MONDAY EVEN'G, DEC. 15, 1873.

THE WISH OF TO-DAY.

I ask not for gold to gild
With mocking shine and weary frame:
The craving of the mind is stilled.—
I ask not now for Fame.

A rose-cloud, dimly seen above,
Melting in heaven's blue depths away,
O sweet, fond dream of human Love!
For thee I may not pray.

But, hovered in lowliness of mind,
I make no humble wishes known,—
I only ask a will resigned,
O Father, to thine own!

To-day, beneath thy chastening eye,
I crave alone for peace and rest,
Submissive in thy hand to lie,
And feel that it is best.

A marvel seems the Universe,
A miracle our Life and Death;
A mystery which I cannot pierce,
Around, above, beneath.

In vain I task my aching brain,
In vain the sage's thought I scan,
I only feel how weak and vain,
How poor and blind, is man.

And now my spirit sighs for home,
And longs for light whereby to see,
And, like a weary child, would come,
O Father, unto Thee!

Though oft, like letters traced on sand,
My weary resolves have passed away,
In mercy lend Thy helping hand
Unto my prayer to-day!

J. G. WHITTIER.

Pond's Extract has a reputation of twenty-five years standing, and has become a national medicine.

The Question Settled.—These eminent men, Dr. Jas. Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and Dr. Hughes Bennett say that consumption can be cured. Dr. Wistar knew that when he discovered his now widely-known Balsam of Wild Cherry, and experience has proved the correctness of his opinion.

Is your throat sore, or are you annoyed by a constant cough? If so, use promptly "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers." They will give you instant relief. They relieve the air passages of phlegm or mucous, and allay inflammation, and no safer remedy can be had for coughs, colds, or any complaint of the throat or lungs, and if taken in time their efficacy will soon be proved. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

Every Body Says So.—That is all who have either used the article themselves or witnessed its effects when used by others; all such, and they are only fit to judge, are unanimous in the opinion that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" is superior to anything of the kind heretofore or at present in use for coughs, colds, thick wind, and all diseases which affect the wind of horses. As a condition medicine it has no equal; there is nothing in it which can injure a horse whether sick or well—nor need the horse be kept from working while using it; it is just the article which all who own horses require, and which they should have constantly on hand. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Nanaimo Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

DR. WHEELER'S ELXIR OF PHOSphates and Calissaya—after having used your Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calissaya for over two years in my daily practice, I must give it my unqualified approbation. During a practice of over twenty years, I have used many scientifically prepared compounds, made to fulfil the same therapeutical indications as your elixir, but none of them proved with me as valuable as yours. To the medical profession, and to the public, I would especially recommend it as the best remedy with which I am acquainted for the successful treatment of the large and constantly increasing class of cases of over-worked and nervous-exhausted women. Yours truly, N. Watkins Buel, M.D.

Mr. Gurney, of Toronto, writes "I have sold the agent left it acts like a charm—I will never first but takes anything." Hundreds of letters please to send 1 doz Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I am out of it. Nothing equals it. I highly recommend it to those who have used.' J. Bidwell Thamesville, writes "I am in the supply of Eclectric Oil. I have always sold it. I never saw anything that gave such satisfaction.' J. Thompson, Wooler writes "send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have sold nearly out. Nothing like it." Only yesterday I sold to a gentleman from Gilmour & Co., Buckingham, P.Q. who was in one dose Eclectric Oil—we had it on the way.'
