreams of the future alone,
Yet from the tides of the mystical river
Voices of spirits are whispering ever.

Lonely and old, in the dusk I am waiting.
Till the dark boatman with soft muffled oar,
Glides o'er the waves, and I hear the keel grating,
See the dim beckoning hand on the shore,
Wafting me over the welcoming river
To gardens and homes that are shining forever.

IN GENERAL.

—It is proposed to convert the burned district of Baltimore into a public park.

—Sausages are said to be a specific for ague and fever, on account of the canine in them.

—Robert Bonner and Mrs. Scott Siddons are registered at the Alexandria Bay hotels.—Likewise Laura Keene.

—Soup for the poor in Boston cost about $1,000 last year, and "refreshments" for the poor cety government $13,000.

—Men are like bugles; the more brass they contain, the more noise they make, and the further you can hear them.

—It has been proved that, after kindling his fire, a miser stuck a cork in the bellows, to save the little wind that was in them.

—Baron Adolphe de Rothschild gives $1,000,000 to build and endow, at Geneva, Switzerland, a hospital for persons afflicted with the disease of the eye.

—There is one advantage in being a blockhead: you are never attacked with low spirits or apoplexy. The moment a man can worry, he ceases to be a fool.

—Stephen Daley, a New York river thief, was caught stealing from a vessel on Thursday, and in less than three hours after arrest was sentenced to imprisonment for five years.

—A convict in the Massachusetts States prison assaulted Warden Chamberlain on Tuesday, knocking him down with a shovel. The convict attempting to repeat the blow, the warden shot him.

—Where is the noble philanthropist who wants to earn five dollars by shooting Lord Gordon Gordon, and freeing the newspapers of a nuisance that has become intolerable! The money is ready for him.

—Mollie Jones and her brother, living on a farm near Shipman, Ill., worked a potato patch together, but fell out on the question of the division of the proceeds. A stand-up fight was agreed upon to settle the matter, and with the father of the family as referee and the mother as bottle-holder, Mollie polished off her brother until he couldn't tell a potate from a pumpkin.

—The Ohio river has a remarkably long face. It is twelve hundred miles from its head to its mouth.

—The Danbury News man is confident that one of the things woman never will learn is that she cannot saw wood.

—When a Persian wants to collect a debt, he just brings a piece of carpet and lays it down in the debtor's bedroom and takes up his quarters thereon till his demands are complied with.

—Whether or not Premier Gladstone is a Jesuit was the subject of a sharp debate between Mr. Johnstone, M.P., and a Dr. Potter, in the late Orange convention in Glasgow. Dr. Potter revived the charge and Mr. Johnstone denied its truth.

An Elopement Spoiled.

(Danbury News.)

Since Mr. O'Clarance's Fourth of July celebration, North Street has been comparatively quiet. But last night it was again aroused. It appears that one of our Main street clerks is keeping company with a young lady living in North street. And her father is opposed to his society, or at least that has been the impression since a fortnight ago, when he poured a tea kettle of hot water on him. But having healed the burns, the young man determined to capture the girl in spite of the parent, and laid plans for an elopement which was to have come off last night. The stern father received intelligence of the plan through the perfidy of the servant who had been taken into the confidence of the young people, and he concealed himself in the shade of a lilac bush, just under the window of the depraved daughter. At twelve o'clock the young man approached the spot, standing so close to our friend in the lilac bush that he could almost touch him, and could quite smell the sweet oil. A moment later a head appeared at the window, a brief whispered conversation followed, and a comfortable bundle of things was dropped down, and the head retired. The young man whose skin was off in places, and who was undoubtedly thinking of angels chasing pond-lilies across rainbows, held his hand up to catch the bundle, when he became suddenly aware that he was grappled by the legs, and in the next instant he was hurled through the air, and went nose first into an onion bed. When he got on his feet he did not pause to look up the cause of the trouble, but threw himself over the first fence and struck out for home, content to wait until the paper came out for particulars. The first intimation the young lady had of the modification of the programme was the appearance of her father at her door, who politely extended the bundle, and kindly observed: "You dropped something out of your window, Miss." She had.

Pond's Extract has spread and grown in the esteem of the people for over twenty-five years.

COCOA FOR INVALIDS.—Nutritious and Restorative Cocoa. Specially prepared for sufferers from Indigestion, Debility, and Pulmonary complaints, is highly nutritious, easily digested and palatable and adapted for the most delicate stomach. Sold by the Manufacturers, Savory & Moore, 143, New Bond Street, London, W., and procurable at all Chemists and Storekeepers, throughout Canada and the United States.

A common cough or cold should never be trifled with; often when neglected it is converted into a serious and generally fatal pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware of this, promptly use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," a curative which has sustained its reputation for over twenty years—they are always efficacious and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts. per box.

IT IS NOT WHAT YOU EAT BUT what digest that makes you strong. Unless the food taken is perfectly dissolved, assimilated and converted into pure blood, general nervous and physical prostration inevitable result: the whole system is impoverished; degeneration of the organs and tissues follows, and if there be hereditary predisposition to scrofula or consumption it will surely be developed and the constitution gradually broken down. The foundation of good health and a sound mind is a vigorous stomach and perfect nutrition. DR. WHEELER'S Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya is Nature's own remedy for derangements of the digestive organs, purely physiological, harmless, and positively certain to restore nervous and muscular force.

How to make Money.—A horse dealer residing in the vicinity of Keyport, N.J., and who buys up horses for the New York market, purchases 'Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy' by the dozen and feeds it to his horses; he says it is superior to anything that he has ever used as a condition medicine, that the horses are so much more improved by its use to sell more readily and command higher prices. Two other horse dealers, one residing at Huntingdon the other at Glen Cove, L.I., also purchase it by the dozen and for the same purpose; these men, as well as many others similarly engaged, know too well the value and importance of this medicine ever to be without it. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The wonderful success of Savory & Moore's Pancreatic Emulsion and Pancreatine in consumption, wasting, loss of the power of digestion and assimilation has firmly established these remedies in the estimation of the Medical Profession on both sides of the Atlantic. Imitations of them—made in U. States, Canada, and England—being in reality either saponaceous compounds or pomades, without a trace of the Pancreatic principle, are entirely useless. The efficacy of these preparations, made by Messrs. Savory & Moore from the first, under the direction of the Physician who introduced them, has been and can only be ensured by strict adherence to the original formulæ, and the medical profession recognize no other Pancreatic Emulsion and Pancreatine than those thus prepared, the purity and strength of which is guaranteed. See "Reports of the Experience and Opinions of Medical Men on the value of Savory & Moore's Pancreatic Emulsion and Pancreatine as remedies in Wasting Diseases." (Churchill & Sons, London), to be obtained of all the principal Chemists in the United States and Canada. Savory & Moore, 143, New Bond Street, London, Chemists to the Queen, H.R.H. Prince of Wales.
