Vol. 52, No 39 | Flesherton, Ontario, March 8 1933 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

FEVERSHAM

Miss Maxine Davidson and Zella Long of Toronto are holidaying at their parental homes here and at Rob Roy, respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. James Eby of Collingwood motored over and spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Eby here.

Mr. Fenwick of the Toronto line spent Sunday with friends in this village.

Mr. Hugh Davidson has returned to the city after visiting with friends here for a month.

While playing on the ice on the pond a little Boston terrier, belonging to Mr. Eby, broke through the ice and was drowned. The ice was so thin that it would break time and again with the dog's weight as it attempted to scramble out and it became exhausted and sank before any help could arrive. When the accident was noticed a small Boston terrier, belonging to Mr. John Robinson was apparently trying to coax its playmate out of the water and has been seen on the ice several times since, looking to where its playmate broke through, but did not go near the thin ice at the edge where they had been playing together.

The cars are coming into the village again without much trouble. The crows are back again so spring must be just around the corner.

Rev. F. Dean of the Gospel Workers church has returned after a visit with friends in Thornbury.

ROCK MILLS

Mrs. Thos. Aldcorn of Toronto is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hargrave of Markdale visited one day last week with his uncle here, Mr. John Hargrave.

Mr. Edgar Betts was trucking dry wood to Shelburne the past week.

It is probable that a second knitting industry will locate in Kincardine. The town council has been approached by officials of a Collingwood firm, which is desirous of locating in the former town. Lack of space in the present plant at Collingwood, and the availability of a suitable building in Kincardine are given as the reason for the contemplated move.

MAXWELL

The Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Joe Wright last Thursday. There was a good attendance. A crokinole party was planned for the latter part of the month. A dainty lunch was served at the close.

Our school is closed at present, owing to an epidemic of mumps. Miss Ingles, the teacher, is spending a few days at her home in Walkerton.

Mr. Angus Morrison and son, Andrew, are spending a few days in Toronto.

The choir social on Friday night was a decided success. A program of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, club swinging and folk dancing was much enjoyed by all. The men's quartette was especially enjoyed on Negro spirituals. A charade on the word "Incompatability" was quite amusing. The winner on guessing the word was presented with a box of chocolates.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Long and family of Hopeville spent Sunday with Robt. Priestley's.

Messrs. Frank and Jack McNeil and friend of Toronto visited with the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. McNeil for a couple of days last week.

Mr. Scott had taken the pictures himself as he travelled through this land, which made the lecture all the more interesting. The proceeds amounted to 3.50. The young people will hold their meeting on Thursday evening of this week.

LOSES FINGER PLAYING WITH DYNAMITE CAP

Elvin Stewart, eldest son of Mr. Harry Stewart, was the victim of a painful accident on Tuesday last. He and his brother,, Harold, discovered several dynamite caps and attempted to light one with a match. The cap exploded in Elvin's hand, blowing the end off the index finger of his left hand, besides injuring his right hand and face. It was found necessary to amputate the finger at the first joint. —Dundalk Herald.

KNEW HIS PARSING

Teacher: "Parse the sentence, 'Tom married Jane'."

Boy: "Tom's a noun because he's the name of something. Married is a conjunction because it joins Tom and Jane. Jane is a verb because she governs the noun."

It's a funny thing how cold cash can burn a hole in your pocket.

EUGENIA

In 1873, in Allenwick township, Northumberland county, there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Will. Whitby, a daughter, Annie. When quite a little girl Annie with her parents, came to this locality to reside. She spent many of her girlhood days here. Later the family moved to the States, where Annie married Mr. Frederick and settled in Seattle. She had a warm lovable disposition which won for her many friends here. That bond of friendship is now broken for on February 16, she passed on to be with Jesus in the Home of the Blest; but death cannot sever the chain of love and remembrance. About two weeks previous to her death she contracted pneumonia, which in the end proved fatal. The deceased has visited here on several occasions since her removal to the States. Her last visit here was six years ago. She attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lawler (nee Miss Maude Carr). She was Mrs. Lawlor's chief attendant and they have kept up a correspondence for many years since. Mrs. Robt. Purvis and Mrs. John Williams of this village are aunts of the deceased and Mr. Jim Linton of Wareham is an uncle. The late Mrs Frederick was a very loving and dutiful daughter to her mother who resides at Tacoma. Her kind acts will never be forgotten by many, especially her cousin, Miss Gladys Williams, who deeply mourns her demise. She leaves in sad bereavement, besides her sorrowing husband and two sons in Seattle, her mother, three brothers and three sisters, all residing in the States. Her father predeceased her some time ago. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.

Friend after friend departs,
Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts
That hath not here an end.

Mrs. J. E. Large and daughter, little Miss Beth, of Niagara Falls are visiting a few days with the former's father, Mr. Peter Munshaw and her son, Jack.

Miss Patricia Morgan was home from her school in Osprey over the week end.

Mr. W. Gordon has been buzzing wood during the past week for Messrs Roy MacMillan, Harold Falconer and Will Walker.

Mr. Fred Boland, the assessor, was in the village the past week on duty. Glad to have a friendly visit once a year from him.

Mrs. Dave Genoe and Miss Dorothy of East Mountain visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jamieson Mrs. Genoe remained for a few days visit. She has not wholly recovered from her operation for goitre last fall.

We think there are quite a nunber yet that might turn out to church and listen to God's word. Sunday school attendance 40, collection $1.22.

KIMBERLEY

We are glad to report Mr. D. L. Weber getting along very well after his recent operation in Owen Sound hospital. Mrs. Weber and several members of the family visited him on Sunday afternoon.

Betty Graham of Flesherton is visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Burritt.

Vandeleur W. I. visited Kimberley W. I. at the home of Mrs. F. J. Weber. A good program was provided, mostly by the visitors. An excellent paper given by Miss M. Freeman on "courtesy" and another by Mrs. W. Hutchinson on "the evils of fault finding." Two readings were given by Mrs. W. Swanton and Mrs. F. Weber. We were sorry to miss a paper by Mrs. J. Eyles as she was ill and could not attend.

The farmers and W. I. members and visitors enjoyed a number of lectures and demonstrations for 4 days last week put on by Mr. Cooper and Mr. Engel of Markdale and Mrs. Shearer of Poole. 46 ladies and girls attended and about as many men and older boys attended the farmers' meetings. There was useful information given out and we will see results from the meetings in the future.

PROTON STATION

BORN — On March 3rd, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lyons a son. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reddick and son, Norman, opened their hospitable home to the community last Tuesday night for a miscellaneous shower for their newly-wedded neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hodgin. About one hundred and twenty-five people gathered to do honor to the occasion At an opportune time during the evening Mr. Herbert Corbett, after making a congratulatory speech, on behalf of those present, presented Mr. and Mrs. Hodgin with numerous handsome and useful gifts placed on display on a nearby table. Bert made an appropriate reply.

Misses Marjorie and Roberta Acheson of Toronto, Emily Acheson of Chatsworth and Maude Acheson of Shelburne spent the week end at their parental home.

Mr. Clarke Wyvill is visiting in Toronto.

The Proton Station hockey team, with a truck load of fans, went to Markdale Monday night to try their fate with a Markdale team. After playing fifteen minutes overtime the score remained a 3-3 tie.

STOCK TRUCKING

Ths year I am reducing the charge for trucking stock to the market to the low price of 25 cents for each 100 pounds. I also wish at this time to thank all my patrons for their business in the past few years.
