One of the Testimonials.
From Dr Duncan McCallum, Montreal:
I, the undersigned, have been suffering very much for the last two years from Rheumatism in the ankle joint, so much so that I was often prevented from attending to my calling, but three applications of Dr Birnbaum's Rheumatism and Gout Remedy gave me that relief from pain and stiffness which I did not experience for the last two years, and after eight days' use of this remedy I find myself entirely cured.
I owe this statement to the public, to the profession and to the merits of the genuine article, Duncan McCallum M.D.

WILLFULNESS.

I offered hand and heart and self
To somebody—a wilful elf—
Who heard me through, then turned away,
And answered but a scornful Nay!
In vain I strove to plead my case;
No gentle pity touched her face;
But listening with polite surprise,
She turned from mine her careless eyes.

Love driven back within my breast,
Pride volunteered to do the rest.
I ceased to argue and implore,
And vowed to trouble her no more.
Then, lo! the maiden's cheeks grew red,
And downwards bent the haughty head;
The sweet lips lost their careless smile,
And quivered as I paused the while.

A sudden home within me grew;
I dared to think her heart was true,
Even though her lips, for mischief's sake,
Had tried my proffered heart to break;
Just what I whispered, never mind!
But she—she answered: Men are blind;
When will they learn a woman's nay—
By dint of coaxing—means but yea!

WOLFE ISLAND COUNCIL.

A special meeting of the Council was held on the 17th inst. Present, Reeve, Messrs. Bush and Webster; (Staley attending jury), Woodman absent.

The minutes of the last meeting were read, amended and adopted.

The Reeve stated that he had called the council together to consider the advisability of repealing the by-law passed at the last meeting of the council, fixing Tavern Licenses at $100, as by what he had understood from several of the inhabitants, it was not likely to prove satisfactory, inasmuch as it would deprive the inhabitance of the Island from the necessary accommodation while going to and from market.

Mr. Webster said he was in favor of repealing the by-law, and was of the opinion, from the beginning of the discussion on it, that it would not meet the wishes of the people.

Mr. Bush was something of that opinion himself; but would they be certain of getting the accommodation after repealing the by-law, as people had the same right to close their yards then as they had before?

After some further discussion on the subject, it was moved by Mr. Bush, sec. by Mr. Webster, and resolved, that the resolution passed on the 3rd inst., proposing by-law No. 130 be rescinded.

It was also moved by Mr. Webster, seconded by Mr. Bush, and resolved, that a by-law be passed to repeal by-law No. 130. The by-law was passed accordingly.

A subscription list was presented by S. Going, verified by a receipt from Mrs. Huff, showing the amount of subscription paid and disposed of in aid of A. Huff's family, previous to his death, while he was ill with a broken leg: Amount paid out, $72.10; amount collected, $68.60, over paid by S. Going, $3.50.

M. Sroor, Reeve.
S. Going, Clerk.

A MOST POWERFUL DRINKER.

Did you ever hear of Sir Andrew Wallace seizing a man that was drunk and putting him up at auction? Squire Wallace was a captain in the militia; and one day, after the training was over, and just before the men were dismissed from parade, he took a guard with him and made a prisoner of Pat Sweeney, who was a most powerful drinker—drink as much at a time as a camel almost. 'Pat,' says he, 'I seize you in the King's name.' 'Me!' says Pat, scratching his head, and looking all abroad, bewildered like; 'I'm not a smuggler! Touch me if you dare! 'I seize you,' says he, 'for a violation of the excise law, for carrying about you more than a gallon of rum without a permit, and to-morrow I will sell you by auction to the highest bidder. You are a forfeited article, and I could knock you on the head and let out, if I liked; so no nonsense man.' And he sent him off to jail screaming and screeching like mad, he was so frightened. The next day Pat was put up for auction and knocked down to his wife, who bid him in for 40s. It's generally considered the greatest rise ever taken out of a man in this country.—English Paper.

THE INVALID—A PEN PICTURE.

See her pallid countenance, but a short time ago the picture of ruddy health, the envy of the school and the pride of the household. She was always welcomed by her schoolmates, for her lithe form and pleasing disposition carried cheerfulness into their ranks. Diligent, punctual and exemplary, obedient and graceful at home she won the hearts of all. But, alas, we are sorrowed. Those rosy cheeks and ruddy lips are blanched by Consumption. The voice once so enchanting in laugh and song is feeble, husky and supplanted by a hollow cough. Let us approach her couch gently and take her hand. Do not shudder because of the feeble and passionless grasp. The hand once so hearty and plump is emaciated and shows bony outlines, while the cords of tortuous veins are plainly mapped upon the surface. The pulse that bounded with repletion carrying vigor to the whole system, and imparting life, beauty, vivicity, health and strength, is delicate to the touch. The feeble heart cannot propel the thin, scanty blood with force. Must we lose her while yet in her teens? Companions and friends gather around with words of cheer and consolation, and depart with moistened eyes and silent steps. Must we lose her? No! there is relief! We can save this destroyer of our happiness and not suffer the loss of so bright a gem. Sometimes more is required than dietary and hygienic observance, for nature calls for aid and she shall have it. Take this pleasant medicine. It is invigorating. How it allays the irritable cough improves the appetite and digestion and sends a healthy tingle through the frame. The blood is enriched, nervous force increased, and the heart bounds with a new impulse. See her face brighten by degrees; the color is returned, her voice is getting clearer, and pleasant words are spoken. The strength falters yet, but is gaining. Let us take her out in the warm sunshine. In a short time she will be able to go without our aid, a cheerful girl. The delightful medicine must be God-blessed. It is restoring health to our loved one. She is emerging from her sickness sweeter and nobler than before, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery must have the credit. It has raised her.

S. R. Eclar, of West Union, O., says that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has effected a wonderful cure of Consumption in his neighborhood.

The efficacy of Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers—in curing coughs, colds and all bronchial affections and cheering the afflicted, has passed into a proverb. In the United States where these marvellous Wafers are known, they bear down all opposition and eclipse all rivalry; the demand for them has steadily increased for the last twenty years, until now the sales average over one hundred thousand boxes a year. Eminent members of the medical profession without number admit that they know of no preparation producing such beneficial results as these Wafers. When in season the effect is permanent cure. Somebody Says—There is something peculiarly attractive in a horse. His intelligent eye and ear, his lofty carriage, his free and graceful motion, his vast strength, his obedient temper, and his indispensible use, all endear him to us. We have to look at his fine proportions and take in the inspiration of his energy and and power, but it is only when the horse is properly cared for—when he is free from disease or unsoundness of any kind that he will exhibit these points of attraction and without which he is of little value. A package of "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" should be in possession of every man who owns a horse to be used in case of emergency. Don't fail to get it. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., proprietors. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Late Rev. Dr. Clarke wrote Mr. Fellows.—While I was under the process of Erysipelas the Hon Dr——called upon me I told him how much of the Hypo. I had used. He said Fellows Hypophosphites is a good medicine, an excellent tonic, and no doubt had drawn the acidity that was in my blood to the surface and thus prevented it from attacking some important organ of my system. I have conversed with many who have used it and all say they were benefitted by it. For myself I have much pleasure, in saying it improved my general health amazingly. It gives a clear skin and healthy countenance, but to know its virtues it must be used and were it within the reach of all classes, I believe it would be used universally; yes, by the well, to renew their age, and by the sick to make them well. It makes an old person look ten years younger. This witness is true. Would that I could more widely make it known for its many virtues. Long may its inventor live to see the happy fruits of his invention.

Read This Twice.—Five to thirty drops of Thomas Eclectric Oil will cure common Sore Throat. It never fails in Croup. It will cure a Cold or Cough in twenty-four to forty-eight hours. One bottle has cured Bronchitis of eight years standing; recent cases are cured in three to six days. It has restored the voice where the person had not spoken above a whisper in five years. As an outward application in all cases of pain or lameness, nothing like it has ever been known. One bottle will cure any case of Lame Back or Crick in the Back. For diseases of the Spine and contraction of the muscles it is unequaled. In Rheumatic or any other pain the first application does you good. It stops Ear Ache and the pain of a Burn in three minutes, and is altogether the best and cheapest medicine ever offered to the people—the cheapest, because it takes so little to do you good. It is composed of six of the best oils known, and nothing but oils. Is worth its weight in gold. Why not buy it to-day?—A B Desilochets, assistant postmaster Arthabaskaville, P.Q, writes—"Thirteen years ago I was seized by a severe attack of rheumatism in the head, from which I have nearly constantly suffered. After having used Thomas Eclectric Oil for nine days, bathing the sore head, I have been completely c
