Request Take Power From P. S. Inspectors

Trustee and Ratepayers' Association Formed—Officers Appointed

At a public meeting held in the Orange hall, Maxwell, on Saturday, Jan. 21, for the purpose of forming a Trustee and Ratepayers Association a large and representative number of ratepayers of the township were present.

Mr. Wm. L. Taylor as chairman very ably conducted the election and installation of officials of the association formed as follows: David Briggs of Badjeros as president; Dougald Stephens of Maxwell as vice pres.; C. N. Long of Feversham as sec.-treas. and committee composed of C. M. Heron, Maxwell; Jos. McCutcheon of Wareham; Fred Hale of Feversham; C. Sprott of Badjeros; and H. McInnes of McIntyre.

The meeting was favored in having Mr. H. Corbett of Proton and Mr. F. Pedlar of Eugenia on hand and with their help and advice and addresses which both gave, the ratepayers present were given information which many did not understand thoroughly.

At the close of the election of officers and committee the newly chosen president, Mr. Briggs, was invited to take the chair and he conducted the remainder of the meeting and was instrumental in having the two following resolutions passed:

1st — That the Inspector of public schools be not given the power to withold the township grant to school boards not paying salaries equal to said grant.

2nd — That sub section A and B of section 109 of the public school act be amended to read at least $500. for each principal teacher and $300 for each assistant. Sub sec. B to read $400 to each principal and $250 to each assistant: and a copy of this resolution be sent to the Minister of Education and to Trustee and Ratepayers' Association.

It is planned to hold further meetings of the newly formed association in the near future and all ratepayers interested are requested to attend as questions of interest to all will be brought up for discussion.

More than 40 countries have decided to participate in some form or another in the world Grain Show to be held in Calgary exhibition, and it's said that the educational exhibits space has been largely taken up.

Miser's Worthy Motive

A human interest story was contained in a despatch in last week's dailies—a story marked by fine idealism yet marred by the curse of miserliness. A crippled man of an eastern city had for years shuffled about the business district soliciting orders for showcards. He died last week and his friends—for he had many despite his miserly habits—wondered if he really had any money. They made a search of his room and found eight bank passbooks; also several glass jars and boxes crammed with silver and copper coins. The total value of the estate will be about $30,000. In his effects also was found an eleven-year-old will which showed that the cripple's life-long frugality had been motivated by a fine, generous feeling—the fear that his blind father might die a pauper and be buried in potter's field. The will provided an annual income for the father, so he would not suffer want. But the father has been dead four years. Now three cousins will each get $10,000. It seems a tragedy that this man should have denied himself so greatly—living in one room, likely in a cheap district — under-nourished — poorly clothed—shuffling about—and with his father possibly sharing a similar existence—the while $30,000 was being accumulated without being of any service to either the crippled man or his father. What comfort it might have brought to the father in his later years! And how the man might have enjoyed pleasures and luxuries in the past four years since his father passed away! But the greed for money had become his obsession, and the only pleasure he received was the miser's pleasure at accumulating money.—Exchange.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. HANNAH BROWN

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Annie Wright, on Sunday evening, Jan. 22nd, there passed away Mrs. Hannah Brown, at the ripe age of eighty-two years. She had the misfortune last June of falling and breaking her hip, and had never recovered from the effects of it. She bore the pain with great fortitude and resignation, the end coming as a welcome release, and with joyous expectation of the better life beyond this vale of tears. Deceased whose maiden name was Hannah Bristow, was born in Yorkshire county, England, she came to Canada with her parents at the tender age of two years, who settled near Rob Roy. In the year 1869 she was united in marriage to the late William Brown who predeceased her forty one years ago.

She leaves to mourn her passing five daughters and two sons namely: Evangeline, Mrs. F. N. Weldrick, Feversham; Louisa, Mrs. F. J. Hawton, Stayner; Annie, Mrs. Annie Wright, Feversham; Alice, Mrs. N. R. Jeffrey, Montney, B.C.; Sarah, Mrs. Sarah Wright, Feversham; William of Grand Valley and Frederick of Feversham. One daughter, Ethel May, Mrs. T. W. Conron, predeceased her eight years ago. Twenty-nine grand children and eighteen great grandchildren also survive and two brothers, William Bristow of Collingwood and Thomas Bristow of Stayner.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, January 25, at 2 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Annie Wright to Bethel cemetery. The Rev. Dean assisted by Revs. Shannon and Tiller preached a very comforting sermon to the bereaved, taking for his text the sixteenth verse of the ninety-first Psalm. They also officiated at the grave, where they committed to rest the last remains of one of Osprey's pioneers.

Relatives from a distance were: Mr. William Brown of Grand Valley, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hawton, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Paddison and daughter, Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McArthur and two children, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Freethy, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Bristow, Mr. Bert Freethy, Mr. John Freethy, Mrs. E. J. Bristow, Mrs. Joe Bristow, Mrs. Alex. Walker and son, all of Stayner; Mr. and Mrs. William Bristow and Thomas Bristow of Collingwood; Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLeod of McIntyre; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bristow and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McDermid and Mr. Henry Bristow of Rob Roy and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brackenbury of Flesherton.

The pallbearers were the two sons and four nephews, namely: Messrs. Wm. Brown, Frederick Brown, Clifford Bristow, Thomas Bristow, Henry Bristow and W. J. Freethy.

Travelled 175,000 Miles

Rural Postman For 23 Years Has Gone Around The World Seven Times

Seven times around the world would be a long journey but it would not equal the distance travelled by Mr. Joseph Hunt of this town during the 23 years of faithful service carrying His Majesty's mails out of Wiarton besides his duties as bailiff, in which he covers a large section of the Bruce Peninsula each year. Mr. Hunt is the veteran courier of this district having been in the service since the year 1909. He first carried the mail between Wiarton and Stokes Bay for seven years, covering the 26 miles each day in a year. During the 23 years that Mr. Hunt has carried the mail out of Wiarton he has travelled close to 175,000 miles, which added to his travels as liveryman and bailiff would bring his mileage well over the 200,000 mark. He is still hale and hearty and gives promise of many more years in the service.

Cheaper Divorces; More Of Them

As far as Toronto is concerned there is no depression in the divorce market. At least, a look at the figures available at Osgoode Hall would appear to bear this out. The past year over 200 Toronto couples disagreed to such effect that they received final or what are termed 'absolute' decrees. Since the new divorce legislation became operative in Ontario 260 Toronto husbands and wives have reached the parting of the way. The first divorce to be made absolute was on August 31, 1931, and in the remainder of that year 40 more absolute decrees were granted. The total for last year was 219.

There is no doubt that the new divorce legislation worked out to the benefit of the couples with not too much money. Prominent divorce lawyers informed the Toronto Telegram that the average cost of an undefended divorce action is now about $200, whereas in the days when it was necessary to go to the senate at Ottawa, the cost was never less than $500, and usually more. Of course, the cost depends a great deal, they say, upon the financial condition of the parties. Some undefended divorce actions lately have been put through the courts and the absolute decrees obtained for as low as $100.

Saw A Robin Redbreast

Mrs. Wilfred Inkster, of Wareham, 'phoned The Herald on Tuesday morning and announced that she had seen a robin sitting in an apple tree alongside the house that morning. Dundalk horseshoe pitchers were enjoying their favorite pastime every day this week up to the time of going to press. These surely are records for the last week in January.—Dundalk Herald.

Radio wisecrackers are said to receive as much as $5,000 for each performance. We always thought they had good reason to be happy.

Tuesday of last week, January 24th, Mr. George White of Springhill killed a green garter snake, which was wandering around on his farm. It is seldom that snakes are found parading around during the winter months.

H. A. VanDusen of Tara, a former editor of The Leader, died at his home in Tara in Monday, aged 77 years. He always took an outstanding part in the village's activities and published a bright, newsy paper that was a credit to the village.

Richard Moody of the South Line, Artemesia, formerly of Flesherton, suffered a broken leg while working in the bush last week. A small tree fell on his leg above the knee causing the fracture. He was taken to Markdale on Monday for an x-ray examination.
