We extend our sympathy to the relatives of the late Mr. J. Sled whose funeral took place on Saturday last at Stayner. Mr. Sled is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Wm. J. Magee. He was quite an old man and had been ailing for some time.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Ashley Fawcett, Powassan and Mrs. M. Ferguson of Kimberley wish to thank their many friends for assistance and sympathy in their loss of their wife and daughter.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to the many friends and neighbors for kindness and sympathy extended to us in our recent bereavement.

—THE CULLEN FAMILY.

A man in Autralia had his auto tire punctured by a gold nugget worth $25. We may do better in future but so far we haven't picked up anything better than a spike.

PRICEVILLE

A lengthy program of some 33 items was given by the Sunday school of St. Columba United Church on Thursday evening, December 22. The program was good throughout, in its choruses, dialogues, plays, pantomimes songs and duets. The debut of a new orchestra of three violins, guitar, castinets and piano was a pleasing feature. The choir of the church also contributed "Rejoice, Rejoice, Exalt His Name." Near the conclusion of the program occasion was taken to present the medal donated by Mr. C. A. Fleming of the Northern Business College of Owen Sound for the best specimen of penmanship exhibited at the fall fair here. The secretary of the society, W. W. Ramage, conveyed the congratulations and best wishes of Mr. Fleming, the society and himself, to the winner, Miss Dorothy Lawrence, and also to Miss Frances Smith, who was a good second, and to Miss Jessie Nichol, the teacher of both. Miss Lawrence expressed her thanks in a few fitting words. Santa Claus' arrival has the cause of much merriment in conversation with the chairman.
