PRICEVILLE

A St. Patrick social was held in the basement of the United church on Friday evening, March 17th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid and W. M. S. The night was ideal, a good crowd attending, and all enjoyed the fine entertainment that was given. Rev. Mr. Moir acted as chairman and presided in a very efficient manner. Mrs. H. B. McLean sang a solo, which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Peter Muir and Mrs. H. B. McLean sang a duet, "There's a Pretty Spot in Ireland." Rev. Mr. Moir gave a splendid address on St. Patrick. Mrs. Harry Houston gave a couple of instrumentals on piano which were much enjoyed. A trio comprised of Mrs. Peter Muir, Misses Belle Weir and Bertha James sang "The Harp that once through Tara's Hall." A number of choruses were also enjoyed. The orchestra, Mrs. G. Whyte and Stewart Muir, with violins, Miss Mary McKinnon and Mr. Mattie McConkey with guitars, accompanied by Mrs. J. C. Harrison at the piano, gave a number of fine selections. Mr. Wm. Ramage gave a couple of songs. Mr. Frank Reiley gave a fine talk on the history of Ireland. A number of group games embracing the months of January, February, March and April were held, each group being known as O'Brien, Murphy and Finnigan, Fagan, Flannigan and O'Grady. The Flannigans seemed to be the most numerous. Each group came to the front and posed for a photo and then sang a song or did some stunt. Other contests included one in which a girl from each group to draw a pig on blackboard blindfolded. The prize winners in this were Misses Anna McLean and Allie Eckhardt (tied.) Then one man from each group, blindfolded, went to the table and kissed the blarney stone and Mr. Angus McLean was the winner. A song by Mr. Neill McLeod was also enjoyed. A bountiful lunch was then served by the ladies, when a most enjoyable time was spent.

The business meeting of the Willing Helpers and the W.M.S. was held prior to a delightful tea. A freewill offering ahounted to $10.

A racket to beat the Workmen's Compensation Board out of large sums of money has been unearthed in Toronto. In these days when so many men are out of work it is to be expected they will concentrate on some manner of getting money, and the authorities will have to be constantly on their guard.

EUGENIA

The St. Patrick's social given under the auspices of the Women's Association in the basement of the church on Monday evening, March 27th, was a decided success. The evening was spent in games and contests. The articles in the "Mysterious Grab Bag" were all disposed of. The proceeds of the social amounted to $8.45. The program was arranged by the young people of the community and we extend our thanks to them for the enjoyable time.

The Women's Association met in the basement of the United church on Thursday afternoon, March 23rd, with the president, Mrs. Jack Campbell in the chair. There were nine members and four visitors present. The scripture reading was taken from the 36th Psalm. The roll call was answered by an Irish joke. The next roll call is to be answered by a Biblical verse containing the word "faith." It was decided to quilt quilts for any person for the small sum of 50c., also to piece a quilt top. Mrs. Lewis Genoe and Mrs. Carruthers were appointed to provide lunch and program for the next meeting. A letter of appreciation from Mrs. Adam Smith for the pretty primrose plant sent by the W. A. during her illness, was read by Mrs. C. Martin. The W. A. sent a bouquet to Mrs. Jake Williams, who is ill in Owen Sound. The program part of the meeting consisted of a reading by Mrs. Pedlar, a reading by Mrs. Cameron and then all drew slips decorated with shamrocks, each slip forecasting something in the future. Lunch was then served by Mrs. W. Magee and Mrs. C. Martin. The next meeting will be held in May, owing to the missionary meeting to be held in April. We welcome visitors to the W. A. meetings.

We would like to hear of a greater improvement in Mrs. Jake William's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Biggar and the latter's sister, Miss Muriel Fenwick of Owen Sound visited the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fenwick.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Adam Smith is able to be about again.

Mrs. Fogg of Winnipeg is a visitor with her brother, Postmaster R. A. Park, and wife and family, also her brother, George.

A dance will be held at the home of Thos. E. Fenwick, Eugenia, on Friday, March 31st. Gents 25c. Ladies with lunch free. Come where you will have a good time.

We are getting back to sound ground and people are now talking about the good old dimes.

It would be all right being referred to as a model husband if a person didn't have to look so meek.

LADY BANK

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. W. Wilson, March 8th, with a fair attendance. The April meeting will be held in Providence church on the 12th inst. The roll call is to be answered by an Easter verse. Members please attend and visitors are welcome.

PAT WAS PUZZLED

Pat was buying a clock.

"This," said the persuasive assistant, "is an eight-day clock."

Pat scratched his head in wonderment.

"What be an eight-day clock, mister?" he asked.

"One that will go for eight days without needing winding," explained the assistant.

"Begorrah," smiled the Irishman, "how long would it go if you wound it?"
